

2019 Phillips 66 Big 12 Baseball Championship

Game 7 Notes

Chickasaw Bricktown Ballpark: May 23, 2019

No. 4 West Virginia, No. 1 Texas Tech

Big 12 Championship Notes

- With the win, West Virginia broke the record-setting trend of six straight wins by the higher seed to open the tournament.
- The Mountaineers had previously never beaten Texas Tech in the Big 12 Championship, but after tonight's contest they improved to 1-3.
- In the second year of coach's challenges in the tournament, the contest saw a record five reviews, with two plays being overturned.
- With tonight's result, 2013 Kansas State remains the most recent No. 1 seed to win its first two games of the tournament.
- No. 1 seeds are now 49-38 all-time in tournament play.

No. 4 WVU (36-18, 2-0 Big 12 Championship)

- Big 12 Pitcher of the Year Alex Manoah threw a season-high 126 pitches over 8.0 IP. He allowed one earned run on four hits and struck out 10.
- Centerfielder Brandon White made a diving play in the 6th inning that prevented Texas Tech's tying run from crossing the plate. He followed that catch with another diving play in the 7th inning to rob Tech's Gabe Holt of a hit.
- Darius Hill drove in one of West Virginia's runs when he collected his third triple on the season, tying Tyler Doanes for the team lead.

No. 1 Texas Tech (37-16, 1-1 Big 12 Championship)

- Caleb Kilian threw 90 pitches over 7.0 IP, striking out nine and allowing two runs on two hits. The two hits matched his performance from earlier in the season vs. West Virginia. The loss was attributed to Killian and marked his first loss to a conference foe this season.
- Gabe Holt continued his hot streak as he built on his two hits from last night by tallying one hit and scoring the Red Raiders only run.

STAT OF THE GAME: Thursday night's contest was Manoah's 11th quality start of the season.
