

2019 Phillips 66 Big 12 Baseball Championship

Game 9 Notes Chickasaw Bricktown Ballpark: May 24, 2019

No. 1 Texas Tech 7, No. 5 Kansas

Big 12 Championship Notes

- The last time a No. 1 seed advanced to the semifinals was 2014 (Oklahoma State).
- This was the first matchup in the Big 12 tournament between Texas Tech and Kansas, despite the two schools appearing a combined 22 times in the tournament.
- Texas Tech improved to 21-37 all-time in the Big 12 tournament.
- Kansas fell to 12-21 all-time and was eliminated during the third day of the Championship for the third straight year.

No. 1 Texas Tech

- Erased 4-run deficit for the fourth time this season, improving to 4-0 when overcoming that deficit.
- Big 12 Co-Player of the Year Josh Jung hit his 10th HR of the season, tying him for seventh-most in the conference. His now 51 RBIs are second, only to teammate Cameron Warren.
- Kurt Wilson tied his season-high in RBIs with three. The sophomore homered to left center in the 6th, his third HR of the season.
- Starting pitcher Bryce Bonnin threw 96 pitches over 5.0 IP, allowing four earned runs on five hits. He also struck out and walked five batters in the no decision.

No. 5 Kansas

- Jaxx Groshans set a new career-high for RBIs (44) in the 1st inning when he drove in a run off a sac fly. The 46 RBIs are tied for the most of any Jayhawk since 2013.
- Kansas starting pitcher Ryan Cyr fell to 4-7 on the season with the loss. He allowed seven earned runs on nine hits and struck out three.

STAT OF THE GAME: With the win, Texas Tech will advance to the semifinals for the first time since 2000.

ATTENDANCE: 5,974

WHATS NEXT: Texas Tech will face West Virginia on Saturday at 9 a.m. in Game 11. Texas Tech will need to beat the Mountaineers twice on Saturday if they want to advance to their first Big 12 Championship game since 1998.