Our “Next Step” Initiative . . .

We want to help people take the next step with Jesus. We believe helping people in need is a huge part in helping people take that next step. Our desire is to meet physical and financial needs as a door to the most important needs of all . . . spiritual needs.

At the conclusion of the services, an invitation will be made at which time you may exit to the foyer where a team of people will meet you and take you to the Next Step Room, share the GOOD NEWS of Jesus with you, and identify and attempt to meet any needs you may have.

Unashamed 4

1 John 4:7-15

"I pray that your hearts will be flooded with light so that you can understand the confident hope he has given to those he called—his holy people who are his rich and glorious inheritance."
Ephesians 1:18.

"If your heart has been "flooded with light" it's because God has come in and made your heart His home."

The Challenge of

John 4:7-9, John 2:23-25, Galatians 5:13-15, Luke 6:41-42, Ephesians 5:8-9

Trust is hard to gain & easy to lose. How could someone gain your trust?

Why do we run, hide & lie?

Gentleness comes from realizing you are a _____ too!

Confidence comes from knowing you are _____.

I am unashamed of my church family. I will open myself up to correction, accountability and the love of fellow Christians.

The Challenge of

1 John 4:10-15, Matthew 25:34-36, 40, 1 John 4:20-21, 1 Peter 4:8-11

How does God do most of His work in our lives?

If you're going to hold on to Jesus, who are you going to have to hold on to?

Growing in grace requires _____ it and receiving it from others!

I am unashamed of my church family. I will choose to make friends of this church family. I will prioritize my relationships here and enjoy them for eternity!

"Work at living in peace with everyone, and work at living a holy life, for those who are not holy will not see the Lord. Look after each other so that none of you fails to receive the grace of God. Watch out that no poisonous root of bitterness grows up to trouble you, corrupting many."

Hebrews 12:14-15

New Wednesday Night Fall Classes for Adults

beginning August 6 . . .

- Bridging the Songs: Connecting Hymns and Modern Worship

singing class explores the deep connection between the hymns of the past and the worship songs of today. Discover how the theological richness, poetic structure, and melodic beauty of old hymns influence and inspire modern worship music. Through live singing, guided listening, and group discussion, we'll examine common themes—such as grace, redemption, surrender, and the majesty of God—that transcend time and style. Whether you love four-part harmony or contemporary worship choruses, this class will deepen your appreciation for both and show how they can coexist in a vibrant worship life.

Matt Parker

Service Center

- Ladies Class

We'll be looking at what the Bible teaches about forgiveness: God's forgiveness of our sins and how we forgive others. We will also evaluate what our culture has taught us about forgiveness and measure that against what the Bible.

Julie Huisman

Fireside Room

- Serenity

What are the gods in your life, and what is most important to you? Is it your sexuality, money, work, power, relationships, activities, alcohol, or other drugs? Do any of these areas dominate your thinking and your actions? If so, they may represent dependencies. Serenity®, a book that addresses this problem, can assist you in restoring these areas of your life to proper balance by examining how God speaks to your dependency and how He can liberate you and restore you to wholeness, stability, and a perfect relationship with him.

Rick Earwood

Room 401

- Simplicity

Life gets busy and complicated – but what if faith didn't have to be? In this class, we will look at men and women of Scripture who learned to keep things simple and trust God...and others who made it harder, a whole lot harder than it had to be. Come and join the conversation and be encouraged to let go of the noise and focus on what really matters.

Texas Flood Relief

Bottom Line Up Front:

Donation drive underway for Texas flooding victims.

Independence Day is a time of reflection and reverence where we remember the birth of a new nation impossible to found without the providence of God almighty. It is intended to be celebrated as a time of great sacrifice for a cause greater still. Sadly, this holiday will be sullied for many Texans in the years to come. It will remain in their hearts as a time of reflection and reverence, though for reasons more personal and bitter.

As you have likely heard, heavy flash flooding occurred in the Texan hill country the night of the 4th into the morning of the 5th. In the span of minutes, the Guadalupe River surged from its usual 1-5ft depth to a torrential 30ft sweeping away homes, trailer parks, RVs, and even a youth church camp. The casualty numbers are continuing to change by the hour. A true tragedy, more than 120 are confirmed deceased at the time of writing with 150 still missing. Kerr county was most sorely devastated. Families are starting over with nothing to their name, and in some cases, with less family members to do so.

In keeping with the Beltline character, we wish to be the hands and feet of Christ. We are currently accepting monetary donations. As always, it is our promise to you that we will put these funds to the best use available.

Funds may be donated in multiple ways:

For online donations, Beltline's app has a donation portal with a pull-down option for Disaster Relief. The same may be accomplished through the Beltline webpage.

<https://beltlinechurchofchrist.org/giving/>

Any checks deposited in the contribution boxes outside the auditorium should be made out to "Beltline Church of Christ" and have "Disaster Relief" written in the memo/note/for line. Loose cash donated in such fashion should be placed in a similarly labeled envelope or given directly to myself.

Please consider joining Beltline's Disaster Relief Team for more local assistance. Email me at traviscstetler@charter.net and I will respond with an application ASAP.

John 13:35

God bless and keep you all.

In Christ,

-Travis Stetler
