The Big 12 Conference has established a consistent level of national success on the field and in the classroom as it enters its 14th season in 2009-10.

Since it began play in 1996-97, the Conference can boast of 34 team crowns and over 400 individual NCAA Championships. The success continued through 2008-09 as Texas A&M captured national titles in men's golf as well as men's and women's outdoor track & field. The league placed two teams in the Bowl Championship Series for the fifth time and had a team play for the BCS National Championship for the sixth season. In addition, two volleyball teams advanced to the semifinals of the NCAA Championship and Oklahoma played in the Women's Final Four. Missouri softball and Texas baseball punched tickets to the College World Series.

Among individual honors, Sally Kipyego (Texas Tech) became the first NCAA Division I female or male runner to win three consecutive cross country national championships. She was named the Honda Award winner for the third season as the nation's top female cross country runner, becoming just the eighth athlete to win the award three times in any sport. Jenny Barringer (Colorado) claimed the Honda Award for Track & Field while Aleksandr Nedovyesov (Oklahoma State) was named ITA/Campbell's Tennis Player of the Year.

For the fourth time in its 13-year history a Big 12 student-athlete won the Heisman Trophy. The Big 12 also established a high-water mark, as for the first time in the 74-year history of the Heisman Trophy four of the top five vote-getters hailed from the same conference, including award-winner Sam Bradford (Oklahoma).

Over the past five seasons a total of 13 NCAA trophies have been hoisted by Big 12 institutions, with at least one national crown won in all but one year for the Conference, including each of the past 12 seasons.

The Big 12 leads all conferences with its six appearances in BCS title games. League squads have played for the football national championship six times in the last nine years with berths in 16 BCS games overall, including two each in 2007 and 2008. The Big 12 led all conferences with five teams ranked in the final 2008 BCS Standings. In addition, an all-time high nine league players earned consensus All-America recognition this past season, more than any other conference.

In basketball, 10 women's and nine men's teams have advanced to their respective Final Fours in the past eight seasons as the Big 12 continues its place among the elite intercollegiate athletic conferences. The six men's Final Four participants since 2002 are tied for the most of any conference. Numerous national honors have been won by basketball student-athletes during the league's history. The Big 12 had a national player of the year honoree for the third straight year when Blake Griffin (Oklahoma) was the consensus winner in 2008-09. Courtney Paris (Oklahoma) gave the conference a consensus All-America selection in women's basketball for the ninth straight season.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community, the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

Big 12 student-athletes also do well in garnering national academic recognition. Sarah Pavan (Nebraska) was named Academic All-America of the Year in volleyball in 2006 and 2007 by ESPN The Magazine and College Sports Information Directors of America with a 4.0 grade-point average in Biochemistry. She also won the national academic honor presented for all sports in 2006-07 and was named recipient of the prestigious 2006-07 Honda-Broderick Award as Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year. She is the first athlete since the Big 12 was formed to earn the accolade. In its history, the conference has over 330 academic honorees, averaging more than 25 each season.

The Big 12 can boast of other stories that combine on and off the field success. Patience Knight (Texas Tech) was the recipient of the Honda Inspiration Award in 2008, given to an outstanding female college athlete who overcomes adversity to excel in her sport. She was diagnosed with a cancerous tumor in 2007, but rebounded to win All-America honors at the 2008 NCAA Indoor Track & Field Championships.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons.

At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsman of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships at the end of each academic year. A total of 225 scholars have received over 1.3 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 13 years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 21 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

The conference is made up of 12 institutions that have shared many traditional rivalries throughout their histories. Member schools include - Baylor University, University of Colorado, Iowa State University, University of Kansas, Kansas State University, University of Missouri, University of Nebraska, University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University, University of Texas, Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University.

The institutions created a league that encompasses seven states, over 45 million people and television households in 18 of the top 100 markets within its geographic footprint.

The conference conducts championships for 20 of its 21 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition. The winner of the Big 12 football championship game earns the league's berth into the prestigious Bowl Championship Series.

