Disclosure Materials

Certified B Corporations must complete a Disclosure Questionnaire to identify potentially sensitive issues related to the company (e.g. historical fines, sanctions, material litigation, or sensitive industry practices).

This component does not affect the company's score on the B Impact Assessment. If the company answers affirmatively to any items in the Disclosure Questionnaire that B Lab deems relevant for public stakeholders, then, as a condition of their certification, the company must:

- 1) Be transparent about details of the disclosure issues identified on the company's public B Impact Report
- 2) Describe how the company has addressed this issue
- 3) Demonstrate that management practices are in place to avoid similar issues from arising in the future, when necessary.

In all cases, the Standards Advisory council reserves the right to refuse certification if the company is ultimately deemed not to uphold the spirit and integrity of the community.

In addition to the voluntary indication of sensitive issues in the Disclosure Questionnaire, companies pursuing Certification also are subject to a background check by B Lab staff. Background checks include a review of public records, news sources, and search engines for company names, brands, executives/founders, and other relevant topics.

Sensitive issues identified through background checks may or may not be within the scope of questions in the Disclosure Questionnaire, but undergo the same review process and are subject to the same possible review by the Standards Advisory Council, including ineligibility for B Corp Certification, required remediation, or disclosure.

Disclosure Questionnaire Category: Labour Litigation

Issue Date	Ongoing
Topic	Allegation of racial discrimination
Summary of Issue	There is one active labor litigation involving allegations of race discrimination and victimisation. The claimant, a former employee, alleges unfair treatment during their employment and further asserts that their suspension and subsequent dismissal were retaliatory after raising their concerns with the company. All preliminary proceedings and case management directions, including the exchange of evidence and witness statements, are complete. The final hearing is scheduled for August 2027.
Size/Scope of Issue (e.g. $ financial implication, # of individuals affected)	The claimant has requested a settlement of £48,000, although both the amount and the underlying claims are disputed. An early settlement offer of £5,000 was made in order to avoid the time and future costs associated with full tribunal proceedings.
Impact on Stakeholder(s)	Beyond the financial impact, the former employee may experience significant psychological distress resulting from the alleged discrimination and subsequent dismissal.
Resolution	The case reported here remains open and unresolved.
Implemented Management Practices	At the time the matter arose, Wonderpack Eco Ltd did not have a Head of People in place. Since June 2025, the company has appointed a Head of People and implemented more rigorous documentation procedures for people processes and employment practices to reduce the risk of similar claims in the future. Wonderpack Eco Ltd has also engaged an external legal advisory team to review and strengthen its policies, ensuring that they remain compliant and are applied consistently. In parallel, the company is improving onboarding procedures for all warehouse operatives and reducing reliance on agency workers by increasing the proportion of directly employed team members.
