For Openers...

> Missouri Basketball returns to NCAA Tournament play for the third consecutive season as the #11-seeded Tigers battle the Cincinnati Bearcats for the first time in series history ... Missouri and Cincy meet at the Verizon Center in Washington, D.C., marking Missouri's first trip to our nation's capital since a 63-51 loss at Georgetown on Feb. 20, 1982.

> Mizzou is making its 24th trip to the NCAA Tournament overall ... The Tigers are 22-23 all-time in the Big Dance and have won five consecutive opening-round games dating back to an 84-70 loss to 8th-seeded North Carolina in 2000 ... That Carolina team ended up making the Final Four.

> Missouri is headed to the West Region for the eighth time in school history ... The Tigers last went West in 2009 and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight ... Actually each of Mizzou's last two trips into the West Region finished with Elite Eight runs, including a surge as the #12 seed before falling to #2 Oklahoma in San Jose, Calif.

> Here is what you need to know about Mizzou ... Missouri's brand of basketball is called The Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball and Head Coach Mike Anderson has used it to make six career trips to the NCAA Tournament in nine seasons as a head coach ... Missouri ranks #2 nationally in steals (9.8) and is one of the country's most unselfish teams with eight players boasting 29 or more assists ... In addition, Missouri set the school record for fewest turnovers per game last year and this season's 12.8 turnovers per game is the third fewest in school history ... So while the brand of play is fast, it's fundamentally sound.

> In addition, Missouri is one of just four teams nationally to have five players averaging double figures in scoring (along with Iowa State, Long Beach State and Detroit).

> Missouri enters NCAA play as an 11-seed for the second time ... The Tigers fell to UAB, 66-64, in 1986 ... Missouri was a #10 seed last season and defeated #7 Clemson, 86-78, in Buffalo last year ... Missouri is also facing its fourth Big EAST team in NCAA play the last few seasons ... Mizzou defeated #6 Marquette in 2009 and fell to #1 UConn in the Elite Eight and dropped a 68-59 decision to #2 West Virginia last year in Buffalo.

> Thursday's game marks a homecoming trip of sorts for a pair of Tigers ... Junior Kim English is from nearby Baltimore, Md., while Ricardo Ratliffe is from Hampton, Va. ... Missouri will return to the area next year to face Old Dominion.

Mizzou Quick Hitters

> For the third consecutive year Missouri is headed to the Big Dance ... The Tigers are the #11 seed in the West Region and will face #6 Cincinnati in Washington, D.C. on Thursday evening.

> Missouri is making its first-ever appearance on TNT ... Mizzou alum Matt Winer will host the TNT studio show live from Atlanta.

> It's a rare trip into the nation's capital for Missouri ... In addition to that aforementioned game vs. Georgetown in 1982 the Tigers also faced George Washington in D.C. way back on Dec. 15, 1932, and won 33-30.

> While Missouri is facing Cincinnati for the first time, Mike Anderson has some familiarity with the Bearcats and Mick Cronin ... Anderson was 1-2 vs. Cincinnati while he was the head coach at UAB and his Blazers knocked off Cronin's Murray State Racers 100-80 in Birmingham during the 2004-05 campaign.

> Mizzou is 0-1 all-time as a #11 seed ... The Tigers fell to UAB in 1986, but have been excellent as the lower-seeded team under Mike Anderson's watch ... Missouri defeated #7 Clemson last year as a 10-seed and toppled #2 Memphis in 2009 as a #3 seed.

> Missouri is back in the West Region for the second time in three years ... Missouri is 10-8 all-time in the West, including a 6-2 mark during their last two runs through that portion of the bracket.

> Following its 12-steal effort against Texas A&M on March 10, Missouri is #2 nationally in steals ... The Tigers average 9.8 thefts per game this year and that figure is up to 10.8 over their last six outings.

