Big West At A Glance

AHEAD OF THE PACK

With the start of conference action last week, Hawai'i and Long Beach State will start the league season perfect at 1-0 after their first conference matches. The Rainbow Wahine defeated UC Irvine in a close 3-2 fashion while the 49ers defeated UC Davis, 8-4. There are four league matches on deck this week.

CHAMPIONSHIP REMATCH

In a rematch of the 2015 women's water polo tournament championship, UC Irvine met Hawai'i on the island in the first week of conference play. The No. 4 Rainbow Wahine were victorious and pulled off a narrow 3-2 victory over the No. 7 Anteaters. After just two losses in league over five seasons, the Anteaters will start the season 0-1 for the first time since 2010.

HAWAII HOLDS OWN

Hawai'i received a top 5 ranking for the fifth-consecutive week coming in at No. 4. The No. 4 ranking is the highest for the Big West this season and this week marks the seventh week overall that the Rainbow Wahine have come in nationally at No. 4. Three teams in total have received a Top 5 ranking in 2016 (UCD, UCI, UH).

Athlete of the Week

Long Beach State senior goalkeeper Alexis Butler (Stockton, Calif./St. Mary's HS) led her team to an upset of conference rival UC Davis with solid defensive play, garnering Big West Women's Water Polo Player of the Week accolades.

Butler carried the Beach to an 8-4 win over the fifth-ranked Aggies as she made nine saves. She held UC Davis to the four goals on 4-for-30 shooting, and limited the Aggies to their third-lowest goal output this season.

Her six second half saves prevented any notions of any Aggie comeback. Butler kept UC Davis off the board in the third period with three stops.

In addition, Butler turned away seven California shots in an 11-5 loss to the eighth-ranked Golden Bears. The seven saves lifted her season total to 102, giving her 100-plus for the first time in her career at LBSU. She also sports a 7.37 goals against average this season.

Others nominated: Madeleine Sanchez (CSUN); Gabby Pierandozzi (UC Irvine); Taylor Shore (UC Santa Barbara); Irene Gonzalez (Hawai'i)
