

Laurence Fredricks

Senior Researcher

Onward

Laurence Fredricks is a Senior Researcher on Onward's Social Contract programme and supports Onward's Conservative Party Policy Review work. He has a BA in Land Economy from the University of Cambridge, as well as an MPhil in Planning, Growth and Regeneration. His expertise have contributed to a number of Onward's former research programmes and reports, including Levelling Up, and Energy and Environment. He now specialises in housing policy, and sits on the High Street Policy Reference Group. Before Onward, Laurence was part of the Stronger Towns Fund Evaluation Panel (POBP) and a Research Assistant to the Department of Land Economy at the University of Cambridge.