> Missouri is 4-2 in neutral court games this year ... The Tigers won the Cancun Challenge with wins over Wyoming and La Salle and topped Illinois (75-64) in St. Louis ... Missouri defeated Texas Tech (88-84) in Big 12 Tournament play, but fell to Texas A&M (86-71) and Georgetown (111-102) at the Sprint Center.

> Missouri recently recorded its 1,500th win in program history with its 88-84 triumph vs. Texas Tech in the Big 12 Tournament ... The Tigers had 1,477 wins entering the 2010-11 campaign and are 23-10 so far this year ... Missouri is 1,500-1,038 all-time.

> Head Coach Mike Anderson won his 200th career game vs. Texas Tech as well ... Anderson won his 100th game at Missouri earlier this season ...

Anderson won 89 games in four years at UAB.

> Winning down the stretch was significant for a number of reasons, but the Tigers have 23+ wins each of the past three campaigns for the first time in program history ... Mizzou won 31 games in 2008-09 and went 23-11 last season ... Missouri has had three consecutive 22+ campaigns before, most recently in 1982-83.

> Head Coach Mike Anderson continues to build the Tiger Basketball program ... Anderson recently recorded his seventh 20-win campaign in nine seasons as a head coach ... Anderson enjoyed four consecutive 20-win campaigns at UAB before reviving the Missouri program.

> The Tigers rank #9 nationally at 81.4 points per game ... In neutral court games that figure is a solid 81.8 points per game, including games against NCAA teams Texas A&M, Georgetown and Illinois.

> Missouri is of course led by All-Big 12 performer Marcus Denmon ... Denmon has been one of the Big 12's better scorers over the past month, topping 19+ points seven times in eight games, including 20 points, five dimes and five steals vs. Texas Tech and 22 more vs. Texas A&M during postseason play ... That was the first 20-point, five assist and five steal game in Missouri postseason history ... Over his last eight games Denmon is averaging 20.0 points on 54 percent shooting from the floor and 46 percent shooting from three-point range.

> Flip Pressey leads all Big 12 freshmen in assists and steals this year and his 11 games with 5+ assists at Missouri ranks #1 all-time in school history for a freshman ... Pressey is tied with Travis Ford (11) on Missouri's list of five-assist games for rookies ... However if you dial it up a notch, Pressey is already Missouri's freshman leader in games with 7+ assists (tied with Jimmy McKinney) with four and the leader with three 8+ assist games.

> Pressey had 62 assists in Big 12 play this year, which is the most ever by a Tiger freshman ... The top overall mark in Big 12 play by a Tiger is 72 by Jason Horton in 2006.

> He is already the Mizzou freshman record holder with 112 assists and is closing in on the freshman steals record as well ... He has 56 thefts in 29 games and needs seven more rips to break the record.

> Mizzou Basketball has 77 victories over its last three seasons, the winningest three-year stretch in school history ... Tiger clubs from 1980-83 and 1988-91 won 75 games over a three-year stretch.

> Missouri has blocked 168 shots this season, a new school record ... The previous record for blocks was 160, which was set last season ... MU has never led the Big 12 in blocked shots, but paced the league throughout the regular season and averages at 5.1 per game this year.

> Balanced scoring has been key for the Tigers this year ... In fact Missouri has had seven players reach double figures in a game twice this year, including a home contest vs. North Alabama.

> With that great balance Missouri has used 10 different starting lineups this season ... Of course it doesn't really matter who starts, it's about who finishes!

> Mizzou is #12 nationally in assists at 16.5 per game, so not only can the Tigers score in bunches, but they do it with great efficiency, recording dimes on 60 percent of their hoops.

> Mizzou has been very good in non-conference games under Anderson ... The Tigers are 54-14 (.794), including four NCAA Tournament wins, since his arrival before the 2006-07 season.

> Missouri has been the ultimate team through 33 games ... The Tigers have had eight different players lead the team (or tie for the team lead) in scoring, seven different players in rebounding, seven in assists and eight in steals.

> Missouri is forcing a turnover on nearly 25 percent of its opponent possessions this year (603 opponent turnovers compared to 1,889 opponent FG attempts).