In the last several years the Big 12 has increased its bowl agreements and expanded television opportunities for all sports through contracts with ABC/ESPN and FSN. Most recently, the league renewed and expanded its multi-year arrangement with ABC/ESPN, Inc. The new contract began in 2008-09.

In its first 13 years, the Conference has distributed more than $1.1 billion to its 12 member institutions.

The Big 12 staff administers to over 4,600 student-athletes in 21 sports. The conference office is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

BIG 12 SPORTSMANSHIP STATEMENT

The member institutions of the Big 12 Conference are committed to competition in an arena where sportsmanship and the sense of fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, within the community or in the classroom, those who make up the Big 12—its administrators, coaches, game officials and student-athletes—support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

At the heart of sportsmanship is the commitment of the institutions towards respect for the opposition and those officiating contests in the 21 sports sponsored by the Big 12. It is with a sense of fair play that a true sporting demeanor in the spirit of intercollegiate competition can be created and maintained with a total regard for the welfare of student-athletes, coaches, support personnel and spectators.

Sportsmanship on the field of play is governed by Conference rules and guidelines, as well as those established under the NCAA and amateur organizations. It is the responsibility of game officials and administrators to see to strict adherence to these guidelines.

The behavior of spectators is managed by event personnel, who are encouraged to deal with interference or abuse of appropriate sporting behavior in the strictest of methods.

The Big 12 Conference and its member institutions appreciate the support of the majority of fans who wish to create an atmosphere of competition that allows the participants to showcase the game and their respective skills.

Big 12 titles for sports without round-robin conference play are determined by the postseason championship (Cross country, golf, gymnastics, swimming & diving, indoor/outdoor track & field, wrestling).

Returnees Are Plentiful In Big 12

- Seven Big 12 student-athletes won major awards (Player of the Year, etc.) a year ago. Five of them will take the court in 2009-10.
- Seven of the 10 members of last year's All-Big 12 First and Second teams will play again during the upcoming season.
- The entire All-Big 12 Rookie Team is back this year (not always the case with freshmen leaving early).
- Four athletes named to the Big 12 All-Defensive Team will suit up again in 2009-10.
- Three players (Craig Brackins, ISU; Cole Aldrich & Sherron Collins, KU) who earned some form of All-America honors a year ago are back for this season.
- The Big 12 had five players in the top 100 nationally in points per game. Four of them return in 2009-10. Three athletes who were among the top 30 in the country in rebounding are also back.

Statistically Speaking

The Big 12 returns numerous players who were among its conference statistical leaders (all games played) a year ago. The breakdown of players who are back in 2009-10 is included below.

Blocks:	8 of the top 12
Field Goal Percentage:	7 of the top 12
3-Point FG Percentage:	4 of the top 6
Free Throw Percentage:	8 of the top 15

Nine of 12 teams bring back more than 50 percent of their scoring from a year ago. The leaders include Kansas (97.6 percent returning), Colorado (87.4), Iowa State (77.9), Texas Tech (73.0) and Texas (69.9).

It Will Be A Milestone Year

The Big 12 will reach several games played and scoring milestones during the 2009-10 season.

- The Big 12 needs 54 more games to reach its 5,000th contest since the league began play in 1996-97.
- In conference action, only four games have to be played to reach the 2,500th Big 12 contest in history.
- Just 1,948 points in Big 12 games are required for the conference to post the 300,000th point scored in a league game.
- Only 716 points need to be scored at the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship for the league to have recorded 20,000 points at its postseason event.

Academic & Athletic Excellence

Not only does the Big 12 bring back much of its top athletic talent, but several of its top students will take the court as well. Eight of the 10 members of the Academic All-Big 12 First Team from 2009 will play again this season, and will be joined by all six selections from last year's second team.

Rebounding Machines

For the second straight season, the Big 12 had the nation's leading rebounder a year ago. Blake Griffin (OU) and Michael Beasley (KSU) both grabbed the most boards in college basketball during the last two campaigns. The Big 12 has become known for some great rebounders over the years. In 13 seasons, the conference's rebounding leader has ranked in the top 10 nationally on 10 different occasions.

