OHIO VALLEY COMMISSIONER BETH DEBAUCHE

Elizabeth (Beth) DeBauche was named commissioner of the Ohio Valley Conference on July 29, 2009, becoming the seventh full-time commissioner in the history of the OVC.

As commissioner, she answers to each of the OVC schools' presidents and works with them to set the strategic direction of the conference.

DeBauche (pronounced De-Bush), a Green Bay, Wisconsin native, received her Bachelor of Arts degree in history and government from Saint Mary's College in Indiana, and her master's degree in communications from Notre Dame. She went on to complete her juris doctorate from the Notre Dame School of Law.

After a brief stint in the field of law, DeBauche turned her attention to the world of college athletics. She got her start at Vanderbilt University, where she was the assistant athletic director for compliance from August 1994 to November 1996. From there, she worked as an assistant and later associate commissioner for the Southeastern Conference in Birmingham, Alabama, from November 1996 through August 2002.

In 2002, she relocated to Indianapolis to work in the home office of the NCAA, where she was responsible for coordinating Division I initiatives through the NCAA governance structure, as well as helping to manage the Division I agenda. She was also a liaison to governance representatives, external constituent groups and NCAA staff regarding legislative and governance activities.

After seven years with the NCAA, she made her way back to the South and took the commissioner position for the OVC in 2009.

The conference has seen several changes under DeBauche's leadership, including the implementation of a revised governance structure to enhance efficiencies and collaboration and the launch of a branding initiative. She also negotiated the largest national media contract in league history, which included moving the league's streaming efforts to the ESPN+ platform.

During DeBauche's time with the OVC, student-athletes have achieved high levels of success, not only on the field, but also in the classroom. The league has consistently seen a record number of honorees on the OVC Medal of Honor and OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll. In order to help students succeed, DeBauche sponsors comprehensive leadership programming for OVC student-athletes and coaches through on-campus summits.

In June 2022, she was named one of nine voting members to the new NCAA Board of Governors. The Board of Governors was outlined by the new NCAA constitution adopted in January by member schools and conferences and is the highest governance body for the NCAA. The board has several responsibilities, including oversight of the finances of the Association, employment and evaluation of the NCAA president, and media rights and revenue-producing contracts.

DeBauche serves on the NCAA Nominating Committee, the National Letter of Intent (NLI) Appeals Committee, is Chair of the FCS Commissioners group and the Commissioners' liaison to the FCS ADA. She has previously served as the President of the Collegiate Commissioner's Association (CCA), on the Committee on Institutional Performance, the Division I Strategic Vision and Planning Committee and the Division I Management Council.

She is a board member with the Nashville Sports Council, the Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee, and the International Women's Forum of Tennessee. She is a graduate of Leadership Nashville and of Leadership Tennessee.

BIG SOUTH COMMISSIONER SHERIKA A. MONTGOMERY

Sherika A. Montgomery began her tenure as Big South Commissioner on May 15, 2023 after being formally named the conference's fourth commissioner on April 10. A former women's basketball student-athlete and Big South staff member from 2010-17, she succeeded Kyle Kallander, who retired at the conclusion of the 2022-23 season after 27 years leading the conference.

Now in her third year leading the conference in 2025-26 Montgomery came to the Big South from the Missouri Valley Conference (MVC), where she was appointed Deputy Commissioner prior to the 2022-23 year. She joined the MVC staff in the summer of 2021 as Associate Commissioner and Senior Woman Administrator. During her time at the Valley, Montgomery was responsible for the organizational leadership of Conference operations, including administrative oversight of the Conference's governance structure, facilitation of constituency communication, execution of future strategic initiatives and the primary sport administrator for basketball. She was the liaison to the Conference's Chief Executive Officers and Directors of Athletics, with additional areas of leadership responsibilities within NCAA national matters, student-athlete experience enhancements, and Conference diversity, equity and inclusion efforts.

Montgomery brings extensive experience that spans a dozen years. Prior to arriving at the Missouri Valley Conference, Montgomery served as Assistant Director of Enforcement (Investigations and Processing) at the NCAA. In her role at the national office, she was responsible for thoroughly and timely investigating and processing potential violations of NCAA legislation involving all three NCAA divisions and all sports. This included compiling and evaluating evidence of infractions, drafting necessary submissions, and presenting information and evidence to the NCAA Committee on Infractions. In addition to her enforcement responsibilities, Montgomery served as liaison to the inaugural NCAA Women's Basketball Student-Athlete Engagement Group, which provided an amplifying voice for the sport of women's basketball on key initiatives, legislation and various issues. Montgomery also served as chair of the NCAA People of Color Employee Engagement Group and was a member of the Women's Employee Engagement Group's Leadership Council.