> The Tigers have scored 685 points off of those 603 turnovers ... So far Missouri is averaging 20.8 ppg off of turnovers, including 41 points off turnovers vs. Central Arkansas.

> Bench production from the Tiger reserves is nothing new under Mike Anderson ... The Tigers ranked #2 nationally in bench scoring a season ago at 31.6 points per game and have averaged 27.1 points over Anderson's five years in Columbia!

> The Tigers are averaging 25.2 ppg from their bench this season, including a season high 49 points vs. La Salle on Nov. 24 and 42 vs. Oklahoma.

> Another critical stat for Missouri is field goal opportunities ... Missouri thrives on its defensive > Mizzou blocked 10 shots at Colorado on Jan. 8, the most since the 1998-99 season for a Tiger team ... Laurence Bowers led the way with a school record tying eight total swats.

> Missouri has typically played some tough schedules over the years and that trend will continue in 2010-11 ... Mizzou will have 13 games against teams ranked / receiving votes in the Top 25 ... Included in that list are some impressive non-conference games vs. Old Dominion and Vanderbilt at home, neutral site games vs. #19 Illinois, #14 Georgetown, Wyoming and La Salle and a road game at Oregon.

KTGR-AM	Columbia	1580	Cincinnati (25-8, 11-7) makes its first NCAA Tournament trip since 2005 and enter the Big Dance as a #6 seed ... Cincinnati is a great defensive team and allows just 59.2 points per game ... They also have a +4.6 rebounding margin and finished the year strong, winning six of their final eight games, including two wins over Georgetown ... Yancy Gates is the team's top scorer (11.8) and rebounder (6.8), while Dion Dixon (11.6 ppg) has a team-leading 48 treys ... Cashmere Wright has 125 assists and 44 steals for a club that has nine players in its regular rotation.

KCMQ-FM	Columbia	96.7	Mizzou's Mike Anderson enters his sixth NCAA Tournament appearance as a head coach and third with the Tigers ... Prior to his three consecutive runs at Mizzou, Anderson guided Alabama-Birmingham to the Big Dance from 2004-06 and boasts a 7-5 all-time mark in the tourney. > Anderson also made 15 other NCAA Tournament appearances as a longtime assistant coach for the legendary Nolan Richardson – 13 at Arkansas and two at Tulsa ... Anderson's record in those games under Richardson was a sterling 26-14, giving him a combined 33-19 all-time record as a head or assistant coach in the NCAA Tournament.

KUDL-HD3	Kansas City	93.1-3	We'll have to wait and see just how popular of a pick that Mizzou is for the Final Four among national prognosticators ... If they don't pick the Tigers, shrewd observers of history might want to take note of who the Tigers are playing, however. > That's because eight of the last nine teams who have beaten MU in the NCAA Tournament have gone on to reach the Final Four ... If You Build It ...

Missouri set a Mizzou Arena record for attendance this season, as the Tigers averaged 11,112 fans per game this year, the highest average attendance since Mizzou Arena was opened in 2004-05 ... The previous mark was set last season as MU averaged 10,349 fans during its 18-game home slate.

> During Big 12 games only Missouri averaged a Mizzou Arena record 13,735 fans this season.

More Sharing The Wealth Notes

Missouri has 77 wins over the past three seasons and it's no surprise that the Tigers have done it with unselfish basketball ... This year Mizzou is on pace to have eight players with 30 or more assists, the third highest total in school history ... However did you know that the top 30+ assist totals came each of the last two years, when Missouri had nine different players record 30+ dimes, both in 2008-09 (31 wins) and 2009-10 (23 wins)? ... It just goes to show you that unselfish basketball = winning basketball.

Bowers Barely Missing

Laurence Bowers is showing the consistency Head Coach Mike Anderson has been looking for over his last 10 games, as he is averaging 13.8 points and 7.0 rebounds to help give Missouri a steady inside presence.

