QUOTES

Kansas State interim head coach Liz Ullathorne

"It is disappointing, but Oklahoma State played really well today. They are a very talented team and outplayed us in too many spots basically. They were just too good."

Oklahoma State head coach Chris Young

"Today was one of the best days for us as a team. Everyone was locked in. This is the time where you need to play your best tennis and today was a good step toward that. We know that we have a battle tomorrow in the semifinals, but I think the girls really started off the tournament well."

"One thing we talked about was coming out and having a dominant performance, which we did. It helps us to get out of the heat, out of the sun, and get rest while our opponents battle it out. Hopefully that will give us a little bit of an advantage. The big thing for us is just being able to do this again tomorrow."

NOTES

Oklahoma State advances to face Texas on Saturday at 3 pm CT.
