

- access, as barrier to information gathering, 28
- Africa
- drought in, 182
 - famines in, 7
- Agreed Framework, 127–128, 198
- American Relief Administration (ARA), 199–200
- Anderson, Sara, 153
- ARA. See American Relief Administration (ARA)
- Arnold, David, 226–227
- Asia, famines in, 7, 50–51, 52–53
- Asian Watch, 37–38
- Association of Evangelical Relief and Development Organizations, 153
- Atwood, Brian, 147
- Bangladesh, famine in, (1974), 7
- Banister, Judith, 232
- Becker, Jasper, 46–47, 51, 55–56, 79–80, 137–138, 203, 218, 220, 239
- begging, as survival strategy, 83
- Bertini, Catherine, 54, 84, 146, 170–171, 175, 189–190
- Beureter, Doug, 154
- Bishop, Jim, 31, 196
- blood, cross-border trade in as famine survival strategy, 85
- border surveys on North Korean famine, 55–56, 56–57, 58–59, 79–80
- criticism of, 86–88
- Brown, Kathleen, 153
- Bureau of Intelligence and Research (U.S.), 141
- Burns, Nicholas, 143, 147, 152
- Cambodia
- famine in (1970s), 7
 - Khmer Rouge in, 52–53
 - “killing fields” of, 52–53
- capitalist systems, effect of on famines, 93–94
- Cargill, barter of grain for zinc from North Korea, 139
- Carter Center, 153
- Carter, Jimmy, 149
- intervention in North Korea, 126
- cash remittances, from Korean diaspora, 80–81
- Ceausescu, Nicolae, 231, 239
- Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), 142
- Chagang province, famine in, 106, 160, 174

- chemicalization
 decline of in North Korea, 14, 15 effects of overuse, 14
- children's centers, function of during famine, 31–32, 32–33
- China
 agricultural aid to North Korea, 139–140
 as ally of North Korea, 125 effect of North Korean famine on border areas, 59–63, 75–76, 161, 176, 177
 ethnic Koreans in, 60–61, 61–62, 62–63, 86
 famine in 1958–62, 7, 21, 50–51, 62–63, 90, 210
 in Confucian period, 226, 246 food aid to North Korea supplied by, 10–11, 95, 108, 130–132, 178
 Great Leap Forward, 21, 50–51,
 55–56, 62–63, 99–100, 119, 228, 233–234
 market system in, 21
 North Korea in subordinate relationship with, 43
 North Korean refugees in, 39, 58–59, 72–73
 public distribution system in, 99–100
 small-scale commercial trade with North Korea, 18
 trade relations with South Korea, 131
- Choe Hyun Su, 180
- Cholla famine, 9–10
- Chomsky, Noam, 53
- Chongjin port, 175–176
- Chongsan-ri method of agriculture, 13–14
- Chosun Soren, 81
- Christian Science Monitor*, 153
- Chun Doo Hwan, 124
- Clinton, Bill
 administration's food aid to North Korea, 143, 145, 146, 147, 154–155, 159
 "soft-landing" approach to North Korea, 127–128
 "CNN effect," 196–197
- Cohen, William, 159
- collectivization, of North Korean farms, 12–13
- Committee on Disaster Response, 151
- Confucianism, in North Korea, 42, 43, 76, 246
- Conquest, Robert, 49–50, 210
- Coolidge, Calvin, 197
- core class, in North Korea, 208, 211
- corn guards, 118–119
- Cox amendment, 155, 156, 158
- Cox, Christopher, 154–155
- Croesette, Barbara, 154
- crop rotation, 14–15
- Cultural Survival, 52
- Culver, Ellsworth, 148–149
- Cuny, Fred, 91–92, 112, 182, 246
- death rate, increase in as trailing famine indicator, 27
- Defense Intelligence Agency
 (DIA), 142
- dekulakization, famine in Ukraine and, 49–50
- Democratic People's Republic of Korea. See North Korea
- Deng Xiaoping economic and agricultural reforms, 63, 139–140
 meeting with Kim Il Sung, 49
- development programming, versus relief, 191–195
- Devercux, Stephen, 111–112, 113–114

