

Statement regarding services provided to a client in the controversial fossil fuel industry

The services provided by sString were exclusively in support of the acquisition of the Post Office Home Phone and Broadband business and the transition of this business into the purchasing company.

We ran the Project Management Office and Contact Centre workstreams.

We had no involvement in the activities relating to the energy side of the purchasing company.