OPENING TIP

Kansas will host Duquesne in the second round of play in the 2011 Women's NIT on Saturday, March 19. The Jayhawks, who enter the game with a 21-12 overall mark, have advanced to the second round of the WNIT in each of the last four seasons under head coach Bonnie Henrickson. The Dukes, who are 23-8 on the season, picked up their first postseason win in school history with their win over Kent State in the first round. The two teams are meeting for the first time, however Henrickson owns a 6-1 mark versus Duquesne from her days as the head coach at Virginia Tech. The Jayhawks and Dukes will tip off at 7 p.m., in Allen Fieldhouse and the game will be streamed live for free on AT&T Jayhawk All-Access.

FAST BREAKS

- Tickets for the game are available at www.kuathletics.com or by calling 1-800-34-HAWKS. Ticket prices are $5 for adults and $4 for students ages 4-17. KU students will be admitted for free with a valid KU ID.

- Kansas is 15-4 at home on the season, including a perfect 11-0 mark versus non-conference opponents. The Dukes are an impressive 13-3 on the road this season, with two of their road losses coming against ranked opponents West Virginia and Xavier.

- Sophomore forward Carolyn Davis was tabbed First Team All-Big 12 on March 7 after averaging a team-best 18.4 points per game. Davis also turned in 7.3 rebounds and 1.4 blocks per outing in the regular season. Davis had 12 20-point outings and had three games with 30 or more points, including a career-best 36 in a win over Nebraska on Feb. 26. Davis is the fourth player under Henrickson to be honored by the league coaches.

- The Jayhawks won seven of their last 12 games after struggling to a 1-6 start in Big 12 Conference play. The common thread in the Jayhawk wins is field goal percentage. KU is shooting a blistering 54.4 (203-373) percent in the seven wins, including 44.6 (33-74) percent from beyond the arc. KU also knocked down 103-137 shots from the foul line, good for 75.2 percent, in the wins. Conversely, the Jayhawks made just 38.5 (106-275) percent from the field, including 31.7 (19-60) percent from three, in its five losses. KU also struggled from the foul line in its losses down the stretch as it made only 60.0 (33-55) percent from the charity stripe.

- By far the biggest difference in the wins and losses is with Davis who averages an amazing 76.3 percent from the field in the seven wins, while she is making 53.3 percent from the field in the five losses. Davis has scored 25.6 points per game in the wins and just 12.2 points per loss.

HEAD COACH BONNIE HENRICKSON

In her six years at the helm of the Kansas program, Bonnie Henrickson has taken the Jayhawk program from the cellar of the Big 12 Conference to the middle of the pack and it is steadily climbing. In addition, KU has advanced to postseason play in four of her six seasons, including a run to the 2009 WNIT title game.

But more than just putting wins back on the record, Henrickson has produced a program Jayhawk fans have come to embrace. A Big 12 single-game attendance record was set when Kansas hosted South Florida in the 2009 WNIT Championship game, as 16,113 fans supported the KU women's basketball program in historic Allen Fieldhouse. KU finished the 2008-09 season ranked in the Top 25 on the NCAA attendance chart and ranked fourth in the country in attendance increase.

KU advanced to postseason play for the fourth in the last five seasons under Henrickson in 2009-10, as she guided the Jayhawks to their first national ranking in a decade. Kansas appeared in the Associated Press Poll for nine consecutive weeks to open the season, ranking as high as No. 18. Jayhawk senior guard Danielle McCray was named to the 2009 Preseason Big 12 Player of the Year and was well on her way to All-America honors prior to suffering a season-ending knee injury in early February. The injury did not keep McCray from being drafted as she was the seventh overall selection in the 2010 WNBA Draft, becoming the first Kansas player to be taken in the draft under Henrickson. In addition, freshman forward Carolyn Davis was named a Freshman All-American and to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team.

