Oklahoma State Head Coach Frank Anderson

On Kansas State Pitcher Brad Hutt:

"I thought that (Brad) Hutt was pretty good since he threw on Friday. He is a really good college pitcher and he is really fun to watch because he changes speeds and what he did especially after pitching on Friday to come back and pitch today. You could tell he did not want to come out of the game when he came out of the game you could tell what a competitor he was."

On the game:

"I thought that (Tyler) Blandford settled in pretty good. When you give up three runs in a college game you should win. Our goals are four or less and about eighty percent of the time if you give up four or less you will win the game."

Oklahoma State Pitcher Tyler Blandford

On his game:

"I thought I got a feel for the change up in this game and changing the speed and keeping hitters off balance. I was trying to locate it like I want to."
