Disclosure Report

Date Submitted: October 10th, 2024

Disclosure Materials

Certified B Corporations must complete a Disclosure Questionnaire to identify potentially sensitive issues related to the company (e.g. historical fines, sanctions, material litigation, or sensitive industry practices).

This component does not affect the company's score on the B Impact Assessment. If the company answers affirmatively to any items in the Disclosure Questionnaire that B Lab deems relevant for public stakeholders, then, as a condition of their certification, the company must:

- 1) Be transparent about details of the disclosure issues identified on the company's public B Impact Report
- 2) Describe how the company has addressed this issue
- 3) Demonstrate that management practices are in place to avoid similar issues from arising in the future, when necessary.

In all cases, the Standards Advisory council reserves the right to refuse certification if the company is ultimately deemed not to uphold the spirit and integrity of the community.

In addition to the voluntary indication of sensitive issues in the Disclosure Questionnaire, companies pursuing Certification also are subject to a background check by B Lab staff. Background checks include a review of public records, news sources, and search engines for company names, brands, executives/founders, and other relevant topics.

Sensitive issues identified through background checks may or may not be within the scope of questions in the Disclosure Questionnaire, but undergo the same review process and are subject to the same possible review by the Standards Advisory Council, including ineligibility for B Corp Certification, required remediation, or disclosure.

Topic	Litigations related to Unfair Billing Practices and False Advertising
Summary of Issue	The company has had two cases related to claims of unfair billing on membership fee and false advertising in regards to the company's membership model. In June 2022, there was a putative class action that claimed the Company's terms and conditions were not clear and conspicuous such that Plaintiffs knew that they would be automatically enrolled into the Company's membership program following the expiration of the free trial period and be charged a recurring membership fee and claimed the Company's membership program was unfair, fraudulent, and unlawful under California law. Plaintiffs also claimed that because the Company's terms and conditions were not clear and conspicuous, that debiting Plaintiffs' accounts for membership fees violated federal law and California law regarding automatic renewals and unauthorized electronic money transfers. In April 2024, the California Autorenewal Task Force (CART), comprised of district attorneys in the State of California, alleged the Company had violated the California and federal auto renewal laws related to its membership sign-up process and certain false advertising practices related to marketing claims about its membership model.

Resolution	In the first case, the company had settled the matter out of court through payment. In the second case, the company settled the payment as per the court ruling.
Implemented Management Practices	Pursuant to the terms of the Stipulated Judgment, the Company made changes to its disclosures and membership sign-up process as requested by CART.