Montgomery was at the Summit League from 2018-19, serving as Associate Commissioner for Governance and Compliance. She also served as Associate Athletic Director for Student Success at Big South member institution Winthrop University from 2017-18. Prior to her stint at Winthrop, Montgomery spent seven years as a member of the Big South Conference staff. She started in 2010 as a compliance and administrative assistant before being promoted to Assistant Director of Compliance in 2011. Montgomery was elevated to Director of Compliance & Administration in 2013, and spent her final three years as Assistant Commissioner for Compliance and Senior Woman Administrator.

While at the Big South, Montgomery served as a two-time chair (2016-2018) of the NCAA Committee on Women's Athletics during her service from 2014-2018, and was also a member of the inaugural NCAA Board of Governors Ad Hoc Committee to Promote Cultural Diversity and Equity. She was named to the Top 25 Women in Higher Education and Beyond list by Diverse Education in 2016.

Away from office, Montgomery is a cohort member of the 2022-23 NCAA Pathway Program, a yearlong initiative designed to prepare senior-level athletics administrators for the next career step as directors of athletics or conference commissioners. She was appointed to the WBIT Selection Committee in August 2025.

A former women's basketball student-athlete at Big South member Gardner-Webb University, Montgomery earned her master's degree in Sports Science and Pedagogy in May of 2011, and her Bachelor of Science degree in Sports Management from the institution in 2009.

THE OVC-BIG SOUTH FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

On Feb. 22, 2022, the Big South Conference and Ohio Valley Conference announced the creation of an association of their football member institutions, which began in the 2023 NCAA Division I football season.

The inaugural Association game was played on September 9 with Southeast Missouri defeating Lindenwood 45-7. Gardner-Webb and UT Martin finished with 5-1 league marks to share the inaugural championship. Due to its head-to-head victory, the Runnin' Bulldogs received the automatic bid to the FCS Playoffs, its second-straight appearance in the event.

Two teams – Eastern Illinois and UT Martin – finished the year ranked in the national Top 25 polls. The Panthers were No. 24 in the AFCA Coaches Poll while the Skyhawks were No. 23 in that same poll and No. 25 in the Stats Perform Top 25.

Following the season Tennessee State defensive lineman TERRELL ALLEN was named the winner of the Buck Buchanan Award, given annual by Stats Perform to the National Defensive Player of the Year, as well as the FCS ADA National Defensive Player of the Year award. Allen led the FCS in sacks (14.5), sack yardage (123), tackles for loss (28) and tackles for loss yardage (149).

UT Martin punter AIDAN LAROS claimed the 2023 FCS Punter of the Year Award after leading the FCS in punting average (47.2 yards per attempt).

In 2024, four teams (Southeast Missouri, Tennessee State, Tennessee Tech and UT Martin) finished tied atop the Association standings and were declared co-champions. Southeast Missouri won the tiebreaker and earned the automatic bid to the FCS Playoffs, while Tennessee State and UT Martin earned at-large bids.

UT Martin would win 41-10 at nationally-ranked New Hampshire, netting the first playoff victory for the Association. The Skyhawks would lose at eventual national runner-up Montana State in the second round.

In helping his team to its first playoff berth since 2013 and first league title since 1999, Tennessee State head coach EDDIE GEORGE was named the runner-up for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award.

In June 2023, the Board of Presidents and Chancellors of the nine regionally aligned member institutions solidified their commitment to each other with a new enhanced agreement that will provide an opportunity to extend the original partnership through 2030 and beyond. This agreement, which strengthens the structure between the FCS-committed institutions, is intended to provide all members access to the automatic bid to the NCAA Division I Football Championship Playoffs, long-term stability, and a competitive league schedule. All teams will play eight Association games this season, renewing established rivalries and sparking new ones.

Schools comprising the Association are Charleston Southern University (Charleston, SC), Eastern Illinois University (Charleston, IL), Gardner-Webb University (Boiling Springs, NC), Lindenwood University (St. Charles, MO), Southeast Missouri State University (Cape Girardeau, MO), Tennessee State University (Nashville, TN), Tennessee Technological University (Cookeville, TN), University of Tennessee at Martin (Martin, TN) and Western Illinois University (Macomb, IL).
