Group Session One

In today’s opening session, we’ll turn to the first of two letters we’re studying, and we’ll give ourselves completely to the first four words. Read 1 Thessalonians 1:1 and record them here:

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy

1. Silas (Silvanus) entered a gap ripped open by a severed relationship. (Compare Acts 9:26-28.)

In preparation for the next point, compare specific wording in Acts 15:39 to Hebrews 10:24. The Greek lexical term used in both verses is paroxusmós (English “paroxysm”).

2. The same edge that can sharpen can also slice (Prov. 27:17).

Now let’s see the third member of this party of three added to the mix. Read Acts 16:1-5.
3. The next person we meet could become one of the dearest people in our lives.

Fast-forward to Acts 17:1. Follow it up with verses 2-10.

4. A journey gone awry could lead to the exact frame of mind God is looking to use.

As we dedicate ourselves to the task ahead, we're going to reach ahead long enough to snatch a phrase out of 1 Thessalonians 4:9: "For you yourselves have been taught by God." This English phrase is drawn from one rare compound word in the Greek: theodidaktai.

REVIEW THE WEEK
Use these questions to guide your discussion of last week’s homework.

- Principal Questions
  - DAY 1: Over how many Sabbaths did they serve in Thessalonica? (p. 16)
  - DAY 2: Who wrote each letter to the Thessalonians? (p. 19)
  - DAY 3: How, according to Paul, did the gospel come to the Thessalonians? (p. 25)
  - DAY 4: The Thessalonian believers “became” what two things (1 Thess. 1:6-7)? (p. 28)
  - DAY 5: What sounded forth from the Thessalonians after their conversion? (p. 32)

- Personal Discussion Questions
  - DAY 1: How are you impacted by the knowledge that the Holy Spirit had you in mind as Scripture was penned? (p. 18)
  - DAY 2: What good memory do you have from a harsh season of your life? (p. 20)
  - DAY 3: How would you describe the Holy Spirit within you bearing witness? (p. 24)
  - DAY 4: Do you embrace or struggle with the fact that our God is filled with joy? (p. 28)
  - DAY 5: Describe a situation in which you witnessed or participated in “the excited transmission” of the gospel. (p. 34)

Introduction

Today we return to 1 Thessalonians 1:1 and do not forget the added significance: It is highly probable that we are reading the ___ first ___ drops ___ of ___ inspired ___ ink ___ from the ___ pen ___ of the apostle Paul.

From the opening verses of this five-chapter letter, we can draw the following applications:

1. Three groups are in operation at all times in a thriving body of believers: ___WE___, ___YOU___, and ___THEY___.
   - ___WE___: The ___Effectual___
   - ___YOU___: The ___Affecting___
   - ___THEY___: The ___Affected___
“In Acts and the letters bearing Paul’s name about 100 names, often coupled with a score of assorted titles, are associated with the Apostle.”

2. WE get the privilege of telling YOU that you are loved by God and chosen (1 Thess. 1:4).

3. Often we hope God is at work, but sometimes we get to know it (1 Thess. 1:5).

4. In a world of pretense and platforms, we better be ready to prove ourselves. “You know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your sake” (1 Thess. 1:5, ESV).

5. A geographical lesson from Thessalonica: Each circle of believers faces outward so that THEY can see us and we can see them.

6. Until Jesus comes back, we keep coming back (1 Thess. 1:10).

Introduction
This week in our homework, we purposely dodged portions of 1 Thessalonians 4:3-8 so we could save them for today’s session. This countercultural segment of Scripture centers on sexual ethics.

Keep the following continuum in view as we move through our discussion:

There are _ limitations _ regarding sexual conduct _ _ _
There are _ no _ limitations _

regarding sexual conduct _ _ _
1. What God dictates here is ___pertinent____ now ____ and it was pertinent ___then____ (v. 3). The Greek word for sexual immorality is ___pornéia___.

2. What God dictates here is ___doable____. See v. 1: “just as ___you____ are ___doing____”

3. What God dictates here is ___learnable____. See v. 4: “that ___each____ of you ___learn____”

4. What God dictates here is ___honorable____. See v. 4. God does not ___require____ of us what cannot ultimately ___honor____ us.

