

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction: the call of the Night Parrot	1
A tangled nest of Night Parrot names	12
Getting to know the family: the molecular story Leo Joseph	16
Endnotes for introductory section	19
South Australia	25
The very first 'beautiful ground parrakeet': Charles Sturt, John McDouall Stuart and J. Harris Browne	26
Myrrlumbing: Frederick Andrews	31
Hunters of the long-lost Night Parrot: Samuel Albert White and Ethel Rosina White 67
Sclerolaena not spinifex : Shane Parker	80
Endnotes for South Australia section	89
Western Australia	103
Spinifex Parrot: Robert Austin, Albert Calvert and George Kearthland	104
Mournful whistle: Martin Bourgoin	111
A concerted effort: the CALM campaign	124
The vanishing habitat of the Night Parrot in the Gascoyne and Murchison regions of Western Australia: lessons from historical records, land use and landscape processes Peter Curry	128
Endnotes for Western Australia section	149

Victoria	161
Mallee Bird: Charles McLennan	162
Endnotes for Victoria section	181
New South Wales	187
Have you ever seen a Night Parrot? W. Kelly	188
Endnotes for New South Wales section	192
Northern Territory	195
Fly-by-night: George Keartland, Lawson Whitlock & Co.	196
A frame-up: Sidney William Jackson	219
Endnotes for Northern Territory section	226
Queensland	233
Bodies beside the road and a bird in the hand: Boles, Cupitt, Young and Co.	234
‘They say if enough are found’: Steve Murphy and John Young	262
Not the final chapter	288
Endnotes for Queensland section	317
Index	335