Damion James

And More Top Rebounders Are Back

Senior Damion James of Texas ranks prominently on the Big 12 career rebounding charts. He has 968 boards in his first three seasons and needs just 176 to become the all-time conference leader. In Big 12 Championship play, he has 78 - tied with former Longhorn Chris Mihm for the most in the history of the league's postseason event.

In the last 11 years, the Big 12 has produced 14 players who have averaged a double-double. Two active players - James (2007-08) and Cole Aldrich of Kansas (2008-09) - have previously posted a single-season double-double.

It's All About Recruiting

The Big 12 had a stellar year in recruiting, with its incoming class of players rated the best in the nation. The Big 12 led all conferences with 21 players among the ESPN/Scouts Inc. list of top 90 recruits.

ESPN Top 90 Recruits (Signees By Conference)

BIG 12	21
ACC	20
Big East	14
Pac-10	12
SEC	10
Big Ten	6

Five of the top 15 players in the ESPN Top 100 are joining the Big 12, including the No. 1 player on the list (Avery Bradley, Texas). The five top 15 players on that list are more than any other conference. The 21 student-athletes overall are headed to eight different schools in the Big 12.

A total of five players in the Scout.com top 20 will head to Big 12 schools - tied with the ACC for the most of any conference.

In the Scout.com rankings, three Big 12 signees were among the top 11. Four were in the top 15, five in the top 20, six in the top 25, eight in the top 30 and 15 in the top 100.

The list of Rivals.com recruiting rankings had half of the Big 12 schools among the top 20 team rankings. The six Big 12 schools in the top 20 are more than any conference in America. Individually, four Big 12 signees were in the top 10, six placed in the top 25, 10 were in the top 51 and 18 finished in the top 100.

College GameDay Heading To Manhattan

For the first time since the Big 12 began play, Kansas State will host ESPN's popular College GameDay basketball program. The crew will come to Manhattan on January 30, when the Wildcats host in-state rival Kansas. When KSU hosts the basketball version for the first time, it will become the 15th school in the nation to have hosted both the basketball and football events. Four Big 12 schools (KSU, OU, OSU, UT) have done so - tied (SEC) for the most of any conference in the history of the two broadcasts.

Big 12 To Host NAAs Again; Final Four Coming In 2014

The Big 12 will return to its NCAA hosting duties once again in 2010. The conference has been selected as one of the first- and second-round hosts, with games slated for the Ford Center in Oklahoma City for the third time.

The 2010 games will mark the eighth time in the last 10 years that the Big 12 will serve in this role. The conference hosted six straight seasons from 2001-06 and again in 2009 in Kansas City, Oklahoma City and Dallas.

The Big 12 has also been selected as the host conference for the 2014 NCAA Men's Final Four. That event will be held at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas.

National Awards Have A Home In The Big 12

For the second time in the last three years, the consensus National Player of the Year was from the Big 12 Conference. Oklahoma standout Blake Griffin captured the honor in 2008-09, just two years after Kevin Durant of Texas was the top player in the country. In fact, a Big 12 player (from three different schools) has earned National Player of the Year accolades each of the past three seasons, as Kansas State's Michael Beasley was also recognized by multiple outlets in 2007-08.

Over the last three campaigns, a total of 45 national individual player and coaching awards have been given to representatives from the Big 12.

Last Two Seasons, Big 12 Is The Best

Over the last two years, the Big 12 has posted a 23-11 record in NCAA play. The winning percentage is first nationally during that time.

Consensus All-Americans Live Here

In the last three seasons, the Big 12 has had more consensus All-America honorees than any conference in the nation. In that time, the Big 12 is the only league with multiple first team picks in the same season – and it has done so twice (2007, '08).

Baylor Makes Big 12 History In The NIT

The Big 12 postseason success a year ago was not limited to the NCAAAs. Baylor became the first team in Big 12 history to advance to the championship game of the NIT. The Bears were the third conference squad to play in the semifinals, following Iowa State (2004) and Texas Tech (2003).

In the all-time history of the NIT, three current Big 12 members have captured the title - Nebraska (1996), Texas (1978) and Colorado (1940).