> Bowers has topped double figures seven times in his last 10 outings, including 20 points, nine boards and six steals vs. Baylor, 22 points, 10 boards and five steals vs. Kansas, 19 points at Kansas and 16 points at both Iowa State and Kansas State.

> During this recent surge Bowers is shooting 57 percent from the floor (55-of-97) and has 13 assists, 14 steals and 13 blocks.

Denmon, English Reaches Milestones

Marcus Denmon scored his 1,000th-career point during Missouri's 92-84 victory over Texas Tech on Feb. 15 ... Denmon finished the game with a team-high 20 points, including 18 points in the first half ... The milestone bucket came with 3:08 to play in the first half on a driving lay-up.

> Kim English needed just one extra game to top 1,000 points as he accomplished the feat at Iowa State thanks to swishing home a pair of free throws with 13:15 remaining in the first half.

> The duo narrowly missed becoming the first pair of teammates to top 1,000 career points in the same game since Melvin Booker and Jevon Crudup on Feb. 21, 1993, vs. Nebraska.

The Future Is Bright

Mike Dixon and Flip Pressey are the top underclassmen assist tandem among "High Major" programs in the country this season ... The duo has combined for 224 dimes this year, despite the fact that each has missed multiple games in 2010-11.

> Only one other tandem of underclassmen teammates appear in the assist Top 10 of their respective conferences, that's South Carolina's Bruce Ellington (3.2 apg) and Lakeem Jackson (2.5 apg) ... That duo has combined for 163 assists in 30 games.

Don't Deny Denmon's Defense

Marcus Denmon makes headlines with his clutch offensive play, but the junior guard currently ranks #3 in the Big 12 with 1.8 steals and his terrific on-ball defense has made him a nominee for the league's All-Defensive Team.

> The Kansas City native has had 11 games this season with three (or more) thefts, ranking #6 in school history for three-steal games in a single season.

> Denmon has also been an outstanding on-ball defender for Missouri and recently held Baylor's LaceDarius Dunn scoreless in the first half of the Feb. 23 meeting and held the senior to just 12 points on 4-of-14 shooting.

Pressey Among MU's Top Frosh Point Guards

Flip Pressey has made a huge splash for Mizzou early in his Tiger career and below is a quick look at how the Dallas native compares to some other great Tiger point guards during their rookie campaigns, including teammate Mike Dixon.

English Patience

Kim English came to Missouri known for his shooting prowess, but this season the junior has shown improved all-around play, while focusing less on scoring totals ... Last season the Baltimore native led the Tigers with 14.0 points per game, but also committed a team-leading 71 turnovers ... This year English is averaging 10.2 points per game, including double-figure scoring games in nine of his last 16 contests, while ranking among team leaders in assists (67) and steals (42) ... The 67 assists are a career high.

> English continues to be a potent shooter however and scored a season high 21 points vs. Colorado off the bench thanks to 6-of-10 shooting from the floor and 6-of-6 success at the foul line ... The junior from Baltimore also dropped in 16 points vs. Baylor on 4-of-6 treys.

Denmon Named Mid-Season All-American

Marcus Denmon was named a mid-season Rivals.com Second Team All-American on Jan. 13 ... The Kansas City native has been one of the country's most efficient players this season and leads the Tigers in scoring and three-point percentage, while ranking among national leaders in both categories as well ... He was also named the country's Most Improved Player by ESPN and was Big 12 Co-Player of the Year by Jay Bilas of ESPN.

Top Shot-Blocking Tandems at Mizzou

Laurence Bowers and Ricardo Ratliffe are the top shot-blocking tandem in school history ... The pair have combined for 106 swats in 33 games and passed Arthur Johnson and Travon Bryant as the school's top duo for swats in a year.

Tigers Protecting The Rock

Although Missouri plays at a frenetic pace, the 2010-11 Tigers are among the best in school history at protecting the rock ... Missouri is averaging just 12.8 turnovers per game this season, which is among the nation's leaders for the fewest in the country.