Introduction
Today we are going to narrow the lens on four rapid-fire verses toward the conclusion of the First Letter to the Thessalonians. First Thessalonians 5:19-21 encapsulates a segment sparse on words and immense in implication and application.

1 Thessalonians 5:19 (ESV)—Do not quench the Spirit.

1 Thessalonians 5:20 (ESV)—Do not despise prophecies.

Let’s throw some questions out on the table:
What are prophecies, how do they rank, and what is their purpose?

What are they? Consider these two definitions:

- Prophecy: “Reception and declaration of a word from the Lord through a direct prompting of the Holy Spirit and the human instrument thereof.”

• Propheúeo: “To prophesy ... To foretell things to come ... to declare truths through the inspiration of God's Holy Spirit whether by prediction or otherwise ... To tell forth God’s message, hence the noun prophètes, prophet, is the proclaimer, one who speaks out the counsel of God with the ____ cleanness____, ____ energy____, and ____ authority____ which spring from the consciousness of ____ speaking____ in ____ God's____ ____ name____ and having received a direct message from Him to deliver. Thus one may prophesy without being a prophet in the strict sense of the word. A propheúeo, both in the Old Testament and New Testament, is not primarily one who foretells things to come, but who (having been taught of God) speaks out His will (Deut. 18:18; Isa. 1; Jer. 1; Ezek. 2; 1 Cor. 14:3).”

How do they rank? We can set no ____ extracurricular____ ____ word____ on the same standard with ____ Scripture____.

What is their purpose? 1 Corinthians 14:3 (NIV)—“But everyone who prophesies speaks to men for their ____ strengthening____, ____ encouragement____ and ____ comfort____.”

Must knows:

- Prophecies can be quite ____ legitimate____. They are by their ____ extracurricular____ nature ____ incomplete____ (1 Cor. 13:9).

- Prophecies ____ must ____ be ____ tested____. Keep in mind how much easier it is to ____ eliminate____ than to ____ examine____ (Acts 17:11; Matt. 7:15).

Dr. Gordon Fee: “Despite the fact that the ministries of the Spirit can be ____ abused____ in the Christian community, Paul’s own deep appreciation for the central role of the Spirit in individual and corporate life will not allow for ____ correcting____ ____ abuse____ by ____ commanding____ ____ disuse____. Rather, the antidote for ____ abuse____ is proper ____ use____”.

Concluding bottom line
Believers in Christ cannot be both ____ lazy____ and ____ Spirit-led____.

Introduction

In our homework this week, we began to unravel the sacred parchment of the Second Letter to the Thessalonians. Six words from the center of chapter 1 will preoccupy us today: When the ___Lord____ ___Jesus____ is ___revealed____.

The lexical Greek word is apokáluptis: “___Revelation____, uncovering, ___unveiling____, disclosure. One of three words referring to the Second Coming of Christ (1 Cor. 1:7; 2 Thess. 1:7; 1 Pet. 1:7,13). The other two words are epipháneia, appearing (1 Tim. 6:14), and parousía, coming, presence (2 Thess. 2:1). Apokáluptis, a ___grander____ and more comprehensive word, includes not merely the thing shown and seen but the ___interpretation____, the unveiling of the same. The epipháneiai, appearances, are contained in the apokáluptis, revelation, being separate points or moments therein. Christ’s first coming was an epipháneia (2 Tim. 1:10); the second, an apokáluptis, will be far more ___glorious____.”1
We’ll invite the apostle Peter to come alongside Paul through his own inspired letter and help us broaden our grasp of those six words. Savor the NET Bible translation of 1 Peter 1:1-2:

From Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those temporarily residing abroad (in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, the province of Asia, and Bithynia) who are chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father by being set apart by the Spirit for obedience and for sprinkling with Jesus Christ’s blood. May grace and peace be yours in full measure!

Now read 1 Peter 1:3-9. Note three distinct time periods:
1. Now
2. A little while
3. When Jesus is revealed

According to 2 Thessalonians 1:6-10, when the Lord Jesus is revealed …
- Relief will come to the “afflicted.”
- “Relief” in the Greek is anesin. Find the term also in 2 Corinthians 2:12-13 and 2 Corinthians 7:5-7. Reflect on this relief in view of Matthew 24:21-22.
- Eternal relocation will be assigned.
- Marveling will occur (v. 10).
- He will be glorified in His saints (v. 10; Rom. 8:18-19).