Regional Leaders Once Again

The Big 12 had three teams in the regional semifinals [Sweet 16] of the 2009 NCAA Tournament. It marks the fifth time in conference history (since 1996-97) that at least three squads have advanced to the second weekend. The other years include 2004 (3), 2003 (3), 2002 (4) and 1997 (3).

The Big 12 was one of only two conferences nationally to have three or more teams in the "Sweet 16." The breakdown by league is below.

2009 Regional Semifinalists – By Conference

Big East	5	Pac-10	1
BIG 12	3	West Coast	1
ACC	2	Atlantic 10	1

Overall, the Big 12 finished 15-9 (.625) in 2009 postseason play. In addition to its 11-6 NCAA mark, the Big 12 was 4-3 in the NIT. The combined win total was also second in the nation (Big East, 19).

Perfect In Round One

The Big 12 was 6-0 in NCAA first-round games in 2009, the best first-round record in league history. It was the top (and only undefeated) mark of any conference with multiple NCAA teams. The six wins were the most-ever in the first round for the Big 12. The conference's previous high was five victories in 2008, 2003 and 2000.

In the last two seasons, the Big 12 is 11-1 in NCAA first-round contests. In the past three seasons, league squads are 14-2 in first-round matchups.

The only other year that Big 12 teams posted an unblemished record in the first round was 2004. That year, conference squads went 4-0.

Since the first season of conference competition, the Big 12 has always guaranteed its teams extensive national television coverage. This year, the Big 12 Conference continues its long-standing relationship with the ESPN family of networks, including ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU and ABC.

In addition, Conference games are provided to CBS through the partnership with ESPN. The Big 12 and ESPN, Inc. are entering the second year of a long-term contract that runs through the 2015-16 season. The Big 12 was the first conference to be guaranteed three weekly telecast windows on ESPN or ESPN2. In addition, 95 games will air annually with more than 60 contests broadcast by ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 or ESPNU. Selected games will also be available on ESPN360.com and ESPN Full Court, the network's outer-market pay subscription service. The telecasts listed below were known at press time.

The Big 12 Conference maintains long-term television agreements to ensure the greatest exposure for its men's basketball programs. Included below is a breakdown of these rights and how they affect which games are televised, and when they are shown.

ESPN has purchased the rights to 95 games, plus all games of the Phillips 66 Big 12 Men's Basketball Championship and home games in the Big 12/Pac-10 Hardwood Series. Of those 95 contests:

- Forty-three will be televised on either ESPN or ESPN2, with a maximum of 20 of those games sublicensed to a national over-the-air network (ABC/CBS)
- In addition to the 43 games above, a maximum of 20 games may be televised on ESPNU and 32 games may be televised in syndication on the newly-branded Big 12 Network
- ESPNU may move up to six games per season for telecast exclusively on ESPN360.com (Internet)

Appearance Requirements

There are no appearance requirements (minimums or maximums) for games on ESPN, ESPN2, syndication or the sublicense to a national over-the-air network. However, ESPNU and ESPN360 shall be subject to the following restrictions:

- No same single match-up game in consecutive seasons
- No more than four appearances on ESPNU or ESPN360 in a season, except two schools may have five appearances
- No more than one appearance per season on ESPN360
- Only one game from each schools intra-division schedule may appear on ESPNU or ESPN360 in a season; and such may not appear from the same venue in consecutive seasons

Game Times/Exclusive Windows

The times for selected games will be (Central Time):

- The late window (generally 8 p.m.) for Big Monday telecasts
- No earlier than 11 a.m., for weekend games distributed on ESPN, ESPN2 or an over-the-air network
- No earlier than Noon, for all other weekend games
- No earlier than 6 p.m., nor later than 8:30 p.m., for all Wednesday games
- No earlier than 6 p.m., nor later than 8 p.m., for all other games

Bryndon Manzer and Doug Bell interview LaceDarius Dunn of Baylor at the 2009 Phillips 66 Big 12 Men's Basketball Championship.

