Disclosure Report

Date Submitted: August 16th, 2024

Disclosure Materials

Certified B Corporations must complete a Disclosure Questionnaire to identify potentially sensitive issues related to the company (e.g. historical fines, sanctions, material litigation, or sensitive industry practices).

This component does not affect the company's score on the B Impact Assessment. If the company answers affirmatively to any items in the Disclosure Questionnaire that B Lab deems relevant for public stakeholders, then, as a condition of their certification, the company must:

- 1) Be transparent about details of the disclosure issues identified on the company's public B Impact Report
- 2) Describe how the company has addressed this issue
- 3) Demonstrate that management practices are in place to avoid similar issues from arising in the future, when necessary.

In all cases, the Standards Advisory council reserves the right to refuse certification if the company is ultimately deemed not to uphold the spirit and integrity of the community.

In addition to the voluntary indication of sensitive issues in the Disclosure Questionnaire, companies pursuing Certification also are subject to a background check by B Lab staff. Background checks include a review of public records, news sources, and search engines for company names, brands, executives/founders, and other relevant topics.

Sensitive issues identified through background checks may or may not be within the scope of questions in the Disclosure Questionnaire, but undergo the same review process and are subject to the same possible review by the Standards Advisory Council, including ineligibility for B Corp Certification, required remediation, or disclosure.

Disclosure Questionnaire Statement

Disclosure Questionnaire Category: Other Disclosure Industries

Disclosure Questionnaire Category: Other Disclosure Industries
Topic	Clients in Controversial Industries
Summary of Issue	Igneo is an engineering consulting firm focused on providing consulting, technical assistance, turnkey construction / installation and system & software solutions. The company has had clients in the Nuclear Power/Hazardous Materials and Fossil-Fuel (non-coal/oil sands) industries which are deemed controversial by B Lab. The services offered to its client in the nuclear power/hazardous materials industry relate to assigning a team of its technical experts to advise and provide technical assistance involving the dismantling of the client's nuclear power plant. As for its clients in the fossil-fuel industry, the company is not involved in any of its clients' projects involving fossil-fuels. The company is mainly involved with the renewable energy field of its client where the main activity would involve pre-feasibility studies, environmental impact of new renewable generation plants - Soil remediation for solar thermal plants.
Size/Scope of Issue (e.g. $ financial implication, # of individuals affected)	In the fiscal year of 2024, the company had earned 1.2% of the group's total revenue from the nuclear power/hazardous waste industry and 0.8% from the fossil-fuel industry.
Impact on Stakeholder(s)	Companies that work with clients in controversial industries can indirectly increase the harmful impact to stakeholders by enabling business growth. Therefore, companies that work with clients in these industries should have practices in place to ensure that their impact is aimed at decreasing the negative impacts of the industry. B Lab has flagged the involvement of companies with clients in controversial industries as a material issue and new standards will be created to address possible risks related to this matter.
Implemented Management Practices	Igneo currently does not have a formal position on working with particular sensitive industries or a policy to move away from them. However, the company does not participate in projects or activities that are not in line with its values. The company has

	no intention to work with projects involving design, construction or operation of nuclear power plants as well as any projects involving fossil-fuels. The company's values and purpose are clearly reflected in its policies, which serve as the basis for all of its internal procedures, including customer prospecting. One of Igneo's purpose is to generate a positive impact on society and the environment through its engineering services. The scope of services provided to the clients and the projects that they work on would be aligned with this purpose. Igneo has internal policies and practices such as Environmental Policy & Prevention of Occupational Risks, a Guide to Good Environmental Practices, Good Governance, Code of Ethics, a Code of Ethics for suppliers, Compliance Regulations & a Criminal Risk Analysis, a Sustainable Development Policy, and a Human Rights Policy. The policies and practices outlined guides Igneo in terms of client and project selection.