- Dewey, Gene, 145
DIA. See Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA)
diplomacy, food aid as tool of, 145
Doctors Without Borders. See Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF)
Dole, Robert, 147
domesticated animals. See farm animals
double cropping, 14–15
Dreze, Jean, 7
- Eagleburger, Lawrence, 91–92
Eberstadt, Nicholas, 204, 229, 232 electrification, failure of in North Korea, 14 End of North Korea, The, 229
epidemics, famines and, 192
Ethiopia coup in, 231
 famine in, 51–52, 109, 145, 147, 174, 189
European Union, North Korean famine relief, 135, 182, 193
- fallowing, 14–15
family possessions, sale of as famine indicator, 26
famine
 coping mechanisms for, 20
 as economic and political phenomenon, 89–90, 181, 224–227
 epidemics and, 192
 farmers markets during, 97–104
 history of, 8–10
 indicators of market-based, 26
 non-market-based, 26
 trailing indicators, 27 migration of, 109
 totalitarian, 49–54
 See also North Korea, famine in famine deaths
 caused by disease brought on by poor nutrition, 208 farmers markets and, 104–105
 famine foods, use of by North Koreans, 81–85 “famine in slow motion,” 169–170
 famine relief
 politicization of, 33–34, 221–224
 Soviet relief effort of 1921 as alternative model, 197–200, 238, 240–241 weaknesses in system, 195–197
 See also North Korea, famine relief famine trains, 78–80
 farm animals, consumption of as famine indicator, 26, 29, 84–85
 farmers markets
 famine deaths and, 104–105
 history and operation of in North Korea, 97–104 importance of in famine situation, 96
Flood Control and Rehabilitation Commission, as overseer of relief effort, 24 food aid, as weapon of diplomacy, 145 food refugees, 209, 213–214
Foreign Affairs, 239
France, famine in, 226
- Gallucci, Robert, 141
General Sherman, 44
Geneva Conventions, 209–210
Getta, George, 152
Gilman, Benjamin, 154, 160, 161
gleaning, as survival strategy, 83
Goma refugee camps, 221
Gorbachev, Mikhail, 11, 125
grain, sale of in farmers markets, 101

- Great Leap Forward, 21, 50–51, 55–56, 62–63, 99–100, 119, 137, 138, 228, 233–234
- Hall, Tony, 133–134, 151
- Hamhung City
 effect of triage on, 106, 202
 farmers market in, 103
 military coup planned in, 217, 218
- Hamilton, Lee, 156
- Hatada, Takashi, 9
- Helms, Jesse, 147
- Heritage Foundation, 209, 238
- Hoover, Herbert, 197–200, 238, 240–241
- hostile class, in North Korea, 208, 211
- House, Karen Elliott, 238
- Huichon, visit to, 28–30
- Human Rights Watch/Asia, 208
- humanitarian relief agencies
 code of conduct for, 186–189
 See also nongovernmental organizations (NGOs)
- Hungry Ghosts*, 55–56
- Hussein, Saddam, 131
- Hwang Jong Yop, 74, 106, 181, 203–204, 217–218
 as founder of juche philosophy, 204
 North Korea: Truth or Lies? 203
- IFAD. See International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD)
- Institute for International Economics, 194–195, 238
- Inter-cropping, 14–15
- InterAction Committee on Disaster Response, 151, 169
- International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD), 194
- International Red Cross, 195, 200
- Izume, Hajime, 106
- Japan
 alleged kidnapping of Japanese citizens by North Korea, 133 colonial police of, 45 economic slump in, 81
 food aid to North Korea, 129, 132–134, 167–168, 185
 Korean diaspora in, 80–81 missile launched by North Korea over Japanese air space, 134, 159–160, 242 occupation of North Korea, 5, 43, 125–126, 132 remittances sent to North Korea from, by ethnic Koreans, 18, 80–81
- Johns Hopkins University, 86, 96 study of death rates in North Hamgyong province, 206, 211, 212–215
- Jon In Chan, 204–205
- Joo-Hwal Choi, Col., 209
- juche* philosophy, 6, 15, 35–36, 204, 224
 role of in North Korean famine, 41–43, 193
- Kang Song Son, 167
- Kangwon, 120
- Kaplan, Robert, 51
- Kartman, Chuck, 144, 147, 150–151
- KASM. See Korean American Sharing Movement (KASM)
- KBSM. See Korean Buddhist Sharing Movement (KBSM)
- KCIA. See South Korean Central Intelligence Agency (KCIA)

