User Help for BFF Materials

Opening & using BFF powerpoints, articles, books

All available articles, powerpoints, handouts, audios and videos are listed on each BFF library page via the links. Most updated web browsers will open the articles (pdf) like: Safari, Firefox, Google Chrome - all free. They should work fine on iPads, tablets, smartphones and other computer e-reading devices like the Kindle, etc.

Use the suggested free programs (i.e. Apps) for your computer system (or your own) : Adobe Reader to read pdfs and Quicktime (not Windows media) to view movies (mov, mp4) and listen to audios in mp3 format. There are an increasing number of alternatives. Powerpoints (ppt) need Apple's Keynote (key) or Microsoft's Powerpoint or the free Openoffice. Openoffice also opens word processor files like doc, but so to Apple's Pages and Microsoft's Word. Most any web browser will open graphic files like .png, .gif or jpg.

Please note that .key are the same as the .ppt. They simply refer to different formats (e.g. Apple (Mac) rather than Microsoft) for your convenience. Content in pdf is the same as the doc, epub or mobi but simply offered in different formats for your inconvenience. Pdfs are great for printing or viewing on large screens. Doc is good for editing, such as study questions or handouts. You can always ask us if you need something in another format - no charge.

Notes: Viewing and download videos

Our higher quality videos are hosted by Vimeo. Streaming or downloading from Vimeo automatically adjusts to your device, big or small (computer, ipad or smartphone). If a password is needed, see appropriate library (or contact me). For some videos you might need to sign into Vimeo and make your own account. It is all free. 50% refers to half-sized, less quality, videos that are smaller and provide an alternative viewing.

Enjoy!

Enjoy our great library of quality media-enriched biblical material based on a firm belief of the inerrancy and power of God's Word! Check out more information on the Bucknell family or the international BFF ministry. Feel free to contact me about broken links or other questions.