Member institutions which carry local or third-tier packages are precluded from televising games in exclusive windows as established by the contract. These windows generally allow for a slight overlap of games of up to 30 minutes, except as noted below:

- Monday evening games, two-hour protected window
- Wednesday evening games, 90-minute protected window
- Syndication games on Saturday afternoons, two-hour protected window
- Syndicated games in primetime (weekend and weekday) and Sundays, 90-minute protected window
- Tuesday, Wednesday and/or Friday games (except syndication), no protected window

Distribution of Institutional (Local) Package Games

ESPN controls the national/regional distribution of games and the contract limits the geographical reach of institutional (third-tier or local) package games to the state(s) of the participating team(s). The guidelines for the distribution of these games include:

- Telecasts may be distributed only within the states (and overlapping DMAs) of the two participating teams
- At its option, institutions may present the telecasts to ESPN for placement on ESPN Full Court
- Unselected games produced as part of the local package may be distributed by Big 12 Web sites within the state(s) of the participating teams
- If an unselected game is offered to ESPN for outer-market distribution (ESPN Full Court) and ESPN declines, Big 12 Web sites may distribute such games on a free, sponsored, pay-per-view or other basis

Revenue Distribution Process

Basketball television revenue is divided equally among all member institutions. However, each institution is awarded a flat amount annually for non-conference home games on ESPN, ESPN2 or ESPNU and for non-conference road games on an over-the-air network (e.g. CBS, ABC).

PHILLIPS 66 BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP

The Phillips 66 Big 12 Men's Basketball Championship heads back to Kansas City in 2010, with Sprint Center hosting the league championship for the second time. All 12 institutions will participate with seeding based on regular season finish. The top four squads in the conference standings earn first-round byes. The Big 12 Champion earns the league's automatic bid to the 65-team NCAA Championship field. The entire Big 12 Championship will be televised on ESPN, ESPN2, ESPN Full Court, ESPN360.com or the regional Big 12 Network.

All times Central and subject to change
Telecasts on the Big 12 Network are syndicated by ESPN Regional Television throughout Big 12 markets and beyond

CHAMPIONSHIP TIEBREAKING PROCEDURES

Seeding for the Championship will be based upon regular-season competition. The winner of the postseason basketball championship shall be declared the Big 12 automatic qualifier to the NCAA Championship. A team ineligible under NCAA or Big 12 rules for postseason competition shall not compete in the championship.

The four teams with the best records (based upon winning percentage) in 16 Conference games shall earn first-round byes. After the four teams have been awarded first-round byes and ranked as the No. 1 through No. 4 seeds, all remaining teams will be ranked in order No. 5 through No. 12 for seeding in the championship.

Tiebreakers - The first criteria in the breaking of ties in the standings shall be head-to-head competition of tied teams. The following procedure will be used to establish the championship seeds if ties exist. (For tiebreaking procedures teams will be grouped in two "divisions" based upon established guidelines. Colorado, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri and Nebraska are in one division and Baylor, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas, Texas A&M and Texas Tech are in the other division.)

- If two teams are tied and they are from different divisions, the winner of the game between the two tied teams shall be the higher seed.
- If two teams are tied and they are from the same division, the team with an advantage in head-to-head competition shall be the higher seed.
- If two teams remain tied, there will be a comparison of overall record against division teams only (10 divisional games).
- If two teams remain tied, there will be a comparison of record against the highest ranked team(s) (based upon Conference winning percentage) in the division and proceeding through in order of divisional record.
- If two teams remain tied, there will be a comparison of record against the highest ranked team(s) (based upon Conference winning percentage) in the opposite division and proceeding through in order of divisional record.

- If two teams remain tied, the higher seed will be chosen by draw.
- If three or more teams are tied, ties among divisional opponents will be broken first by using steps (b) through (f) and the head-to-head results will be used to break ties between non-divisional teams. When three or more teams from the same division are tied step (b) will consist of a mini-round robin among the tied teams. At any point during the process of breaking ties among three or more teams that the number tied teams are reduced to two, head-to-head competition would be used as the primary tie-breaker, followed by steps (c) through (f).