- KEDO. See Korean Peninsula Energy Development Organization (KEDO)
 Kerr, Russ, 157
 Khmer Rouge, 52–53
 Kiev, 50
 “killing fields” of Cambodia, 52–53
 Kim Cong-u, 218
 Kim Dae Jung, 129–130, 135
 meeting with Kim Jong Il, 140
 Kim Gae Gwon, 163
 Kim Il Sung
 agricultural changes ordered by, 12–13
 attempted industrialization of northeast region, 106
 autobiography of, 82–83
 buttons depicting, 218 cultivation of Korean diaspora in Japan by, 81
 as cultural icon, 24
 death of and transfer of political power, 20–21, 126–127, 212, 224 establishment of authority over Korean state, 44–45
 farmers markets sanctioned by, 98 forced collectivization of farms
 by, 12–13
 imposition of Chongsan-ri method of agriculture, 13–14
 imposition of juche, 6, 15 imposition of population classes
 by, 208
 interviewed by Washington Times, 165
 knowledge of famine conditions, 165, 166, 180
 meeting with Deng Xiaoping, 49 “put politics in command” on the farm, 15–16
 reconstitution of state of, 229–230
 reengagement in active management of affairs, 167
 resistance to Japanese occupation,
 5, 125–126
 Kim, Jay, 158
 Kim Jong Il
 ascension of, 39
 attempts to close farmers markets, 98–99, 100–101
 collection of famine death information requested by, 203–204 dislike of food program, 221 dispatch of corn guards, 118–119
 erosion of support for, 88, 218, 220, 224, 229
 famine management, 221, 229
 famine speech, 39–40, 78, 136–138, 217, 231
 hoarding acknowledged by, 112 imposition of juche under, 6
 knowledge of famine conditions, 165
 Korean diaspora in Japan ignored
 by, 81
 meeting with Kim Dae Jung, 140 927 camps created by, 73–75
 Kim (refugee boy), 76–78
 Kim Soo Man, 33–34
 Kim Yong Nam, 125
 Kim Young Saam, 126
 Kim Young-Hoon, 181
 Kirk, Mark, 82, 160–161, 180
 Kirkpatrick, Jeanne, 145
kochibis, 78–79, 121
Korea: Tradition and Transformation, 117
 Korea Society, 201
 Korean American community, 56–57, 156–158
 Korean American Sharing Movement (KASM), 158

