

WOODROW COMMUNICATIONS HOLDINGS LTD

Disclosure Report
Date Submitted: April 19th, 2024

Disclosure Materials

Certified B Corporations must complete a Disclosure Questionnaire to identify potentially sensitive issues related to the company (e.g. historical fines, sanctions, material litigation, or sensitive industry practices).

This component does not affect the company's score on the B Impact Assessment. If the company answers affirmatively to any items in the Disclosure Questionnaire that B Lab deems relevant for public stakeholders, then, as a condition of their certification, the company must:

- 1) Be transparent about details of the disclosure issues identified on the company's public B Impact Report
- 2) Describe how the company has addressed this issue
- 3) Demonstrate that management practices are in place to avoid similar issues from arising in the future, when necessary.

In all cases, the Standards Advisory council reserves the right to refuse certification if the company is ultimately deemed not to uphold the spirit and integrity of the community.

In addition to the voluntary indication of sensitive issues in the Disclosure Questionnaire, companies pursuing Certification also are subject to a background check by B Lab staff. Background checks include a review of public records, news sources, and search engines for company names, brands, executives/founders, and other relevant topics.

Sensitive issues identified through background checks may or may not be within the scope of questions in the Disclosure Questionnaire, but undergo the same review process and are subject to the same possible review by the Standards Advisory Council, including ineligibility for B Corp Certification, required remediation, or disclosure.

Disclosure Questionnaire Statement

Disclosure Questionnaire Category: Other - Clients in Controversial Industries

Disclosure Questionnaire Statement
Topic	Clients in Controversial Industries
Summary of Issue	Woodrow Communications is a consulting firm focused in the area of corporate communications. The company has had clients from the: Fossil Fuels (non coal/oil sands) and Mining industries which are deemed to be controversial industries by B Lab. The nature of the company's services with the clients in the industries mentioned has been related to providing advisory services and management of public relations such as developing communication strategies, reputation campaigning, crisis communications and ESG communications. All of the company's services can be sold to both controversial as well as non-controversial industries, although it is tailored from client/industry to client/industry.
Size/Scope of Issue (e.g. $ financial implication, # of individuals affected)	A total of 10% of revenue from clients in the fossil fuel industry, and a total of 4.77% of revenue from clients in the mining industry were derived in the fiscal year end of 2023.
Impact on Stakeholders	Companies that work with clients in controversial industries can indirectly increase the harmful impact to stakeholders by enabling business growth. Therefore, companies that work with clients in these industries should have practices in place to ensure that their impact is aimed at decreasing the negative impacts of the industry. B Lab has flagged the involvement of companies with clients in controversial industries as a material issue and new standards will be created to address possible risks related to this matter.
Implemented Management Practices	Woodrow has a hard red line policy on any organisation working in tobacco, gambling, and weapon/arms industries. The company would reject any new business opportunities immediately that comes from any of the industries mentioned and would never seek out work with businesses in these industries. In mitigating risks involved with potential clients, Woodrow has a

	"Know Your Customer" (KYC) and client due diligence compliance process for all prospective clients. The KYC/due diligence template ensures that the company is aware of the prospective clients' project summary, identification, beneficial owner, purpose & scope of the project, nature of their business, legal ownership, source and origins of funds and payment transaction methods. If any risks are triggered in the areas assessed, the company would conduct an enhanced due-diligence process which would require the Senior management's approval for the new business relationship to be established. Prospective clients that wish to engage with Woodrow would need to sign a written agreement to the due diligence process set. The company's senior leadership team investigates and discusses heavily before agreeing to any work with a potentially controversial industry and they must align with Woodrow's ESG policies which is stated in its company handbook.