Henrickson's 2008-09 squad had a "break-out" performance of sorts, demonstrating down the stretch of the season all the fruits of its labor. KU opened the season strong, compiling an 11-2 non-conference mark. The Jayhawks then struggled early in Big 12 Conference play, opening with a 2-9 mark versus league opponents, before turning the corner. The Jayhawks closed conference action winning four of their last five games, including wins over ranked teams No. 21 Iowa State and No. 5 Baylor. Kansas concluded the regular season with a 6-10 mark in Big 12 play, marking the most conference wins for Henrickson in her first five seasons at KU. The Jayhawks' seventh place finish was their highest in Henrickson's tenure.

The Jayhawks advanced to the WNIT for the second-consecutive season and third time under Henrickson, only this time they were more determined than ever to make all of their hard work pay off. KU reeled off four-straight wins, including a victory over Arkansas and a hard-fought win at New Mexico, one of the most notoriously tough places to play in all of the NCAA. Despite falling to South Florida in the title game, Kansas still finished the 2008-09 season with a 22-14 overall mark, giving the Jayhawks their most wins since the 1998-99 season.

In addition to the team having a break-through season, McCray burst onto the national scene with an eye-popping season of her own. McCray, who was named First Team All-Big 12, became the first Jayhawk since Lynn Pride in 1999 to earn All-America Honorable Mention honors as she was feted by both the Associated Press and State Farm. Additionally, she collected three Big 12 Player of the Week honors. Following the season, McCray became one of 12 players chosen for the US World University Games Team, where she helped lead the US to the gold medal.

Henrickson's 2007-08 squad posted a winning record, finishing the campaign with a 17-16 mark, while two players were honored by the league coaches with McCray being tabbed All-Big 12 Honorable Mention and center Krysten Boogaard appearing on the Big 12 All-Rookie Team. The Jayhawks advanced to postseason play for the second time in Henrickson's first four seasons with a trip to the WNIT.

A resurgence in Jayhawks' women's basketball was quite evident throughout the 2005-06 season as Henrickson's second campaign was capped off with a berth to the WNIT - KU's first postseason appearance since 2000. Under Henrickson's guidance that season, Kansas finished 17-13 to mark its first winning season in six years. Along the way, KU set a school record with 12-straight victories to open the season and snapped a 36-game drought against ranked opponents by defeating No. 23 Texas.

Using the qualities that earned her the 2005 Carol Eckman Award -- an award given by the WBCA which recognizes a coach who exemplifies spirit, integrity and character through sportsmanship, commitment to the student-athlete, honesty, ethical behavior, courage and dedication to purpose -- Henrickson developed Crystal Kemp and Erica Hallman into All-Big 12 selections for the second-straight year.

In 2004-05, Kansas posted its most wins (12) and conference wins (five) in four seasons, and placed eighth in the Big 12 Conference -- the highest Jayhawk finish in five years. In the process, Henrickson developed Kemp and Hallman into KU's first two All-Big 12 selections since 2000-01.

Henrickson and her staff have not only guided their athletes to victories on the court, but many have achieved tremendous accomplishments in the classroom at KU. Under Henrickson, the overall team GPA has steadily risen since she arrived in Lawrence and during the 2007-08 school year the Jayhawks achieved a team-record 3.11 GPA. In her first six seasons, the Jayhawks have produced 15 student-athletes to the Academic All-Big 12 Team and no less than 28 have received Athletic Director Honor Roll awards.

Henrickson arrived at KU after establishing herself as one of the nation's brightest young coaches at Virginia Tech, where she was head coach for seven seasons and guided the Hokies to a record of 158-62 and seven postseason appearances. Under her leadership, Virginia Tech reached the NCAA tournament five times and the WNIT twice, and won 20 or more games every season.

Henrickson, a Willmar, Minn., native, graduated from St. Cloud State University in 1986. As a player, she helped SCSU win three Northern Sun Conference championships and advance to three NCAA Division II quarterfinals.

In her four years as a player, SCSU compiled a 97-25 overall record, including a 31-4 mark in her sophomore season. She still ranks among the school leaders in points (4th - 1,731), rebounds (3rd - 995), free throws (1st - 507) and free throw percentage (4th - .790). She also was named to the all-conference team three times. Henrickson served as team captain her junior and senior years.

She earned her master's degree in physical education in 1988 from Western Illinois University while serving as a graduate assistant coach with the women's basketball team.