Introduction
As we approach our final week in our study of 1 and 2 Thessalonians, we come to one of the most mysterious portions in the letters combined. We will discuss what we can know clearly and what we can at least know more about.

What was happening at their present time and is still happening in ours:
1. The working of the ____mystery____ of ____lawlessness____. The NIV translates the phrase “the ____secret____ ____power____ of lawlessness.”

2. The ____active____ ____restraint____ over the mystery of ____lawlessness____. Consider this quote from Dr. John Stott: “The restraint is both neuter and masculine, ____something____ and ____someone____, a ____pressure____ and a ____person____.”

188
The three most plausible identities of the restrainer:
  ■ The _____ Holy ____ Spirit ____ (He) and the work of the _____ church ____ (it).
  ■ _____ Paul ____ (he) and the preaching of the _____ gospel ____ (it).
  ■ ___Rome/the Emperor__ (he) and the ___empire__/power of the ___state____(it).

What will happen before the Day of the Lord:
1. The _____ restrainer ____ will be _____ out ____ of the ___way____ (v. 7b).

2. The _____ rebellion ____ will _____ come____ (v. 3).

3. The _____ man____ of _____ lawlessness _____ will be revealed. (v. 3) The word translated “revealed” is the lexical Greek _____ apocalypto ___. Compare v. 9 where the word translated “coming” is _____ parousia ___. According to Dr. C. A. Wanamaker, “That person’s manifestation is a deceptive _____ parody _____ or ‘_____ anti-parousia ____’ of Jesus’ future coming.”

• Mark 16:15: “_____ Go_____ into all the world and _____ proclaim____ the ___ gospel____ to the whole creation.”

• 2 John 1:7 (ESV): “For many _____ deceivers_____ have _____ gone____ out into the _____world______ ... Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist.”

AND THEN …
1. The Day of the Lord will _____ dawn_____ with the ___appearance_____ of Christ.

2. The Lord Jesus will _____ kill_____ the ___lawless____ one with His ___breath____ and bring him to _____nothing____.

2. Ibid., 169–170.

Introduction
In this final session, we will tie up our journey together with a string left dangling at the beginning of 2 Thessalonians 3, and the other left waiting at the end.

1. A ___ potent ___ two-fold ___ request for ___ prayer ___.
   - That the word of the Lord may ___ speed ___ ahead ___ and be ___ honored ___.
     Compare Psalm 147:15.
   - That we may be ___ delivered ___ from ___ wicked ___ and ___ evil ___ people.
     “Delivered”—Greek rhúomai: “from rhúo, to draw, ___ drag ___ along ___ the ground. To draw or snatch from danger, rescue, deliver. This is more with the meaning of ___ drawing ___ to ___ oneself ___ than merely ___ rescuing ___ from someone or something.”1
Note the descriptions “wicked and evil.” The Greek meaning of the first word is particularly interesting. Greek átopos—“from a, without, and tópos, ___ place___.

*Without ___ place___ or ___ having ___ no ___ place___.

Inconvenient, prejudicial, hurtful, evil, improper (Acts 28:6). Of persons: ___ absurd___, ___ unreasonable__ (2 Thess. 3:2); of conduct: inconvenient, unsuitable, improper, wrong.”

Consider what could be a ___ 10-Word ___ Instant ___ Upturn ___: “For ___ not ___ all ___ have ___ faith___. But the ___ Lord ___ is ___ faithful ___.” (ESV)

2. A significantly ___ personal ___ ___ signature___. Imagine a handwritten version similar to this:

'Ο ἁπασιμός τῇ ἐμῇ χειρὶ Παύλου ... οὕτως γράφω
'Η χάρις τοῦ κυρίου ἡμῶν Ἰησοῦ Χριστοῦ μετὰ πάντων ὑμῶν

The benediction: The ___ grace ___ of our Lord Jesus Christ be ___ with ___ you ___
