Malachi

Malachi means “my messenger”. This prophet’s message to the people of Israel was about honouring God. The book of Malachi says that the people did not honour God, not even in their thoughts.

The book of Malachi describes conversations between God and the people of Israel. In these conversations, God, through his prophet Malachi, asks Israel, “Why don’t you honour me?” Then the people of Israel say they don’t understand the question. They wonder why God would ask them such a question. Finally, the prophet explains to the people how they have not honoured God.

After these conversations, the prophet thinks about the day to come when God will judge the world. The book of Malachi says that the whole world will see how faithful God is. All people will know that he will do what he has promised.

In the book of Malachi, the prophet...
Introduces his message (1:1)

Answers these questions:

Does God really love us? (1:2-5)

Has God been shown respect? (1:6 – 2:9)

Who is faithful? (2:10-16)

Will God keep his promises? (2:17 – 3:5)

Will God welcome us back? (3:6-12)

How have we spoken against God? (3:13 – 4:3)

Tells the people to obey God and hope for a coming prophet (4:4-6)

1 This is a message from the LORD to Israel. God used Malachi to tell this message to the people.

God Loves Israel

² The LORD said, “I have loved you.”

But you said, “What shows that you have loved us?”

The LORD said, “Esau was Jacob’s brother, but I chose* Jacob. ³ And I did not accept† Esau. I destroyed his hill country.‡ His country was destroyed, and now only jackals live there.”

⁴ The people of Edom might say, “We were destroyed, but we will go back and rebuild our cities.”

But the LORD All-Powerful says, “If they rebuild their cities, I will destroy them again.” That is why people say Edom is an evil country—a nation the LORD hates forever.

⁵ You people saw these things, and you said, “The LORD is great, even outside Israel!”

The People Don’t Respect God

⁶ The LORD All-Powerful said, “Children honour their fathers. Servants honour their masters. I am your Father, so why don’t you honour me? I am your master, so why don’t you respect me? You priests don’t respect my name.

“But you say, ‘What have we done that shows we don’t respect your name?’

⁷ “You bring unclean bread to my altar.

“But you ask, ‘What makes that bread unclean?’

*1:2 chose Or “loved”.

†1:3 did not accept Or “hated”.

‡1:3 his hill country This means the country of Edom. Edom was another name for Esau.

“It is unclean because you show no respect for the altar of the LORD. ⁸You bring blind animals as sacrifices, and that is wrong. You bring sick and lame animals for sacrifices, and that is wrong. Try giving those sick animals as a gift to your governor. Would he accept them? No, he would not accept them.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

⁹“Now try asking God to be good to you. But he will not listen to you, and it is all your fault.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

¹⁰“I wish one of you would close the Temple doors to stop the lighting of useless fires on my altar. I am not pleased with you. I will not accept your gifts. This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

¹¹People all around the world respect my name. All around the world they bring good gifts to me and burn good incense as a gift to me, because my name is important to all of them. This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

¹²“But you people show that you don’t respect my name. You say that the Lord’s altar is unclean. And you don’t like the food from that altar. ¹³You smell the food and refuse to eat it. You say it is bad. Then you bring sick, lame and hurt animals to me. You try to give sick animals to me as sacrifices, but I will not accept them. This is what the LORD All-Powerful said. ¹⁴Some people have good, male animals that they could give as sacrifices, but they don’t. Some people bring good animals and promise to give those healthy animals to me. But then they secretly exchange them and give me sick animals instead. Bad things will happen to those people. I am the Great King and people all around the world respect me! This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

Rules for Priests

2 “Priests, this rule is for you: ²listen to me! Pay attention to what I say. Show honour to my name. If you don’t respect my name, bad things will happen to you. You will say blessings,[†] but they will become curses. I will make bad things happen because you don’t show respect for my name.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

³“Look, I will punish your descendants. During the festivals, you priests offer sacrifices to me. You take the dung and inside parts from the dead animals and throw them away. But I will smear the dung on your faces, and you will be thrown away with it! ⁴Then you will know why I am giving you this command. I am telling you these things so that my agreement with Levi will continue.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

⁵“I made my agreement with Levi. I promised to give him life and peace—and I gave him those things. Levi respected me and showed honour to my name. ⁶He taught the true teachings and didn’t teach lies. Levi was honest, and he loved peace. He followed me and saved many people from being punished for the evil things they did. ⁷A priest should know God’s teachings. People should be able to go to a priest and learn God’s teachings. A priest should be the LORD’s messenger to the people.

⁸“But you priests stopped following me! You used the teachings to make people do wrong. You ruined the agreement with Levi.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said. ⁹“You don’t live the way

[†]2:2 blessings Words asking for good things to happen to a person who tries to obey God’s law.

I told you. You have not accepted my teachings. So I will cause people to hate you and think you are worth nothing.”

