GAME NOTES
SPRINT CENTER: March 9, 2017

No. 6 Kansas State 70, No. 3 Baylor 64

Big 12 Championship Notes

- Kansas State improved to 5-10 in the quarterfinals of the Big 12 Championship and 13-20 overall. Baylor's quarterfinal record moved to 7-5 and 16-20 overall. The Wildcats hold a 3-1 advantage over the Bears in championship games and are now 1-0 as the No. 6 seed.
- This marks just the fifth time a No. 6 seed has advanced to the semifinals and the first time since 2012.
- The Wildcats advance to play West Virginia in Friday's semifinals. The two teams split during the regular season, with winning K-State winning 79-75 in Manhattan and WVU winning 85-66 in Morgantown.
- BU's sophomore guard Jake Lindsey dished out 11 assists, setting the Bears' individual record for assists in a Big 12 Championship game. It was also a season and career-high.

Individual & Team Notes

- Kansas State sophomore guard Barry Brown has now scored in double figures in 21 of 32 games this season after scoring a game-high 21 points behind a perfect 4-of-4 shooting performance from behind the arc. Brown is also now tied for sixth on the Wildcats' all-time career steals list with 116, tying Rodney McGruder after adding three steals tonight.
- Wildcats sophomore guard Kamau Stokes dished out five assists to push him into the school's top-10 list for assists in a single season, sitting at 138.
- K-State improved to 14-0 on the year when holding opponents to 65 points or less after Baylor ended the day with 64.
- Baylor junior forward Jo Lual-Acuil Jr. moved into fifth on the Bears' all-time blocks in a single season list. He swatted two blocks to bring his season total to 83.
- Baylor junior forward Johnathan Motley notched his 15th-straight game scoring in double figures. He finished with 13 points, giving him 27 double-digit scoring efforts this season.