Disclosure Report

Date Submitted: November 24th, 2023

Disclosure Materials

Certified B Corporations must complete a Disclosure Questionnaire to identify potentially sensitive issues related to the company (e.g. historical fines, sanctions, material litigation, or sensitive industry practices).

This component does not affect the company's score on the B Impact Assessment. If the company answers affirmatively to any items in the Disclosure Questionnaire that B Lab deems relevant for public stakeholders, then, as a condition of their certification, the company must:

- 1) Be transparent about details of the disclosure issues identified on the company's public B Impact Report
- 2) Describe how the company has addressed this issue
- 3) Demonstrate that management practices are in place to avoid similar issues from arising in the future, when necessary.

In all cases, the Standards Advisory council reserves the right to refuse certification if the company is ultimately deemed not to uphold the spirit and integrity of the community.

In addition to the voluntary indication of sensitive issues in the Disclosure Questionnaire, companies pursuing Certification also are subject to a background check by B Lab staff. Background checks include a review of public records, news sources, and search engines for company names, brands, executives/founders, and other relevant topics.

Sensitive issues identified through background checks may or may not be within the scope of questions in the Disclosure Questionnaire, but undergo the same review process and are subject to the same possible review by the Standards Advisory Council, including ineligibility for B Corp Certification, required remediation, or disclosure.

Disclosure Questionnaire Statement

Disclosure Questionnaire Category: Industry Disclosure

Topic	Prison Labor
Summary of Issue	smol is a UK-based company that sells laundry and cleaning products for household use. In 2022, smol started working with East Sutton Park Open Prison, with the Release On Temporary Licence (ROTL) scheme, whereby they offer paid employment opportunities to people in prison close to finishing their sentence. The practices adopted in the production were not fully in line with B Lab's Prison Industry and Labor Controversial Issue Position Statement .
Size/Scope of Issue (e.g. $ financial implication, # of individuals affected)	smol has worked with 2 ROTL employees, representing 2% of their total employees. Both roles were full-time, fully paid, and their contracts ended in November 2023.
Impact on Stakeholders	While some stakeholders have indicated that prison labor is inherently unjust or coerced, others have highlighted the potential benefits of such programs, such as the potential to assist people who are incarcerated to reintegrate into society. Among the risks and issues involved in prison labor arrangements highlighted by ILO are coercion, wages, work conditions, health and safety and post-release benefits.
Implemented Management Practices	The company has discontinued their partnership with ROTL after the contract with their two employees ended in November 2023.
Other Management Comments	The 2 ROTL placements were not affected by decision to stop offering placements. Both ROTL placements were granted parole and the ROTL placement ended upon their release from prison. Both women on ROTL placements were offered permanent employment at smol from the end of their ROTL placement. Both have accepted the employment offer with one woman starting her employment contract 6 days later. The other woman is currently unable to commute from where she has been allocated approved premises and plans to return to work at smol within three months of her release. Information has been shared with both people's Parole Officers to assist them in being able to return to the local area and

	comply with the requirements of their parole. Season ticket loan (travel assistance) has been arranged for one person to support them with increased travel costs while staying in approved premises. A temporary reduction in working hours has been agreed to support their commute from approved premises. The company continues to support both women in their release from prison, and ensure successful, long term employment at smol.
