A Different League

- The Big 12 Conference placed five programs in the final College Football Playoff's Top 25 rankings. Three programs were ranked in the top 15 with Texas Tech (4th), BYU (12th) and Utah (15), who have all been featured in every CFP ranking this season. Arizona (17th) moved up eight spots in two weeks, and Houston (21st) finished with its highest ranking of the season.
- The sellout crowd of 85,519 at AT&T Stadium for the Edward Jones Big 12 Football Championship, between BYU and Texas Tech, was the largest crowd ever at a Power Four football championship game.
- The Conference had 12 different teams defeat an AP Top 25 opponent this season, which is the most among all FBS conferences and the most in Big 12 history.
- The Big 12 had seven programs that improved their win total from last season, including Arizona, Houston, Texas Tech and Utah who all won four or more games from 2024. Houston and Utah won six more games in 2025, which tied for the second largest single-year turnarounds in FBS.
- The 2025 season saw the Big 12 play its first ever Conference game in Europe with the Aer Lingus College Football Classic in Dublin between Iowa State and Kansas State. The Conference will have another international league game in 2026 with Arizona State and Kansas facing off in the Union Jack Classic at Wembley Stadium in London in Week Three.
- No conference in FBS football had more go-ahead scores in the final two minutes of regulation or overtime than the Big 12.
- The Big 12 Conference produced three Consensus All-Americans with Utah offensive tackle Spencer Fano alongside the Texas Tech tandem of defensive end David Bailey and linebacker Jacob Rodriguez.