- Korean Buddhist Sharing Movement (KBSM), 29, 39, 185 refugee interviews and reports done by, 56–57, 79, 86–87, 94, 96, 106–107, 202, 205–206, 211, 219, 228–229
- Korean diaspora, in Japan, 80–81
- Korean Institute of Peace and Unification, 99, 100
- Korean Peninsula Energy Development Organization (KEDO), 134, 142, 159
- Korean Rural Economic Institute (KREI), 178, 181
- Korean War, 124, 157, 166
 claimed to be cause of North Korean famine, 11
 return of U.S. soldiers' remains, 146
- Korean Workers Party Central Committee, approval of Kim Il Sung's four principles of agriculture, 12
- Krauthammer, Charles, 238
- KREI. See Korean Rural Economic Institute (KREI)
- Lamare, Christian, 193
- Lancy, James, 127
- language, as barrier to information gathering, 28
- Lautze, Sue, 142–143, 171–174, 193
- Lenin, V. I., attempt to collectivize
 agriculture, 52–53, 198
- Lindborg, Nancy, 169
- Linton, Steve, 76
- Lord, Winston, 127
- Los Angeles Times*, 102
- "losing face," 42
- Lysenko, Trofim Denisovitch, 50
- Mackenzie, Hilary, 84, 85, 110–111, 160, 190
- MacPherson, Peter, 145
- Malthus, Thomas, 89–90
- Man, Kim Soo, 82
- Manning, Robert, 238
- Mao Zedong, 137
 Great Leap Forward launched
 by, 50–51, 55–56
- market indicators, famine and, 26
- marxism
 effect of on famines, 93–94
 prescriptions for agriculture, 13–14
- mass migration, as trailing famine
 indicator, 27
- mechanization, decline of in North Korea, 14
- Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF), 46–47
 refugee interviews by, 57–58, 72, 177, 220
 withdrawal from North Korean
 famine relief, 189
- Mengistu Haile Mariam, Colonel, 51–52, 231
- Mercy Corps International, 148, 149, 169
- Minnesota Lawyers' International Human Rights Committee, 208
- MSF. See Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF)
- Musan, 48
 mass graves in, 75–76
- Musgrove Conference, 149–150, 153
- Myat, Tun, 108, 170, 171, 175–177
- Nahm, Andrew, 117
- Najin-Sonbong Free Trade and Economic Zone, 19–20, 218
- Namyang (North Korea), 62
- Nathanail, Lola, 172–174
- National Council of Churches, 153
- National Security Council, 144, 146

- New York Times*, 102, 154
927 camps, 73–75
Noland, Marcus, 194–195, 229, 230, 238
nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), 23 assessment of famine conditions, 170–171 cynicism and frustration expressed about North Korean famine, 24, 55, 86–88
 discussion of famine definitions, 169–170
 famine relief by, 86, 137, 140, 195
 inability to gather useful information about famine, 168–171
 Musgrove Conference, 148–150
 sharing of information and assessments about North Korean famine, 31, 138–140 visa applications for North Korea visits, 25 warning from UN about supplies to children's centers, 32
 See also names of specific organizations
North Hamgyong province, 106, 120, 167, 175–176 death rates in, 206, 212–215
 food refugees from, 213–214
North Korea: Truth or Lies? 203
North Korea
 absorbed by Japan (1905), 10 agricultural practices in arable land per person, 11–12
 based on Soviet system, 179
 cereal production, 95
 Chongsan-ri method, 13–14
 collective farming, 11
 corn guards, 118–119
 crop assessments, 113, 114–115
 declining agricultural production, 90–91
 double cropping, 14, 15
 harvest forecasting, 178–179
 increased rice production, 16
 mechanization, electrification, chemicalization, and irrigation, 13–14, 15 militarization of agriculture, 117–119 possibility of reform of, 193–194, 233–235
 post-harvest losses, 179–181
 anti-Chinese hysteria and ban on sale of Chinese goods, 101–103 attempted coup in, 217–218, 231–232
 barter with Soviet Union and China, 10–11
 cholera epidemics in, 141, 207–208 Confucian roots of, 42, 43, 76, 246 contact with foreigners as crime, 25 displaced persons camps in, 230 executions in, 220, 228
 famine in alternative sources of income and food as survival strategy, 80–85
 announcement of, 5
 bartering seafood for grain, 83–84 causes (real and claimed), 11, 35–36, 137, 183, 219, 237–238 commercial imports of grain, 24 consumption of domestic animals as survival strategy, 84–85
 corn guards, 118–119

North Korea (cont.)

famine in

- cross-border trade in human blood as survival strategy, 85
- death rates, 119, 121, 201, 202–206
- default on food payments, 138–139
- disappearance of Soviet Union food subsidies, 114
- early signs, 6–7, 25–31
- epicenter claimed to be in urban, not rural, areas, 24
- evidence of, 142–143, 201
- famine foods consumed, 81–85
- famine trains, 78–80
- farmers' access to food, 94–96, 116–117
- foreign relations during, 128–130
- harvest forecasting, 178–179
- hoarding, 111–115, 118
- long-term consequences, 233–235
- macroeconomic national gap as cause of, 183
- as major factor in undermining current regime, 224–227
- malnutrition rates, 210
- mass graves, 75–76
- moving to find food as survival strategy, 72–80, 176
- natural disasters contributing to, 110, 137
- 927 camps, 73–75
- northern regions claimed to be less affected, 24
- phase I (reduction of rations and triage), 105–109
- phase II (collapse of PDS, rise of farmers markets), 110–120

