Big West At A Glance

AGGIES CLIMB FOUR SPOTS

After defeating No. 19 UC Santa Barbara 9-6 and No. 20 Harvard 10-6 last weekend, UC Davis climbed four spots in the national polls for a top-10 ranking at No. 10. This is the highest ranking for the Aggies this season. Junior center Greta Kohlmoos netted three scores in those two contests to total a team-high 52 goals on the year. Junior Paige Virgil contributed offensively with three scores as well to bring her season total to 49.

GONZALES GETS IT DONE

Sophomore attacked Irene Gonzales recorded two hat tricks in Hawai'i's two contests this week to help the Rainbow Wahine go 1-1 through the Big West opening weekend. The 'Bows' next league showdown will take place on March 30 with UC Santa Barbara.

NINE WEEKS RANKED

For the 18th-straight week, dating back to March 16, 2016, all six Big West programs have appeared in the top-25 as determined by the Collegiate Water Polo Association's national poll. UC Irvine remains the highest-ranked squad at No. 5 as of March 15.

Athlete of the Week

UC Davis senior goalkeeper Avery Dotterer (Sacramento, Calif./American River College) earned Big West Women's Water Polo Player of the Week honors after a pair of double-digit save performances in net.

The goalkeeper helped the Aggies defeat No. 10 UC Santa Barbara (9-6) and No. 20 Harvard (10-6) as she played all but five minutes in front of the cage in the two home wins.

Dotterer totaled 27 saves with 10 goals allowed in 59 minutes for a .730 save percentage and 5.4 goals-against average.

She had 12 saves against the Gauchos, including four on power plays.

She notched a career-high 15 stops in just 27 minutes versus the No. 20 Crimson before being replaced in the fourth. Dotterer posted four straight blocks in the first quarter to keep Harvard in check, then earned an assist on an Annie Kutt goal on a long counterattack with 0:19 left in the first to kick start a dormant Aggie offense.

Others nominated: Christina Kopsia (Long Beach State); Jenna Phreaner (UC Irvine); Irene Gonzalez (Hawai'i)
