Level of Impact Focus

Describe your company's approach to creating positive impact.

This is an unweighted question that will not impact your score and is asked only for research/benchmarking purposes.

- Creating positive social or environmental impact is not a focus for our business
- We occasionally think about the social and environmental impact of some aspects of our business, but not frequently.
- We frequently consider our social and environmental impact, but it isn't a high priority in decision-making.
- We consistently incorporate social and environmental impact into decision-making because we consider it important to the success and profitability of our business.
- We treat our social and environmental impact as a primary measure of success for our business and prioritize it even in cases where it may not drive profitability.

Environment Impact Area Introduction

This section asks about your environmental footprint to determine which questions are applicable later on in the assessment. It also identifies whether your company's product/service is designed to deliver a specific, material, positive environmental impact, and if so, opens the Environmental Impact Business Model section that is most applicable.

Environmental Business Model

Are your company's products/services or processes structured to restore or preserve the environment in any of the following ways? (Please note: the environmental impact of your day-to-day operations will be assessed in the remaining sections of the Environment Impact Area. This question is specifically asking about your products/services or innovative production processes.)

Answering affirmatively will opt you into additional sections of the B Impact Assessment with more specific questions about this Impact Business Model.

- Through an innovative manufacturing, wholesale or agriculture process which is designed to significantly reduce environmental impact compared to typical practices for the industry
- Through a product or service that preserves, conserves, or restores the environment or resources
- None of the above

Innovative Health Products

Is there something different or innovative about the company's health product/service that has changed the industry? Is this something that is replicable, unique at the time that it was created, and that has been emulated by other organizations?

Yes. As a world class innovative consumer healthcare company, Sanofi CHC has a proven track record of launching safe and effective medicines that are truly first in class in the consumer/OTC setting. In addition to the hundreds of medicines sold across the globe, an example of truly game changing products are prescription to OTC switches such as the Allegra and Xyzal range of products, which were made available to consumers in an over the counter setting for the first time due to Sanofi CHCs commitment of enabling consumers to live fuller, healthier lives. These medicines are used to relieve problematic disease states in over 60 million consumers. As allergies rise due to the effects of climate change, pollution and the destruction of natural habitats, it is vital and indeed a central pillar of Sanofi CHCs vision to provide consumer with the cutting edge care that they need