- phase III (emergence of new food security system), 120–121
- as political and economic phenomenon, 89–90, 219–220
- post-harvest losses, 179–181
- punitive rationing, 208–212
- reaction of NGOs to, 38, 55, 86
- reaction to intervention of outside world, 25, 128–130
- recognizing, 53–54, 201–202
- reducing population as survival strategy, 63–72
- refugee surveys and interviews, 56–59, 86–88, 176, 177, 185
- remittances paid by Korean diaspora in Japan, 80–81
- sale of personal effects and homes as survival strategy, 85
- searching for evidence of, 25–31
- secrecy campaign, 46–49, 237
- transformed into national security issue, 40, 87–88
- weather affecting mortality rates, 207

famine relief

- abuse by North Korea of Code of Conduct, 186–189
- anti-U.S. propaganda undermined by, 222–223
- central government support undermined by, 223–224
- control of by North Korean government, 140
- delivery of food aid to be done through existing state apparatus, 42–43
- European Union, 135
- food aid from China, 108–109

North Korea (cont.)

famine relief

- food aid as political and diplomatic tool, 221–224, 238–245
 - food aid program continues, 239–240
 - from China, 10–11, 95, 108, 130–132
 - from Japan, 129, 132–134, 167–168
 - from South Korea, 128–129, 167–168
 - from U.S., 134–136, 141, 146, 147–148, 150–153, 154–155, 161–163
 - linkage of relief to economic change, 243–244
 - as mechanism to end the famine, 182–186
 - NGO involvement, 86, 107–108, 138, 140
 - reduction in food prices created by, 222
 - strategic dilemma, 241–245
 - systemic weaknesses of, 195–197
 - urban markets improved by, 222
- financial status, 16–22
- apparent bankruptcy, 17
 - currency worthless in international markets, 100
 - marketable goods, 17
 - nonsupport of embassy operations, 17–18
 - remittances from ethnic Koreans living in Japan, 18–19
 - small-scale commercial trade with China, 18
 - use of credit for weapon purchases, 17

use of illicit drug trade to obtain foreign currency, 18

fire fields in, 10

floods of 1995 in, 11

foreign relations

diplomatic recognition of, 124–125

internal response to famine and international diplomacy, 138–140

isolationism in, 43–46

Japan, 132–134

launch of missile over Japanese air space, 134, 159–160, 242

South Korea, 123–126

attacks on, 123–124, 156

warming of, 126–128

U.S., 135

as “Hermit Kingdom,” 25 human rights violations in, 209–210

industry collapse in, 18, 36

information control in, 44

internal population movement system, 121

Japanese invasion of (1592), 8

juche philosophy in, 6, 15, 35–36, 41–43, 193, 224

local markets sanctioned in, 27

maintenance of Kim regime in, 229–233

martial law imposed in, 218

military system

attempted coup, 217–218, 231–232

composition of, by age, 232

loyalty of army doubted, 232

military machine in, 17, 124

readiness of, 232–233

Ministry of Public Security, 45–46

North Korea (cont.)

Najin-Sonbon Free Trade and Economic Zone, 19–20, 218 petroleum resources of, 11 political economy of, 90–91 political/social classes in, 208–209 population cleansing in, 37–38, 208–212 population figures, 204
 population movement in (famine-related), 72–73, 227–229 possible nuclear weapons plant built in, 242–243
 public distribution system in, 89, 91–97
 assessment of, 171–177
 categories and ranking of population, 92–93 corruption of, 223–224
 decline in food subsidies from Soviet Union and China, 91
 failure of, 96–97
 farmers markets, 96, 97–104, 240
 food distribution based on social ranking, 92–93, 183, 185, 188, 208
 hoarding and, 111–115
 miners' rations, 92
 new feeding system, 245–246
 possibility of reform in, 193–194, 233–235 reduction of farmers' per-capita rations, 81 reported egalitarian nature of, 174
 sale of grain in farmers markets, 101, 103
 similarity to Soviet Union, 92–97 triage of northeast region, 91, 105–109, 120, 143, 167, 174–175, 183–185, 188, 190, 239 public health conditions in, 207–208 reign of King Yongjio, 9

