Hello [insert name(s)],

I'd like to express my interest in the national nonprofit conference Cause Camp. Cause Camp is organized by Nonprofit Hub, a national organization dedicated to making nonprofits more remarkable. The conference will educate me in the areas of marketing, fundraising, leadership, innovation and more. It's a two-day conference complete with the brightest minds in the nonprofit sector, educational workshops and opportunities to network with fellow do-gooders and industry experts.

Cause Camp is held at Nebraska Innovation Campus in Lincoln, NE. The dates for the conference are March 25-26. Tickets are priced at $499 or $300 for two or more team members. At Cause Camp, I will learn:

- How to reach a bigger audience on a smaller budget
- How to build a stronger brand
- The best of the best fundraising examples
- Digital storytelling strategies for deeper donor engagement
- The art and science of effective gift acknowledgement
- And so much more!

I believe this experience will provide me with great networking opportunities and action items that I can implement in our organization right away. Please consider my request to attend Cause Camp 2019. I'm excited to engage in and learn more about effective nonprofit practices.

Sincerely,
