We would like to invite you to support Clothe our Kids in their "Threads for $30" drive to help students receive clothes for the upcoming school year! For the past two years, Beltline has been the largest supporter in our community of this project and we challenge you to help us do even more this year! The need is very large in our area and your financial gift provides a student with enough clothes for a week. If you have been looking for an opportunity to serve, this is it!

There is a box on the table in the foyer to place your donations or you can use the QR Code on the right. Make checks payable to Beltline Church of Christ. Beltline Church, Thank you so much for all of the love and support you have shown me these last 5 years. I plan to show others the love of Christ as well as I have seen here. Thank you also for the Bible
Thank You,
Dalton Dorton

Thank you for all the prayers, calls, & cards after Arville's passing. Steve, thank you for the beautiful service. To the ladies who provided food & stayed to serve us after the funeral
"Thank You" doesn't seem adequate. It was such a comfort to us.

Arville loved Mike Nix and would be so proud of the memorial in his name. The Church at Beltline is truly a blessing.
Glenda Williams & Family

Thank you sincerely for sharing our sorrow.

Texas Flood Relief

Bottom Line Up Front:

Donation drive underway for Texas flooding victims.

Independence Day is a time of reflection and reverence where we remember the birth of a new nation impossible to found without the providence of God almighty. It is intended to be celebrated as a time of great sacrifice for a cause greater still. Sadly, this holiday will be sullied for many Texans in the years to come. It will remain in their hearts as a time of reflection and reverence, though for reasons more personal and bitter.

As you have likely heard, heavy flash flooding occurred in the Texan hill country the night of the 4th into the morning of the 5th. In the span of minutes, the Guadalupe River surged from its usual 1-5ft depth to a torrential 30ft sweeping away homes, trailer parks, RVs, and even a youth church camp. The casualty numbers are continuing to change by the hour. A true tragedy, more than 120 are confirmed deceased at the time of writing with 150 still missing. Kerr county was most sorely devastated. Families are starting over with nothing to their name, and in some cases, with less family members to do so.

In keeping with the Beltline character, we wish to be the hands and feet of Christ. We are currently accepting monetary donations. As always, it is our promise to you that we will put these funds to the best use available.

Funds may be donated in multiple ways:

For online donations, Beltline's app has a donation portal with a pull-down option for Disaster Relief. The same may be accomplished through the Beltline webpage.

<https://beltlinechurchofchrist.org/giving/>

Any checks deposited in the contribution boxes outside the auditorium should be made out to "Beltline Church of Christ" and have "Disaster Relief" written in the memo/note/for line. Loose cash donated in such fashion should be placed in a similarly labeled envelope or given directly to myself.

Please consider joining Beltline's Disaster Relief Team for more local assistance. Email me at traviscstetler@charter.net and I will respond with an application ASAP.

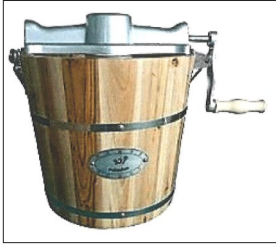

John 13:35

God bless and keep you all.

-Travis Stetler
