Disclosure Materials

Certified B Corporations must complete a Disclosure Questionnaire to identify potentially sensitive issues related to the company (e.g. historical fines, sanctions, material litigation, or sensitive industry practices).

This component does not affect the company's score on the B Impact Assessment. If the company answers affirmatively to any items in the Disclosure Questionnaire that B Lab deems relevant for public stakeholders, then, as a condition of their certification, the company must:

- 1) Be transparent about details of the disclosure issues identified on the company's public B Impact Report
- 2) Describe how the company has addressed this issue
- 3) Demonstrate that management practices are in place to avoid similar issues from arising in the future, when necessary.

In all cases, the Standards Advisory council reserves the right to refuse certification if the company is ultimately deemed not to uphold the spirit and integrity of the community.

In addition to the voluntary indication of sensitive issues in the Disclosure Questionnaire, companies pursuing Certification also are subject to a background check by B Lab staff. Background checks include a review of public records, news sources, and search engines for company names, brands, executives/founders, and other relevant topics.

Sensitive issues identified through background checks may or may not be within the scope of questions in the Disclosure Questionnaire, but undergo the same review process and are subject to the same possible review by the Standards Advisory Council, including ineligibility for B Corp Certification, required remediation, or disclosure.

Disclosure Questionnaire Statement

Disclosure Questionnaire Category: Direct Sales model

Topic	The company has a direct sales model.
Summary of Issue	Better Way Designs is a retailer that sells products developed by artisans, such as candles, wine holders, bags, and earrings. The company utilizes the Direct Sales model, by recruiting consultants to sell its portfolio.
Size/Scope of Issue (e.g. $ financial implication, # of individuals affected)	In 2022, Better Way Designs had an average of 123 consultants, called "Freedom Fighters".
Impact on Stakeholders	B Lab has flagged the direct selling industry for new standards development. Stakeholder concerns for the industry are related to the legitimacy and legality of such business models due to the similarities and confusion with illegitimate pyramid schemes. Also, even where legitimate, the business model presents risks such as reliance on independent consultants or representatives to sell the company's products on their behalf to the end consumers, allegations of unrealistic financial expectation setting to representatives, lack of transparency into the income levels and expenses for representatives, among others. Should the Standards Advisory Council determine specific performance requirements for companies in this industry, Better Way Designs will be required to meet these standards. Once the new standards are available, the company will have one grace period of one recertification cycle to abide by those new standards.
Implemented Management Practices	Better Way Designs reported having the following practices to address the risks associated with the direct sales model: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- The company follows the Direct Selling Code of Ethics from the Direct Selling Association (DSA),</li><li>- Every Freedom Fighter is required to sign an agreement form before enrollment. This document establishes basic responsibilities for the company and its independent contractors,</li><li>- There are commission rates of 20-33%,</li><li>- In terms of inventory management system, the company ships</li></ul>

	directly to customers who shop online. This means that its "Freedom Fighters" don't need a large selection of personal inventory, <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- There is a Sample Replenishment Program which allows consultants to replace any current products sold out of your personal inventory for free,</li><li>- Provides free training opportunities to its consultants,</li><li>- There are frequent sales challenges to earn bonuses throughout the year that everyone is eligible for at any level.</li></ul>
