

2019 Phillips 66 Big 12 Baseball Championship

Big 12 Championship Game Notes Chickasaw Bricktown Ballpark: May 26, 2019

No. 3 Oklahoma State 5, No. 4 West Virginia 2

Big 12 Championship Notes

- The Oklahoma State Cowboys won their second Big 12 Championship in three years and third in school history.
- The 2019 Big 12 Championship game marks Oklahoma State's fourth appearances in six years.
- For the Mountaineers, the 2019 Big 12 Championship game was their second since joining the conference, losing in 2016 to TCU.
- Attendance for the Big 12 Championship game was 6,860, the second-most in five years. The combined attendance for the tournament was 69,239, good for second best (2014) in 10 years.
- The seven combined runs are tied for the second fewest scored in the history of the Big 12 Championship game.

No. 3 Oklahoma State (36-18, 4-1 Big 12 Championship)

- Brett Standlee started his first game for the Cowboys since May 12. He threw 98 pitches over seven innings of work, allowing one run and striking out three.
- Andrew Navigato tallied nine hits in the tournament, good for second most among all players. His two-run RBI double gave the Cowboys a 3-1 lead.
- Colin Simpson drove in the other OSU RBI when he singled in the fifth inning to drive in the tying run. It was his sixth RBI of the tournament, tied for third most among all players.
- After walking off the Cowboys in Game 14, Alix Garcia drove in another run in the eighth inning, extending the Cowboys lead to 5-1.

No. 4 West Virginia (37-20, 3-2 Big 12 Championship)

- Mountaineers' starting pitcher Nick Snyder became the first pitcher in this year's Big 12 Championship to start two games.
  - Snyder threw 61 pitches over three scoreless innings. He allowed just one hit and struck out seven, bringing his tournament total to 11, third most in the 2019 Big 12 tournament.
- Tyler Doanes gathered his seventh and eighth hit, tying him with Cameron Warren for fourth most hits in the Big 12 tournament this season.
- The Mountaineer pitching staff combined for 12 strikeouts, the most of the tournament for the Mountaineers. Their 47 combined strikeouts for the entire tournament ties the 2002 Texas team for the most ever.

STAT OF THE GAME: Oklahoma State won its second Big 12 Championship in three years.

ATTENDANCE: 6,860

WHATS NEXT: The NCAA tournament field will be announced on Monday, May 27 at 11 a.m. CT, with regional play beginning on Thursday.