Note: When comparing against the "highest ranked team(s)" in either division, the comparison will be based upon how tied teams did against all teams in a given placement, rather than a team that wins a tiebreaker at another position. For example, if two teams are tied for fifth and two teams are tied for first, the head-to-head comparison would be how the fifth place teams did against the first place teams combined, and vice-versa.

Draw - In the event tiebreaking procedures are unsuccessful and a draw is necessary in determining seeding, the following procedure will be used:

- The drawing will be conducted in public or with media attendance
- Institutions involved in the drawing have the right to have a local representative in attendance at the drawing
- A single slip of paper with names representing each of the tied institutions will be placed into a container and will be drawn in order of seeding from highest (#1) to lowest (#12)

Indianapolis will host the NCAA Men's Final Four for the sixth time in 2010. This season will mark the first year the event is played in Lucas Oil stadium, a state-of-the-art retractable roof facility that can seat approximately 70,000 for basketball.

Dan Beebe was named the third commissioner of the Big 12 Conference on September 5, 2007, after serving as senior associate commissioner and chief operating officer for the league since February 2003.

In his two years as commissioner, Beebe has enjoyed four national championships and four teams in the Bowl Championship Series in addition to numerous individual NCAA crowns. Off the field, he guided league institutions to a continuation of their revenue sharing model which returned a record $130-million back to its membership in 2008-09.

In addition, Beebe was part of the BCS television negotiating team that reached a new agreement with ESPN resulting in a significant increase in revenue for the Big 12. He also has spearheaded a continued and expanded Big 12 relationship with Special Olympics in each of the league's seven states.

The Walla Walla, Washington, native will represent the Big 12 on two national boards. Beebe has been named to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee – one of the organization's most prestigious groups. His tenure will begin in September 2009 and run for five years. He also will serve on the Executive Committee of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA). That four-year term will expire in June 2013. Currently, Beebe is a board member of the Collegiate Women Sports Awards, sponsored by Honda.

While in his previous role at the Big 12, Beebe handled issues related to governance, national policy and legal affairs, in addition to coordinating the day-to-day activities of the conference office. He also served as the conference liaison to the Big 12 Board of Directors. Beebe has been involved in site selection for future league championships, extending television contracts and enhancing football bowl opportunities. In addition, he has been active in establishing the conference's sportsmanship policies and procedures.

Prior to joining the Big 12, Beebe was commissioner of the Ohio Valley Conference from 1989-2003. Upon his appointment, he became the youngest leader of a Division I football-playing conference.

During his tenure, Beebe made the OVC more attractive in areas of television appearances as exposure nearly tripled. He also enhanced championships and revenue generation, ensured sportsmanship and fair play, promoted gender equity, and gained national recognition for the league. He was a strong proponent of providing opportunities for female student-athletes, as the league added three women's championships during his time.

Under Beebe's direction, the OVC added five new members. He also placed an emphasis on ethics and sportsmanship within the league, producing a nationally recognized sportsmanship statement and participating in regional and national seminars on the topic.

Over the course of his career, Beebe has built a strong reputation nationally in college athletics and has been selected to some of the NCAA's most significant committees. In addition to his recent appointments, he was a member of the prestigious NCAA Management Council, serving as chair of the Council's I-AA Governance Committee. He also chaired the Council's Committee on Fines and Forfeitures and was part of its Subcommittee for Student-Athlete Issues. Beebe was picked to fill the required commissioner's position on the initial NCAA Athletics Certification Committee that formalized and implemented the program adopted by the NCAA membership. He also previously served on the NCAA Nominating, Professional Sports Liaison, Football Issues, I-AA Football and Federal Arbitration Act committees.

Prior to his conference work, Beebe was a Director of Enforcement at the NCAA. He started at the NCAA in 1982 as an enforcement representative and was involved with numerous high-profile cases. That tenure was interrupted by a one-year stint as an Assistant Director of Athletics at Wichita State University in 1986 before he returned to the NCAA office where he earned his Director of Enforcement promotion in 1988.