Judah Was Not True to God

¹⁰We all have the same father. The same God made every one of us. So why do people cheat each other? They show that they don't respect the agreement. They don't respect the agreement that our ancestors made with God. ¹¹The people of Judah have been unfaithful to God. People in Jerusalem and Israel have done disgusting things. They have disgraced the Temple that the LORD loves by marrying women who worship a foreign god. ¹²The LORD will remove them from Judah's family. They might bring gifts to the LORD All-Powerful, but it will not help. ¹³You can cry and cover the LORD's altar with tears, but the Lord will not accept your gifts. He will not be pleased with the things you bring to him.

¹⁴You ask, “Why are our gifts not accepted?” It is because the LORD saw the evil things you did; he is a witness against you. He saw you cheat on your wife. You have been married to her since you were young. She was your girlfriend. Then you made your vows to each other, and she became your wife. ¹⁵God made you and your wife to become one body and one spirit. Why did he do this? So that you would have children who are faithful to him. So be careful, and do not be unfaithful to the wife you have had since you were young.

¹⁶This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: “The man who hates his wife enough to divorce her is hurting the person he should protect. So do what you know is right, and never break the promise you made to your wife.”

The Special Time of Judgement

¹⁷You have taught wrong things, and it makes the LORD very sad. People were doing evil things, but you said that this pleased the LORD and that he accepted those things. And you taught that God does not punish people for the evil they do.

3 The LORD All-Powerful says: “I am sending my messenger to prepare the way for me. Then suddenly, the Lord you are looking for will come to his temple.[§] Yes, the messenger you are waiting for, the one who will tell about my agreement, is really coming!

²“No one can prepare for that time or stand against him when he comes. He will be like a burning fire. He will be like the strong soap people use to make things clean. ³He will make the Levites clean. He will make them pure, like silver is made pure with fire! He will make them pure like gold and silver. Then they will bring gifts to the LORD, and they will do things the right way. ⁴Then the LORD will accept the gifts from Judah and Jerusalem. It will be as it was in the past—as the time long ago. ⁵Then I will bring you to justice. I will be an expert witness and testify about the evil things people do. I will speak out against those who do evil magic or commit adultery. I will speak out against those who make false promises and cheat their workers and don't pay them the money they promised. I will testify against those who don't help foreigners, or widows and orphans. And I will testify against those who don't respect me.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

[§]3:1 temple Or “palace”.

Stealing From God

⁶“I am the LORD, and I don’t change. You are Jacob’s children, and you have not been completely destroyed. ⁷But you never obeyed my laws. Even your ancestors stopped following me. Come back to me, and I will come back to you.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

“You say, ‘How can we come back?’”

⁸“People should not steal things from God, but you stole things from me.

“You say, ‘What did we steal from you?’”

“You should have given me a tenth of your things. You should have given me special gifts. ⁹In this way your whole nation has stolen things from me, so bad things are happening to you.”

¹⁰The LORD All-Powerful says: “Try this test. Bring a tenth of your things to me. Put them in the treasury. Bring food to my house. Test me! If you do these things, I will surely bless you. Good things will come to you like rain falling from the sky. You will have more than enough of everything. ¹¹I will not let pests destroy your crops. All your grapevines will produce grapes.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

¹²“People from other nations will be good to you. You will have a wonderful country.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

The Special Time of Judgement

¹³The LORD says, “You said cruel things to me.”

But you ask, “What did we say about you?”

¹⁴You said, “It is useless to worship God. We did what the LORD All-Powerful told us, but we didn’t gain anything. We cried like people at a funeral to show we were sorry for our sins, but it didn’t help. ¹⁵We think proud people are happy. Evil people succeed. They do evil things to test God’s patience, and God does not punish them.”

¹⁶Then the LORD’s followers spoke with each other, and the LORD listened to them. There is a book in front of him. In that book are the names of his followers. They are the people who honour the LORD’s name.

¹⁷The LORD All-Powerful says: “They belong to me. I will be kind to them. Parents are very kind to their children who obey them. In the same way, I will be kind to my followers. ¹⁸You people will come back to me, and you will learn the difference between good and evil. You will learn the difference between someone who follows God and someone who does not.

4 “That time of judgement is coming. It will be like a hot furnace. All the proud people will be punished. All the evil people will burn like straw. At that time they will be like a bush burning in the fire, and there will not be a branch or root left.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

²“But for you, my followers, goodness will shine on you like the rising sun. And it will bring healing power like the sun’s rays. You will be free and happy, like calves set free from their pens. ³When the time comes for me to do these things, you will trample down the wicked. They will be like ashes under your feet.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

⁴“Remember and obey the law of my servant Moses. I gave those laws and rules to him at Mount Horeb. They are for all the people of Israel.

⁵“Look, I will send Elijah the prophet to you. He will come before that great and terrible time of judgement from the LORD. ⁶Elijah will help the parents become close to their children, and he will help the children become close to their parents. This must happen, or I will come and completely destroy your country.”
