Disclosure Materials

Certified B Corporations must complete a Disclosure Questionnaire to identify potentially sensitive issues related to the company (e.g. historical fines, sanctions, material litigation, or sensitive industry practices).

This component does not affect the company's score on the B Impact Assessment. If the company answers affirmatively to any items in the Disclosure Questionnaire that B Lab deems relevant for public stakeholders, then, as a condition of their certification, the company must:

- 1) Be transparent about details of the disclosure issues identified on the company's public B Impact Report
- 2) Describe how the company has addressed this issue
- 3) Demonstrate that management practices are in place to avoid similar issues from arising in the future, when necessary.

In all cases, the Standards Advisory council reserves the right to refuse certification if the company is ultimately deemed not to uphold the spirit and integrity of the community.

In addition to the voluntary indication of sensitive issues in the Disclosure Questionnaire, companies pursuing Certification also are subject to a background check by B Lab staff. Background checks include a review of public records, news sources, and search engines for company names, brands, executives/founders, and other relevant topics.

Sensitive issues identified through background checks may or may not be within the scope of questions in the Disclosure Questionnaire, but undergo the same review process and are subject to the same possible review by the Standards Advisory Council, including ineligibility for B Corp Certification, required remediation, or disclosure.

B Lab's Public Complaints Process

Any party may submit a complaint about a current B Corp through B Lab's Public Complaint Process. Grounds for complaint include:

- 1) Intentional misrepresentation of practices, policies, and/or claimed outcomes during the company's certification process
- 2) Breaches of the B Corp Community's core values as expressed in our Declaration of Interdependence

Disclosure Questionnaire Statement

Disclosure Questionnaire Category: Consumer Protection

Issue Date	Ongoing
Topic	Class action related to information on the product label
Summary of Issue	Pending case regarding an allegation that dosage representation on the front label of some products is misleading because it is per serving, rather than per gummy/softgel
Size/Scope of Issue (e.g. $ financial implication, # of individuals affected)	As the case is pending an outcome, the company is unable to estimate the possible financial impact of the class-action.
Impact on Stakeholders	The alleged impact is that consumers overpay for the Olly products at issue, mistakenly believing there are more servings per bottle than there actually are.
Resolution	Litigation is ongoing.
Management Practices	As Olly disputes the allegations in the lawsuit, no specific management practices have been implemented.
Management Comments	Olly disputes that the challenged labels are misleading and that this is a genuine issue requiring changes, given that the serving size is clearly stated on the supplement facts panel and the labels comply with regulatory requirements
Related Incidents (Yes/No)	The company in the past has had two other class actions related to claims of Website inaccessibility by blind / visually impaired users and another on a claim related to a product containing more melatonin than indicated on the label. The company had settled the cases.
