Texas head coach Augie Garrido:

On the game:

"It was a game of back and forth with the score and both teams played at the same level, a lot of the things that happened, happened to both teams. At the same time I thought the game was extremely important from this point of view: we haven't won a game like that the entire season and it was more important for us. We've had our problems with the pitchers feeling like they let the hitters down, and the hitters feeling like they let pitchers down. We went through a time where we scored runs and then gave up more runs. So we went through all of that fun stuff that baseball provides for everyone. "

Texas sophomore infielder/pitcher Brandon Belt

On his performance:

"I hit pretty good and didn't pitch very good at all. There's been a lot of players picking each other up, and when I was pitching I was trying to finish the game off. But it really didn't go according to plan.

Texas sophomore infielder David Hernandez

On his game-winning last hit:

"All year we've talked about coming back in the seventh, eighth and ninth. It came down to me and I just saw it and hit it."
