

Safe | Smart | Sustainable

Bringing Clarity to Complexity

RAS Ltd is an independent team of experts in high hazard risk management, supporting clients to navigate risk with clarity. Based on the North-West of England, our award-winning team of Process and Technical Safety Consultants have partnered with leading companies in the energy, pharmaceuticals, and specialty chemical sectors across the world for over 30 years.

Our Capabilities & Services

- ALARP demonstration
- Bowties
- Business risk assessments
- Climate Change and Natech risk assessments
- COMAH compliance and intervention support
- COMAH Safety reports, notification, PCSR, POSR and operational reports
- Consequence modelling: Phast (DNV), ADMS (CERC), CFD (Fluidyn)
- DSEAR reports / Explosion Protection Documents
- Emergency exercise facilitation
- Emergency response planning
- Environmental permitting
- Environmental risk assessment using CDOIF
- Hazard Identification HAZOP, HAZID, FMEA
- Hazardous substance consent
- LOPA
- Management of change support and assessment
- Occupied buildings assessments
- Performance monitoring
- Process safety management systems development
- Quantified Risk Analysis
- Regulatory compliance audits
- Safety culture & leadership
- Training

Quality

Delivering quality is core to the way we think and work. Our quality management system is integrated in all four of our business areas: operations, communications, technical expertise and project management.

We are members of many industry associations and are actively engaging in driving process safety excellence

