Mission & Engagement

Level of Impact Focus

Describe your company's approach to creating positive impact.

This is an unweighted question that will not impact your score and is asked only for research/benchmarking purposes.

 \bigcirc Creating positive social or environmental impact is not a focus for our business

 \bigcirc We occasionally think about the social and environmental impact of some aspects of our business, but not frequently.

 \bigcirc We frequently consider our social and environmental impact, but it isn't a high priority in decision-making.

• We consistently incorporate social and environmental impact into decision-making because we consider it important to the success and profitability of our business.

O We treat our social and environmental impact as a primary measure of success for our business and prioritize it even in cases where it may not drive profitability.

Mission Statement

Please share the text of your formal mission statement here.

The loss of biodiversity in our environment – and in the food that sustains us – is the biggest crisis affecting us all. This threat is largely caused by the current industrial agricultural and food systems. We are Ecotone, named after the richest most biodiverse places on earth. We are a purpose-driven company here to challenge the conventions and change the food industry from the inside. For 30 years we have committed to change the industrial food system with alternative food: organic and vegetarian. We are determined to do even more than today, with concrete actions for concrete impact, by banning all chemical substances that destroy life in the fields, by promoting meat and dairy alternatives to avoid deforestation, by developing advanced agricultural practices beyond organic standards, by fighting against food standardization and by revitalising ecosystems degraded by man. We are committed to not only nourish, but also to grow a movement and raise awareness about the benefits of a healthy, biodiverse world. WE ARE ECOTONE AND THIS IS FOOD FOR BIODIVERSITY

Description of Positive Environmental Product / Service Impact

How would you describe the positive outcome for the environment created by your product/service?

Biodiversity is the heart of our Mission "Food for Biodiversity": we are here to challenge the conventions and change the food industry from the inside to protect, grow and cherish Biodiversity. We are doing so by banning all chemical substances that destroy life in the fields from our products (80% of our products are organic, all are GMO free), by promoting meat and dairy alternatives to avoid deforestation (96% of our products are vegetarian, CDP Score B for soy & palm oil, RSPO), by developing advanced agricultural practices and agrichains for our products that go beyond organic standards (Agrichains fostering biodiversity, fair trade), by fighting against food standardization as we are diversifying the ingredients in our recipes (Alternative Ingredient KPI) and by revitalising ecosystems degraded by man (diverse ecosystem restauration projects such as planting hedges or reintroducing organic almond in the south of France, supplier programs, foundation). In our group-wide Environmental management system we have set a zero waste target, CO2 reduction targets based on SBT methodology, are working on water conservation practices and an energy efficiency program. Our Greener Pack strategy has the focus of reducing packaging waste and increasing the percentage of recyclable as well as use of recycled materials.

Points Available: 0.00

Environmental Product or Service Impact

Is the environmental impact you've described part of your products' or services' impact (excluding packaging), or is it a part of the way that your company operates?

Companies should earn revenue from the product or service that has an environmental impact. Please do not include pro bono efforts within this section.

• The impact is created by a revenue-generating product/service line (e.g. selling non-toxic cleaning products, sustainability consultancy)

O The impact is created by the company's daily operations (e.g. using non-toxic cleaning products in the company's headquarters) and not the core product/service

Environmental Product Benefits

In what way or ways does your product/service conserve the environment?

Please select ONE option per product line. You may select an additional option if your product line has two separate environmental attributes.

Provides or is powered by renewable energy or cleaner-burning energy than market alternatives (e.g. solar panel manufacturers/installers, hybrid vehicles)

Conserves or diverts resources (including energy, water, materials, etc.)

Conserves or preserves the well-being of land and/or animals (e.g. land protection or reforestation services, sustainably harvested agricultural products)

Reduces or is made of less toxic/hazardous substances (e.g. brownfield remediation services, organic certified food, non-toxic cleaners)

Educates, measures, researches, or provides information to solve environmental problems (e.g. environmental consulting or auditing)

We grow food that feeds biodiversity with our mission based on three pillars: protect, grow and cherish biodiversity. As a result, an average of 30% more different species has been observed and an abundance of individuals which increases by 50% in organic plots): we set up Agrichains fostering biodiversity and increase fair trade for our products. We are fighting against food standardization as we are diversifying the ingredients in our recipes (Alternative Ingredient KPI) and are revitalising ecosystems degraded by man (diverse local projects, supplier programs, foundation). Our factory Danival is located in a Natura 2000 area, which means to adhere to a strict and detailed charter of requirements for environmental protection. Toxin / Pollution Reduction Overview