> In fact, Missouri top four turnover-free seasons have come under the watch of Head Coach Mike Anderson.

Denmon Named To Wooden Top 30 List

Marcus Denmon has played his way onto All-America lists throughout the country and on Jan. 6 he was named to the John Wooden Award Midseason Top 30 list ... Denmon has been one of the country's most efficient players and is averaging 16.8 points, 3.5 rebounds, 1.7 assists and 1.7 steals for the Tigers this season ... He is also one of six Big 12 players named to the list.

Five In Double Figures = Great Seasons

Missouri has five players averaging double-figures in scoring this season, a rarity in school history ... In fact just three teams at Mizzou have had five players finish the year averaging double-figures: 1964-65, 1988-89 and 1989-90 ... Not surprisingly the 1988-90 teams recorded a combined 55 wins over those two seasons and this year's Tiger team is a solid 23-10 heading into NCAA play.

Lucky #7

Missouri's depth has led to unprecedented scoring balance this year, as the Tigers have had seven players reach double figures in the same game twice this year ... Mizzou had seven players score 10+ vs. both Central Arkansas and North Alabama ... The last time Mizzou had seven or more in double figures was a Dec. 2, 1995, win vs. Chicago State ... Below is a list of seven-double figure scoring games in school history.

Date	Opponent	10+	Score
12-30-87	Alabama State	8	129-64
12-30-89	Neb-Kearney	7	119-98
12-02-95	Chicago State	7	117-45
12-18-10	Central Arkansas	7	116-63
01-05-11	North Alabama	7	98-58

Top Non-Conference Seasons at Mizzou

Missouri finished up non-conference play tied for the most wins in school history, while also boasting the best winning percentage through non-league action (.933) ... Missouri's 14 non-league wins this season tied the mark of the 1989-90 (14-2) and 1988-89 (14-3) squads.

A Hundred Ways To Break It Down

Mike Anderson won his 100th game at Mizzou on Dec. 27, making him the fastest Tiger to reach that feat ... The 147 games it took Anderson to reach 100 topped the previous mark held by Quin Snyder, who won game #100 in 158 tries on Feb. 28, 2004 at Kansas State ... Norm Stewart won game #100 on Dec. 8, 1973, vs. UTEP in his 160th contest.

> Anderson, who is now 111-56 all-time at Mizzou, needs just one more win to top 200 for his career, which includes the 89 wins he racked up at UAB.

> Last but not least, Anderson became just the second coach in Missouri Basketball history to be 50 games over .500 for his career following an 81-62 win vs. Oral Roberts on Dec. 16 ... Anderson joins Norm Stewart (631-333 in 32 seasons) as the only other Tiger coach on that exclusive list.

Paint It Black & Gold

The addition of Ricardo Ratliffe and growth of Missouri's returners in the post have led to much more balance in Mizzou's offense ... The Tigers have scored 1,126 of 2,685 points in the paint this season compared to 998 a season ago ... The 1,126 "paint points" (through 33 games) are the second highest total during Anderson's time at Mizzou, just behind the 1,169 tallies scored by DeMarre Carroll, Leo Lyons and Co. through 33 games in 2008-09.

> Missouri has been outscored in the paint just nine times this season and has topped 30 points 22 times and is averaging 34.1 points in the paint per game this season.

Crunch Time Hoops From Denmon

- Missouri trailed #21 Illinois 57-56 with just over two minutes remaining, but Denmon hit a 17-footer with Jereme Richmond's hand in his face to give the Tigers a lead they wouldn't give up ... Denmon scored six points in the final 2:23, including a steal / assist on an Illinois in-bounds pass to seal the late-game surge.

- With the game tied and Vanderbilt running out the clock for a final shot in overtime, Denmon steals a pass from Brad Tinsley, scores the winning bucket (while being fouled) and completes the three-point play for an 85-82 win.

