Merry Christmas*

Our “Next Step” Initiative . . .

We want to help people take the next step with Jesus. We believe helping people in need is a huge part in helping people take that next step. Our desire is to meet physical and financial needs as a door to the most important needs of all ... spiritual needs.

At the conclusion of the services, an invitation will be made at which time you may exit to the foyer where a team of people will meet you and take you to the Next Step Room, share the GOOD NEWS of Jesus with you, and identify and attempt to meet any needs you may have.

PLEASE NOTE: Next Steps will NOT MEET on December 21 and 28.

Note of Thanks

To my Beltline church family,

I have long believed that the church is one of God's amazing gifts to a selfish, broken world. It extends to us a vehicle for community and purpose to a cause bigger than ourselves when we actively choose to "do something". It can be a significant source of encouragement, discipline, and teaching of truth vehicle that we all so desperately need in a world that needs direction back to God. These are some of the reasons I have counted it a privilege to have served as one of the shepherds here for the past 21 years. I wanted to in my own small way give back to the church for the many times of encouragement and support it has given me. So, thank you, Beltline for allowing this time of service in my life here.

For whatever good that has been accomplished because of God's blessings and from our collective efforts at the Beltline church, I'm thankful. There have many good times I think. Looking back now, I feel like we often made a big difference in people's walk with the Lord, and for that, I'm thankful.

I thank my lovely bride Robin for putting up with me for all these years. If there was ever any class or good in my life, she made it not just better but a lot better. I remember quite well the times when Mike Nix told me, "...you know, you wouldn't be where you are today without Robin.." He was exactly right and he knew I needed some prodding along those lines (and still do by the way). His words were fitly spoken and quite true. Thank you, Robin.

As we anticipate the selection of additional men who will continue in leading this great church family, I believe that we have several good men here who are well prepared to step up and lead as elders and shepherds going forward. My prayer is that you men will desire the role, that you will want to give back to the church and that you will accept the highest calling to be found in this life, second only to leading your families to the Lord, and your own growth in grace and service to Him.

I would ask that we all continue to love and pray for the elders here. Most people will never know how many tears are shed, how much time is given, and how many hours in prayer each of them give for you each week. These men are often tasked with dealing with problems and challenges that are impossible to navigate without God's help. Again, pray for these men. When you disagree with the decisions that are made, just know that they're more often than not doing what they believe to be the best path forward for the entire church, not just a select few. That's why they need our prayers, encouragement and support.

Lord willing, my hope is that I will be able to remain active here doing what I can to give back to the church and to hungry hearts seeking something better in this very broken world. May we all purpose within our hearts to join hands with the leaders here, every member doing our part to living and accomplishing much more in the days ahead than we have in the past.

To God Be the Glory.
Frank Barker

What are the gods in your life, and what is most important to you? Is it your sexuality, money, work, power, relationships, activities, alcohol, or other drugs? Do any of these areas dominate your thinking and your actions? If so, they may represent dependencies. Serenity®, a book that addresses this problem, can assist you in restoring these areas of your life to proper balance by examining how God speaks to your dependency and how He can liberate you and restore you to wholeness stability, and a perfect relationship with him.
