yourglenrosetx.com — 2020 reminded us that the show should not always go on. Interrupted by coronavirus, sports stopped the cold for three months and then started again in empty stages, stumbling, skidding and finally reeling across the finish line, all sombre from loss. The celebrations were silenced, the crowd noise was channeled and dozens of games were cancelled at the last minute, even when the sports industry wasted jobs. yourglenrosetx.com — WEATHERFORD — Glen Rose Runnin’s Tigers picked up right where they left off before the Christmas break by beating Class 6A Weatherford 58-48 on Monday afternoon at Weatherford. A win right after the Christmas break is always one you have to appreciate given the amount of free time, said Glen Rose basketball coach Jake Bell. yourglenrosetx.com — The holiday season emphasizes harmony, but includes the anniversary of the Battle of the Bulging, the greatest battle in American history. On 16 December 1944, Nazi Germany launched a huge offensive through the quiet and unfenced Ardennes forest in Belgium. Adolf Hitler and the planners in Berlin achieved a total surprise. German forces quickly gained ground. yourglenrosetx.com — A debate has erated on how to prioritize prisoners in the implementation of the COVID-19 vaccine. Six states have promised to put them ahead of other groups, according to the Prison Policy Initiative. The remaining states are not prioritizing them or remaining silent about what their plans are. yourglenrosetx.com — SomervellWeekly Jail LogDec County Sheriff’s Office. 14-20• Lawson, Chad Eugene, 40, Granbury; warrants (Hood, Travis)• Thompson, Brian Lane, 19, Lewisville; arrest warrant• Bennett, Corey Jamal, 31, Arlington; (Hood)• Wise, Donald Lansing Jr., Arlington; arrest warrant• Kelley, Johnny Adam, 20, Glen Rose; (Somervell)• Beck, Ira L., 37, Sterling, AK; assault• Stanley, George, 54, Rainbow; (Johnson), assault, interfering with arrest – Crash ReportDec. 14-20• yourglenrosetx.com December — Christmas is usually a family event. Brothers, sisters, fathers and children spend a lot of time seeing each other. They drive hundreds of miles, fly across the continent or around the world to celebrate the holidays together. But for many families, like ours, not this year. We postponed our family reunion until later, when the vaccine has taken effect and is safer. However, our tree is decorated with ornaments created by small hands that became manhood and femininity. yourglenrosetx.com — GLEN ROSE — For the first time in history, the city of Glen Rose exceeded $1 million in revenue sales tax for three consecutive years when final numbers for 2020 were released by Texas Time Contralorie Glen Hegar earlier this month. Allocations based on sales made in October by companies reporting monthly taxes, the received $134,174.50 from the state, which was a 19.16% increase over 2019. yourglenrosetx.com — GLEN ROSE — For Dino Hills Disc Golf Farm owner and designer Brandon Martin, February 2021 cannot arrive soon enough. First, he’ll fulfill a dream two of his friends made five years ago when they opened a disco golf course. At the time, Martin was not in the position to join them, but the pandemic changed all that, in a good way. I was so upset at the time that I couldn’t get away from my usual job and start a business where I had real passion like them, he said. yourglenrosetx.com — GLEN ROSE — The first 13 games of the 2020-21 basketball season have been good for the Glen Rose Runnin Tigers. Only once have the Tigers proved defeat (57-52 losses to Aledo) and that came after nine consecutive victories to open the season. The Tigers, using an aggressive defense and a shooter offense, have won their first 12 games by an average of 32 points. They have allowed 29 points or less six times, including a 19th off-season in a 54-19 win over Sanger. yourglenrosetx.com — GLEN ROSE — Earlier this year, Glen Rose City administrator Michael Leamons sent a letter to Texas-New Mexico Power in hopes of renegotiating the city’s franchise agreement, but the proposal was toppled, at least for now.