- On Jan. 9, 2010, with Missouri trailing Kansas State 55-52 and just 5:37 remaining, Denmon scores nine of the game's final 22 points to lift MU to a 74-68 upset win ... Denmon hit back-to-back treys, a running bank shot off the glass and a free throw off his own steal.

- Missouri and Texas Tech were tied 82-82 with 3:06 remaining in overtime in Lubbock when Denmon came off a screen and buried a 24-footer in front of the Missouri bench to give the Tigers a lead they wouldn't relinquish, resulting in a 94-89 OT win.

- Of course for good measure we need to pay homage to the 60-footer in the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament vs. #2 Memphis on March 26, 2009, in Glendale, Ariz.

A Point Guard Family

Michael Dixon Jr. is distributing the rock like his "pops" (Michael Dixon Sr.) ... A sophomore standout for Mizzou, Dixon is among the Big 12 leaders in a number of categories this season, including assists (9th at 3.6 apg), steals (4th at 1.8) and assist/turnover ratio (4th at 2.0) ...

Those numbers mirror the collegiate success his father had at San Jose State (1982-85) when the elder Dixon ranked #1 in school history with 477 assists and #6 with 106 career steals.

> However the younger Dixon has unleashed a consistent offensive game as well this year and has hit for double figures in scoring in 18 of his last 29 contests, highlighted by a career high 18 points vs. Old Dominion on Dec. 30 as well as 17 tallies vs. Wyoming, Georgetown, Texas Tech and at Colorado ... Dixon also helped lead Mizzou to a win over Vanderbilt with 15 points, four assists and three steals.

Flip The Switch

Flip Pressey is continuing to excel in his freshman campaign and is the Big 12's top freshman in assists (3.9) and steals (1.9) this season ... Pressey's 3.9 dimes per game this season are tops all-time for a Mizzou freshman and his 11 dimes in a 116-63 win over Central Arkansas tied the school record and set the MU freshman single-game mark.

> Those two stats were in full display during the Big 12 Tournament, when he ripped away six steals and dished five dimes vs. Texas A&M.

> He recently has flashed some steady offense as well, scoring a career high 17 points at Allen Fieldhouse on Feb. 7 ... Pressey hit 4-of-5 treys, while also dishing six assists with just one turnover ... Pressey also had 16 points at Texas A&M on 4-of-4 treys to go with four boards and two dimes and then poured in 13 points, three assists and four steals vs. #24 Kansas State ... At Texas Pressey scored a team high 12 points to go with five assists and three steals ... He became just the second Mizzou freshman to record a 12-5-3 game in Big 12 play, joining Keyon Dooling.

Non-Conference Home Streak #2 In Big 12

Missouri has won 57 consecutive non-conference games at home since 2005-06, which ranks very well amongst the rest of the league ... Here are the top win streaks in the league:

Team	Streak
Texas A&M	59
Missouri	57
Kansas	43
Kansas State	31
Oklahoma State	29
Texas	27
Oklahoma	25

Offensive Balance = Tough To Defend

Missouri continues to be one of the nation's most balanced programs in 2010-11 ... The Tigers have had 10 different players score nine or more points in a game this year and nine of those Tigers have reached double figures ...

In fact the Tigers have five players averaging double figures in scoring currently ... In addition, seven different Tigers have grabbed six or more rebounds in a game, six different players have dished three or more assists and seven different Tigers have had three or more steals.

 Unanimous Selection

> To illustrate how important balance is to Missouri Basketball, the Tigers had eight players top nine or more points in a game all of last season and then had a school record 11 do it in 2008-09.

O Brother, Where Art Thou?

Brother tandems aren't necessarily rare at Mizzou, but very few brother tandems have played at the same time for the Black & Gold ... Many Missouri fans remember the days of Slim & Slam (aka Sammie and Simeon Haley) and then there were Mike and Jerry Kirksey who played together one season (1957-58) and thanks to Gary Link for reminding us about the Minx twins, Beau and Charles, who played for MU in 1944, but now the Tigers have a new tandem of brothers, Matt and Phil Pressey.

