Disclosure Report
Date Submitted: July 20th, 2023

Disclosure Materials

Certified B Corporations must complete a Disclosure Questionnaire to identify potentially sensitive issues related to the company (e.g. historical fines, sanctions, material litigation, or sensitive industry practices).

This component does not affect the company's score on the B Impact Assessment. If the company answers affirmatively to any items in the Disclosure Questionnaire that B Lab deems relevant for public stakeholders, then, as a condition of their certification, the company must:

- 1) Be transparent about details of the disclosure issues identified on the company's public B Impact Report
- 2) Describe how the company has addressed this issue
- 3) Demonstrate that management practices are in place to avoid similar issues from arising in the future, when necessary.

In all cases, the Standards Advisory council reserves the right to refuse certification if the company is ultimately deemed not to uphold the spirit and integrity of the community.

In addition to the voluntary indication of sensitive issues in the Disclosure Questionnaire, companies pursuing Certification also are subject to a background check by B Lab staff. Background checks include a review of public records, news sources, and search engines for company names, brands, executives/founders, and other relevant topics.

Sensitive issues identified through background checks may or may not be within the scope of questions in the Disclosure Questionnaire, but undergo the same review process and are subject to the same possible review by the Standards Advisory Council, including ineligibility for B Corp Certification, required remediation, or disclosure.

Disclosure Questionnaire Statement

Disclosure Questionnaire Category: Other - Clients in Controversial Industries

Issue Date	2018-2022
Topic	Company serves clients in Controversial Industries
Summary of Issue	SPEY Media Ltd is a company that provides services to clients in controversial industries such as the Alcohol industry. The company is a communication service provider, offering PR, digital and design services to this industry. Therefore, the services provided do not result in the management of harm resulting from this industry, although it includes drinking awareness and safe drinking messaging. Furthermore, the same services provided to clients in the Alcohol industry can be sold to clients in different industries, including non-controversial industries.
Size/Scope of Issue (e.g. $ financial implication, # of individuals affected)	78,8% of the company's revenue has been from clients in the Alcohol industry. The company charges a flat rate to its clients in the Alcohol industry, regardless of the profit. The company has a continuous ongoing engagement with clients in this industry.
Impact on Stakeholders	Companies that offer products/services to clients in controversial industries may be contributing to the controversial impact of those industries.
Implemented Management Practices	The company has an ethical marketing policy and adheres to the UK guidelines on promoting alcohol with responsible messaging for clients in the Alcohol industry. This fiscal year, the company is working with Our Whisky Foundation on a Pro Bono basis to tackle discrimination and support and empower women working in whisky around the world, while advocating for a more inclusive and diverse industry. For all new clients, the company has a due diligence process prior to working and issuing a contract. The Due Diligence process entails the screening of the financial, legal, and reputational status of the client. ESG is taken into account when reviewing ethical practices The company does not work with the Oil & Gas sector, tobacco, politics or public body with government funding (prohibitive list).

Management Comments	Whilst the company has a significant portion of clients in the Alcohol industry, the company also has clients in other industries such as hospitality/tourism, education, and sustainability.