 social ranking and food distribution in, 92–93
 as socialist state, 5
 in subordinate relationship with China, 43
 totalitarianism in, 7 transition of political power on death of Kim Il Sung, 20–21
 tuberculosis in, 207
 unmarketable goods produced by for barter, 11
 as vast prison camp, 225
 view of UN, 166
 Yi dynasty in, 234
 North Korean Agricultural Commission, 180
 North Pyongan province, famine death rates in, 213–214 nutritional disorders, as trailing famine indicator, 27

 Oberdorfer, Don, 37, 217
 OFDA. See Office of Foreign Disaster Assistance (OFDA)
 Office of Foreign Disaster Assistance (OFDA), 142–143, 147
 Office of Korean Affairs, 144, 148
 Ogata, Sadako, 132
 Omawali, Omawali, 192

 Page, Trevor, 93, 172
 Park Chung Hee, 123–124
 Park, Jihyun, 60, 88
 Peng Dehuai, Marshal, 51
 People's Army, possible coup by, 217–218, 231–232

- Pomfret, John, 49, 58–59, 177
- Pomnyun, the Venerable (Buddhist monk), 46–47, 56–57, 60–61, 76–77, 88, 101, 148, 160
- population cleansing campaign in Pyongyang, 37–38
- Potemkin village effect, in North Korea, 47–48
- prefamine indicators, 26
- Progressive Policy Institute, 238
- Prystup, James, 238
- public distribution system
- in China, 99–100
 - in North Korea, 92–97, 111–115, 171–177, 174, 193–194, 223–224, 233–235, 245–246
 - in Soviet Union, 91–92
- punitive rationing, 208–212
- Pyongyang, 23–24, 31, 37
- children's center in, 31–33
 - evidence of famine in, 27
 - food rations for residents, 93
 - purging of sick, deformed, and handicapped people, 37
- Qaddafi, Muammar, 131
- Quality of Mercy: The*, 53
- Quinones, Ken, 141, 142, 143, 146, 178–179
- Reagan Doctrine, 145, 151, 156
- Reagan, Ronald, food relief policy, 145
- relief, versus development programming, 191–195
- “relief-to-development continuum,” 191
- Richardson, Bill, 146, 150
- Romania, coup in, 231, 239
- Rwandan genocide, 221
- Sariwon
- children's centers in, 34–35
 - visit to, 25, 27–28, 34
- Save the Children
- needs assessment for North Korea, 172–174
 - nutritional survey conducted by, 210
- Scalapino, Robert, 211
- seeds
- consumption of seed stock as famine indicator, 26
 - improvements in seed varieties, 14–15
 - increase in cost of as famine indicator, 26
 - shortages of as famine indicator, 26
- Seiple, Bob, 157
- Selassie, Haile, 51, 231
- Sen, Amartya, 7, 89–90, 181
- Shawcross, William, 53
- Shevardnadze, Eduard, 125
- Siv, Sichan, 53
- Snyder, Scott, 184–185
- Somalia, famine in, 72, 112
- South China Morning Post*, 55, 86, 102
- South Hamgyong, 120
- South Korea
- announcement of North Korean farmers market shutdown, 104
 - diplomatic recognition of, 124–125
 - economic boom in, 124
 - food aid to North Korea, 128–129, 167–168, 185
 - relations with North Korea, 123–126
 - “sunshine policy,” 129–130, 135
 - warming of, 126–128
- South Korean Central Intelligence Agency (KCIA), 136, 204, 209
- South Korean Unification Ministry
- report on farmers markets, 97