> The Pressey brothers will get two seasons of play on the hardwood at Missouri and Matt enters the program after earning first team Junior College All-America honors at Navarro College in Texas, while Phil was one of the elite national recruits at the point guard position.

> To this point the most successful tandem (stats-wise) are the Haley Twins who each stood over 7-feet tall and played during the 1994-96 seasons ... The duo combined to score 819 points, grab 541 rebounds and block 120 shots during their two seasons playing together.

> During 1957-58 the Kirksey brothers of Buffalo, Mo., combined to score 125 points, led by Mike, who averaged 5.4 points per night.

The Good Tigers Giveth...

Missouri will always be one of the country's more unselfish programs under former point guard Mike Anderson and the Tigers have showed a propensity to distribute the rock once again this year ... Mizzou has dished 20 assists six times already this year and have topped 20 dimes 40 times (39-1) under Anderson.

> Missouri is currently averaging 16.5 assists through 33 games in 2010-11, which is #2 in the Big 12 and #12 nationally.

> Missouri dished a season high 33 dimes in its 116-63 win over Central Arkansas on Dec. 18, which is tied for the second most in school history and most ever by a Mike Anderson club.

And Taketh Away...

If it's The Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball then opponents know waves of defensive pressure will be in store ... Missouri has ranked among the nation's leaders in steals each year under Anderson's watch, including a national best 10.9 steals per game in 2009-10 ... The Tigers also led the country by forcing 19.4 turnovers a game last season.

> Missouri is once again among the national leaders in both turnovers forced and steals this year, forcing 18.3 turnovers per game, including a school record 34 turnovers vs. North Florida ... The Tigers also average 9.8 steals a night (#2 nationally), including 15 thefts on Feb. 5 vs. Colorado, 14 vs. Baylor on Feb. 23 and 13 vs. Kansas.

Mizzou Arena - Home Sweet Home

Mike Anderson is a perfect 50-0 all-time in non-conference home games at Missouri ... Not only have the Tigers won 50 consecutive in non-league action, but they have done so in dominating fashion, sporting a 26.8 ppg margin of victory.

> The Tigers have played some impressive foes during Anderson's run as well, and own quality wins over Arkansas, California, Davidson, Georgia, Old Dominion, Oregon, Purdue, Murray State, Mississippi State, Vandy and others during that 50-game stretch.

Year	Record	Margin of Victory
2006-07	11-0	18.7 ppg
2007-08	9-0	27.5 ppg
2008-09	10-0	29.5 ppg
2009-10	10-0	32.6 ppg
2010-11	10-0	26.0 ppg
Total	50-0	26.8 ppg

The Pine Is Fine

Missouri is known for having deep squads and that trend seems to be continuing this season as the Tiger reserves are averaging 25.2 points per game in 2010-11.

> Mizzou got a season-best 49 points off the bench vs. La Salle, paced by Marcus Denmon's season high 21 tallies on 5-of-9 three-point shooting.

> Missouri averaged 31.6 points per game from its reserves last year, ranking #2 in the nation.

> In Anderson's 165 games on the Tiger sidelines, the reserves have outscored Missouri's starters 22 times.

> Mizzou has broken the school record for bench production each of the last two years ... Before last season's 31.6 ppg bench total, the club set the record in 2008-09 with 27.0 ppg ... The Tigers also broke the school record with 62 bench points in home wins against SIU-Edwardsville and Colorado in 2008-09.

Bowers Throws First Pitch

Mizzou junior Laurence Bowers grew up loving the sport of baseball, but after starring on the mound for two prep seasons in Memphis, the 6-foot-8 forward shifted his focus to the hardwood and was one of the Big 12's most improved players as a sophomore, averaging 10.2 points, 5.7 rebounds and a team-best 48 blocked shots ... Despite the success in hoops, Bowers is still fond of baseball and remains a loyal St. Louis Cardinals fan.