Beebe attended Walla Walla Community College from 1975 to 1977, and then transferred on to California State Polytechnic University (Cal Poly-Pomona) where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree, cum laude, in social sciences in June 1979. Beebe received his law degree from the University of California Hastings College of the Law in 1982 and is a member of the Washington State Bar Association.

Besides his life's work, Beebe's ability to relate to student-athletes and others directly involved in college sports results from his own experience as a recruited football player. As an offensive lineman, Beebe was a four-year starter and served as captain of the varsity football teams at Walla Walla Community College and Cal Poly-Pomona. He continued his participation in athletics well after his college days, playing rugby, basketball, tennis, golf and other sports.

He was selected as one of the Outstanding Young Men of America in 1989 in recognition of his outstanding professional achievement, superior leadership ability and exceptional service to the community. In 1995, he was named an Institute for International Sport Ethics Fellow. Beebe has also served on various community boards, including the YMCA and Nashville Sports Council.

Born on February 27, 1957, Beebe is married to the former Molly Scanlon and has four children: daughters Jessie and Elaine, and sons Matthew and Patrick.

- Warren had seven games with at least 20 points a year ago, the most by a Sooner freshman since 1983-84. His top performance was 35 points at Arkansas, which tied for No. 10 on the all-time single-game scoring output list for a Big 12 freshman.

TEAM NOTEBOOK

- Oklahoma State connected on 327 field goals from 3-point range last season, a total that was a school and Big 12 record. The Cowboys return nearly 75 percent of their 3-pointers from last year, including the top two long-distance performers.
- Junior guard James Anderson enters the 2009-10 season 29th on the school scoring list with 1,076 points. A repeat of last year's point total (638) would move him into the top four of the Cowboys' career scoring chart.
- Junior forward Marshall Moses grabbed 142 rebounds in league games a year ago, breaking the OSU season record for Big 12 contests. He had double-digit boards in six of his last 11 outings overall.
- The Cowboys have advanced to postseason play in each of their last 13 seasons and 20 of the past 21 campaigns.
- OSU Head Coach Travis Ford is just the third coach in school history to win 20 or more games in his first season. It also marked the 15th time in the last 19 campaigns that the Cowboys have won 20 or more.

TEAM NOTEBOOK

- Texas has recorded at least 20 wins in 10 consecutive seasons, extending its school record. The Longhorns have also had at least nine Big 12 victories every year under Head Coach Rick Barnes.
- Senior Damion James ranks prominently on the Big 12 career rebound lists, placing sixth overall and 10th in conference games only. A repeat of last season's totals would make him the league's all-time leader in both categories.
- Senior center Dexter Pittman recorded double-doubles in three of UT's five postseason games a year ago. He averaged 10.4 rebounds over his last five outings overall.
- Junior guard Dogus Balbay had 23 games last year with one turnover or less, including zero turnovers in a contest nine times. He led the Big 12 in conference games only with a 3.5 assist-to-turnover ratio.
- The Longhorns are one of just six schools to appear in 19 of the last 21 NCAA Tournaments. UT is 33-30 all-time in NCAA competition, including 17-11 under Barnes.

TEAM NOTEBOOK

- Texas A&M is one of just six schools nationally to win at least one NCAA Tournament game in each of the past four years. Prior to the current streak, the Aggies last recorded a NCAA victory in 1980.
- Only two schools besides A&M have registered postseason wins in the last five seasons. The Aggies (4 NCAA, 1 NIT), join Memphis and North Carolina as the only squads with at least one postseason victory during that span.
- Junior guard B.J. Holmes led the Big 12 in 3-point percentage during conference games last season, hitting at a .470 clip. It marked the third time in the last five years that an Aggie has led the Big 12 in 3-point shooting in league action.
- The Aggies set a school record last season with 594 free throws made, a total that was 12th nationally. A&M was the only Big 12 team that made more free throws than its opponents attempted (577).
- Texas A&M has won 56 straight regular-season non-conference games at Reed Arena. The team is 50-6 (.893) at home since 2006-07 and its home record over the last five years (83-12, .874) is the second-most victories in the country (Memphis, 89).
