Disclosure Report

Date Submitted: December 5th, 2025

Disclosure Materials

Certified B Corporations must complete a Disclosure Questionnaire to identify potentially sensitive issues related to the company (e.g. historical fines, sanctions, material litigation, or sensitive industry practices).

This component does not affect the company's score on the B Impact Assessment. If the company answers affirmatively to any items in the Disclosure Questionnaire that B Lab deems relevant for public stakeholders, then, as a condition of their certification, the company must:

- 1) Be transparent about details of the disclosure issues identified on the company's public B Impact Report
- 2) Describe how the company has addressed this issue
- 3) Demonstrate that management practices are in place to avoid similar issues from arising in the future, when necessary.

In all cases, the Standards Advisory council reserves the right to refuse certification if the company is ultimately deemed not to uphold the spirit and integrity of the community.

In addition to the voluntary indication of sensitive issues in the Disclosure Questionnaire, companies pursuing Certification also are subject to a background check by B Lab staff. Background checks include a review of public records, news sources, and search engines for company names, brands, executives/founders, and other relevant topics.

Sensitive issues identified through background checks may or may not be within the scope of questions in the Disclosure Questionnaire, but undergo the same review process and are subject to the same possible review by the Standards Advisory Council, including ineligibility for B Corp Certification, required remediation, or disclosure.

B Lab's Public Complaints Process

Any party may submit a complaint about a current B Corp through B Lab's Public Complaint Process. Grounds for complaint include:

- 1) Intentional misrepresentation of practices, policies, and/or claimed outcomes during the company's certification process
- 2) Breaches of the B Corp Community's core values as expressed in our Declaration of Interdependence

This document contains a copy of the company's completed Disclosure Questionnaire and related disclosure documentation provided by the company.

Disclosure Questionnaire Statement

Disclosure Questionnaire Category: Other - Disclosures

Issue Date	September 7, 2025
Topic	Media coverage
Summary of Issue	Australian Pacific Touring (APT) has been accused by an international union of underpaying the crew. The International Transport Workers Federation (ITWF) filed a complaint with the Fair Work Ombudsman on behalf of the crew. The company has strongly denied the underpayment allegations
Size/Scope of Issue (e.g. $ financial implication, # of individuals affected)	Australia Pacific Touring (APT) and the ship manager (Delta and Seachefs) were alleged to have underpaid crew wages amounting to AUD 2 million while operating in Australian waters. APT was the ship charterer during this time.
Impact on Stakeholders	For the wage theft claim dispute, there may be financial harm, reduced financial security, and erosion of trust in the employer by crew members. Impact on the ship operator may include legal exposure, potential backpay liabilities, and reputational damage around labour standards, which may affect customer confidence.
Resolution	Investigation is closed. Fair Work Ombudsman (FWO) recommended that Australian Pacific Touring (APT), Delta (ship managers), and Seachefs (ship caterers) review the wages paid against FWOs classification of Seamen's roles, rather than the classification each one of the parties was using. Under this new method of calculating wages, the parties evaluated that a top-up was required, and these were paid to the crew immediately. FWO accepted this as satisfactory and closed the investigation.
Management Practices	Australian Pacific Touring (APT) has kept the Australian Marine Safety Authority and the Fair Work Ombudsman properly informed on the wage adjustments.