- Soviet Union
 as ally of North Korea, 125
 archival material on North Korea released, 125–126
 economic collapse of, 11, 91–92
 famine relief effort of 1921, 197–
 200, 238, 240–241
 KGB in, 45
 Lenin's prescription for agriculture in, 13, 179, 198
 public distribution system in, 92–97, 119
 subsidization of Korean food and petroleum supply by, 11, 91, 95, 114
 spontaneity, lack of as barrier to information gathering, 28
 Stalin, Joseph, 137, 199
 Ukrainian famine, 7, 49–50, 210
 Stop the Famine Committee, 153–154, 155–156
 stunting, as trailing famine indicator, 27
 Sudan, Darfur famine in, 213
 “sunshine policy” of South Korea toward North Korea, 129– 130, 135
 Thailand, sale of rice to North Korea, 139 Toyotomi, Hideoshi, 8, 43
 triage, of northeast North Korea
 during famine, 91, 105–109, 120, 143, 167, 174–175, 183–
 185, 188, 190, 239
 Trigubenko, Marina Ye, 181
 Trotsky, Leon, 199
 Tumen (China), 62
 Twining, Charles, 53
 UNICEF. See United Nations
 Children's Fund
 Unification Council of South Korea, 203
 United Nations, involvement in North Korea famine relief, 24,
 85, 188, 200
 See also World Food Program;
 other specific agencies
 United Nations Children's Fund
 (UNICEF), 32, 38
 famine relief by, 192–193
 nutritional survey conducted by,
 210, 214
 United Nations Development Program, in North Korea,
 85, 103, 191–194
 United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization, 6
 United States
 Bureau of Intelligence and Research, 141
 commercial trade with North Korea, 142
 food aid to North Korea, 134–136, 141, 185, 200
 ethical considerations, 144–145, 238–241
 evidence of famine, 142–143, 146, 148, 168
 fear that food would be diverted to military, 143–144, 154
 as part of “carrot-and-stick”
 approach, 146, 147, 150– 152, 155
 politics of aid, 143–148
 review of response, 161–163
 role of Congress in, 159–161
 role of NGOs in shaping policy, 148–156

- United States (cont.)
 State Department reporting on, 151–152
 strategic considerations, 241–245
 House International Relations Committee, 82
 Korean American community in,
 56–57, 156–158
 “soft-landing” approach to North
 Korea, 127–128
United States Institute for Peace, 184–185
U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID), 111, 145, 146–147
 Food for Peace budget, 182
 needs assessment for North Korea, 171–174
 Office of Foreign Disaster Assistance, 214
U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, 153
U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), harvest forecasting for North Korea, 178–179
USAID. See U.S. Agency for International Development
 (USAID)
USDA. See U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA)
Venerable Pomnyun. See Pomnyun, the Venerable (Buddhist monk)
Waal, Alexander de, 212–213
Wall Street Journal, 238
Washington Post
 author’s op-ed in, 151–152, 154, 238, 249–252
 report on refugee conditions,
 49, 58–59, 86, 102, 177
 Washington Times, 151, 165
 wavering class, in North Korea, 208, 211
 wild foods, consumption of as famine
 indicator, 26, 30, 167
Wolde-Mariam, Mesfin, 109
Wolgan Chosun, 136
World Food Program (WFP), 5, 38, 84, 144, 146, 152, 191–192
 advocacy plan for North Korean famine victims, 189–190
 children’s feeding program, 160, 177 distribution of food from donor governments, 183, 206
 negotiations over regional food allocations, 107–108
 nutritional survey conducted by, 210, 214
 observation of famine by, 93, 95, 112–113, 114–115, 142, 157, 166, 170–171, 175–177, 178
 response to North Korea’s announcement of famine, 6–7
World Vision, 23, 149, 152, 153, 157 national survey of U.S. opinion on famine, 153
 reaction to refugee surveys, 57
Yanbian autonomous region, 60–61
Yang, Dali, 233–234
Yanggang province, 106, 120, 190
Yeltsin, Boris, 11, 91
Yi dynasty, 8–9
Yi Sun-shin, 43
Yongjio, King, 9
Young-Hwang Ko, 209
Zaire, refugee camps in, 221