Benevolence News . . .

Due to our current situation involving Covid-19 and our limited Benevolence activities, we are unable to take Clothes/furniture/household item donations at this time. Hopefully soon after the new year our normal operations will resume, but until that time (and we will let you know when you can begin to bring things for benevolence), we have nowhere to store additional items (there is no outflow of items until we resume our normal operations). Thanks for your assistance in caring for the less fortunate in our area.

OUR LIFE ON THIS EARTH

I received the following thoughts by an unknown author via email from one of my Christian friends and wanted to share them with you. The thoughts expressed are something to seriously think about this day and every day that God allow us to live (Acts 17:24-25):

You know, time has a way of moving quickly and catching you unaware of the passing years. It seems just yesterday that I was young, just married and embarking on my new life with my mate. And yet in a way, it seems like eons ago, and I wonder where all the years went. I know that I lived them all.

And I have glimpses of how it was back then and of all my hopes and dreams... But, here it is, the winter of my life and it catches me by surprise. How did I get here so fast? Where did the years go and where did my babies go? And where did my youth go?

I remember well....seeing older people through the years and thinking that those older people were years away from me and that winter was so far off that I could not fathom it or imagine fully what it would be like. But, here it is....my friends are retired and really getting gray....they move slower and I see an older person now. Lots are in better shape than me....but, I see the great change....Not like the ones that I remember who were young and vibrant....but, like me, their age is beginning to show and we are now those older folks that we used to see and never thought we'd be.

Each day now, I find that just getting a shower is a real target for the day! And taking a nap is not a treat anymore.... it's mandatory! Cause if I don't on my own free will....I just fall asleep where I sit!

And so, now I enter into this new season of my life unprepared for all the aches and pains and the loss of strength and ability to go and do things that I wish I had done but never did....

But, at least I know, that though the winter has come, and I'm not sure how long it will last....this I know, that when it's over....its over....Yes, I have regrets. There are things I wish I hadn't done....things I should have done, but indeed, there are many things I'm happy to have done. It's all in a lifetime....

So, if you're not in your winter yet....let me remind you, that it will be here faster than you think. So, whatever you would like to accomplish in your life, please do it quickly! Don't put things off too long!!

Life goes by very quickly. So, do what you can today, as you can never be sure whether this is your winter or not! You have no promise that you will see all the seasons of your life....so, live for good today and say all the things that you want your loved ones to remember....and hope that they appreciate and love you for all the things that you have done for them in all the years past.

"Life is a gift to you from God. The way you live your life is your gift to those who come after. Make it a "fantastic one!"

Live life well — Enjoy today — Do something fun — Be happy — Be thankful.....And Praise God For all He's given you! (Psalm 150:6; James 1:17; cf. John 3:27).
