ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

Kyle McCann • UC Riverside
Jr. • San Jose, Calif.

UC Riverside junior Kyle McCann collected his second career Big West Men's Tennis Athlete of the Week honor following a productive east coast roadtrip.

McCann helped the Highlanders to a 5-1 record on the trip that resulted in wins over North Carolina A&T, Methodist, Hampton, Norfolk State and North Carolina Central.

Playing between No. 2 and No. 3 singles, McCann reeled off six straight singles victories, including four in three sets. He had a 6-2, 3-6, 6-4 victory over Norfolk State's Flavian Fernandez in a 4-3 team triumph.

With partner Filip Engstrom at No. 2 doubles, McCann registered a 5-1 record. They eked out a 7-6 (4) win over North Carolina Central's Gabriel Cicaloni and Sebastian Bromley.

Others nominated: Josh Ortlip (Cal Poly); Daniel Gealer (UC Irvine); Nicolas Moreno de Alboran (UC Santa Barbara); Felix Albert (Hawai'i)

Petra Melounova • Hawai'i
So. • Havlíčkov Brod, Czech Republic

For the third time this season, Hawai'i sophomore Petra Melounova notched Big West Women's Tennis Athlete of the Week accolades.

Melounova was dominant on a Central Coast road trip in which the Rainbow Wahine defeated Cal Poly (7-0) and UC Santa Barbara (4-2). She went 2-0 at No. 1 singles and 2-0 at No. 2 doubles with partner Roxanne Resma.

She recorded identical 6-1, 6-1 victories over Cal Poly's MacKenzie Worsnop and UCSB's Palina Dubavets. In keeping with the theme, Melounova and Resma posted identical 6-2 wins in both of their doubles matches.

Others nominated: Molly Reed (Cal Poly); Sarah Nuno (Cal State Fullerton); Natalia Munoz (Long Beach State); Nikita Pradeep (UC Davis); Amanda Atanasson (UC Santa Barbara)

BIG WEST AT A GLANCE

UC Davis Closes In On First Big West Title

UC Davis knocked off previous conference unbeaten Cal State Fullerton and upended UC Irvine last week, improving to 6-1 in Big West play and inching closer to the program's first women's tennis regular season championship.

Since UC Davis joined the Big West in 2008, the program's best finish was a tie for second in 2012. The 2011 team finished third. Both of those clubs won six Big West contests. Currently 6-1 in Big West play, this year's Aggie roster is positioned to set program records for Big West wins.

For head coach Bill Maze and his crew, the more important achievement in sight is that elusive title. The Aggies can clinch no worse than a share of the title with a win at Long Beach State on April 15. That will not be an easy task against a Beach program which has won three of the last four regular season crowns and nine total since the Big West began round-robin scheduling in 2006.

The only two schools in view of UC Davis and capable of matching the seven-win plateau – and a potential co-championship – are Cal State Fullerton and UC Santa Barbara. Both schools are currently 3-1 in league play. Only one of the two can reach seven Big West victories. The Gauchos play at Cal State Fullerton on April 15, the same day as the UC Davis-LBSU showdown.

Men's Conference Action Revs Up

The next three weeks will involve a flurry of Big West men's tennis action as a clear leader for the regular season crown hopes to emerge.

Cal Poly is off to a 2-0 start in Big West play after defeating UC Irvine and UC Riverside on the road last week. The Mustangs are the only school among six to have played two league matches. The program is seeking its first regular season title since 2013. Cal Poly's lone contest this week is a home date on Sunday with Hawai'i, which is 1-0 in league play.

UC Santa Barbara won't go quietly in its quest to win a third straight championship. The Gauchos have posted unblemished 5-0 league records in each of the last two seasons, and have defeated 11 straight Big West opponents in the regular season since 2015. In fact, UCSB has not lost a regular season conference match since April 11, 2015 against UC Davis. The Gauchos host Hawai'i and UC Irvine this week in hopes of extending those streaks.

Indian Wells Hosts Big West Tournament For 15th Straight Year

Indian Wells Tennis Garden is hosting the Big West Men's and Women's Tennis Championship for the 15th consecutive year. One of the premier facilities in the United States, also a host of the BNP Paribas Open, Indian Wells will host all six men's and nine women's teams from April 26-29.