> That combination of hoops stardom and Cardinal reverence paid big dividends for Bowers on Sept. 3, as he was asked to throw out the first pitch before St. Louis' win against the Cincinnati Reds at Busch Stadium ... Bowers made the most of his opportunity as well, throwing a curve ball for a strike to reserve Cardinal catcher Matt Pagnozzi ... The pitch helped kickoff a huge Mizzou weekend in St. Louis as the Tiger Football team defeated Illinois the following day 23-13 at the Edward Jones Dome.

NOTING MIZZOU HEAD COACH MIKE ANDERSON

Mike Anderson has restored the roar of Missouri Basketball. Taking over a program mired in sub-.500 basketball the three seasons before his arrival, Anderson has infused excitement, passion and winning expectations back into the Mizzou Nation and he's done it all in just four years.

Missouri ranks among the nation's leaders with 54 wins the past two seasons and the club's back-to-back NCAA Tournament berths and highly-regarded brand, The Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball, makes Mizzou one of the hottest programs on the college basketball landscape.

The Tigers have won four NCAA Tournament games the past two seasons, including a 2009 run to the NCAA Tournament's Elite Eight. That run came just a few months after the league coaches pegged the Tigers seventh in the Big 12's preseason rankings. Fast forward to last season, after MU lost three 1,000-point scorers, the Tigers were once again slotted seventh by the league brass, only to finish with 10 league wins (23-11 overall) and advance to the second round of NCAA play. In fact Missouri was just one of three teams in 2010 to qualify for the Big Dance after losing three 1,000-point scorers the season before, joining Syracuse and Marquette.

Back-to-back 20 win seasons, a consistent presence in the NCAA Tournament, a first round NBA Draft pick, Academic All-Conference performers, All-Americans and National Coach of the Year awards just begin to tell the story of Anderson's reclamation project in Columbia. His growing success story in the Show-Me State starts with a grassroots effort to galvanize an entire hoops-crazy state.

Anderson first reconnected with coaches from around the region. Days after his hiring in 2006, Anderson met with the Missouri Basketball Coaches Association in Indianapolis, Ind., to give a more detailed look at his coaching philosophy, his dedication to his student-athletes and how he makes his family-oriented approach to the game of basketball so successful... Anderson's efforts with the Missouri Basketball Coaches Association got results. The Tiger sideline boss was soon invited to basketball clinics throughout the region and Missouri signed two of the state's top players in his second year, Kansas City's top high school performer, Marcus Denmon, and hardworking big man, Steve Moore. He has since added back-to-back Missouri Players of the Year, Michael Dixon (2009) and Ricky Krecklow (2010) to his recruiting haul.

Anderson then turned his focus to recruiting. Hired just weeks before the start of the late signing period, the Missouri staff was seen from coast-to-coast, evaluating talent and searching for the right pieces to fit Mizzou's new brand of hardwood hysteria. That recruiting prowess has paid immediate dividends, as the Tigers produced back-to-back Big 12 Newcomer of the Year honorees, the school's first-ever Defensive Player of the Year (Tiller), first-ever Sixth Man of the Year (Matt Lawrence) and had multiple players earn All-Big 12 accolades, such as DeMarre Carroll, Leo Lyons, Kim English and All-Rookie Team member, Zaire Taylor. Missouri also enjoyed the Big 12's top-ranked recruiting class in 2010, a class that ranked in the Top 10 nationally by virtually every recruiting publication.

Anderson next cultivated the talent within the program. No Big 12 team has seen greater scoring increases than Anderson's bunch. The Tigers finished #4 nationally in scoring in 2008-09 and led the nation in assists per game. Missouri also set a school record for fewest turnovers in 2009 (second in 2010) and led the country in steals with 10.9 per game. In fact, no Big 12 school has recorded more steals in a two-year span than Missouri in 2008-10.

Finally, Anderson instilled a winning attitude, both on the court and in the classroom. He is the winningest coach in school history through his first four seasons and the 54 wins for the Black & Gold the last two years is the second most ever at MU.