Tell us more about how your product or service reduces use of toxic or hazardous substances, prevents pollution or remediates discharges to air, land or water

We grow food that feeds biodiversity with our mission based on three pillars: protect, grow and cherish biodiversity. We are doing so by banning all chemical substances that destroy life in the fields from our products: 80% of our products are organic, all products are GMO free. The ban on pesticides and synthetic fertilisers in the European organic regulations contributes to considerably reducing the pressure on biodiversity. Indeed, synthetic pesticides have a strong impact on micro and macro-fauna. By prohibiting their use, organic farming avoids direct and indirect effects on these organisms. As a result, an average of 30% more different species has been observed and an abundance of individuals which increases by 50% in organic plots. In addition, intensive livestock farming contributes to deforestation and climate change, two major factors in the collapse of biodiversity. 80% of deforestation in the Amazon is linked to intensive livestock farming (Greenpeace), and 14.5% of GHGs are linked to livestock farming (FAO). IMPACT BUSINESS MODELS

Resource Conservation - Impact Business Model 1.0

This IBM section is applicable if your company's products/services reduce resource use and/or limit waste to landfill (e.g. products made with recycled/reused input materials, recycling services, energy-efficient appliances)

Resource Conservation Description

Which of the following most accurately describes how your product or service conserves or diverts resources?

Your answer to this unscored question is combined with other answers to automatically calculate your score in this section of the assessment.

Product or service uses resources or minimizes carbon more efficiently than market alternatives (e.g. energy-efficient appliances, low-flow shower heads)

O Product or service uses recycled, used, or compostable input materials (e.g. recycled paper, used furniture, compostable bags)

O Product or service is designed to share resources efficiently in order to minimize overall resource consumption

O Product or service creates systems for resource conservation (e.g. recycling programs, composting services, energy or water assessment software, water recycling systems)

O These descriptions do not apply to our company's product/service

Tracking Environmental Metrics

Which of the following environmental metrics does your company track regarding the environmental impact of your product or service?

Innovative Resource Conservation

Is there something different or innovative about the product/service that has changed the industry? Is this something that is replicable, unique at the time that it was created, and that has been emulated by other organizations?

Our dairy alternatives are produced by our company Abafoods, a European Center of Excellence for Plant-based Drinks Research and Development, completely in line with Ecotone's mission to protect, grow and cherish biodiversity. To PROTECT biodiversity, we are promoting meat and dairy alternatives to avoid deforestation, all crops used at Abafoods are 100% organic and GMO free and we have achieved CDP forest score B for soy. To GROW BIODIVERSITY, we have set up two unique methodologies: Diversity of ingredients in our recipes and agri-chains fostering biodiversity: In our Italian sites in Badia Polesine and Viadana, we develop recipes from a wide range of ingredients as oat, spelt, almond, hazelnut, pea etc. and produce them according to proven methods that maximise their quality profile. We defend an agricultural production model that contributes to the variety of landscapes, the conservation of regions, biodiversity preservation and ecosystems restoration. This approach based on the diversity of cultivated species, the integration of natural (not cultivated) elements on the farms, crop rotation, organic and regenerative agriculture, has multiple benefits: more habitat for wild species, resilience and valuation of ecological services, etc. On our production lines we are using the most advanced Tetra Pak® technology and external co-packers: the pack is composed of 88% renewable raw materials such as woos and sugar cane, the nonfossil origin cap is made entirely from sugar cane, the cardboard comes from responsibly managed forests and in the natural version, cardboard retains the characteristic colour of untreated fibers. For us at Abafoods, the environment is as much a priority as the quality of our products. That's why we are constantly investing in sustainable production solutions, such as our innovative cogeneration plant, which allows us to recover energy from our own production processes. Thanks to this, we cogenerate 40% of our energy. Another 58% comes from renewable energy sources that we purchase strictly certified. The remaining 2% are self-produced and come from the photovoltaic system on our rooves. To participate in the sector evolution on European level, we are involved in external working groups (FNAB, Synabio) We are conducting a project to measure our biodiversity footprint with Quantis and are engaged in setting the sector standard on the topic Environmental labelling. We have joined the SBT Nature network as pioneer to test new guidelines not yet defined to limit the pressure on nature (water, land use change...).

Innovative Land/wildlife Conservation

Is there something different or innovative about the product/service that has changed the industry? Is this something that is replicable, unique at the time that it was created, and that has been emulated by other organizations?

Our mission is based on three pillars: protect, grow and cherish biodiversity. In order to GROW BIODIVERSITY, we have set up two unique methodologies: Diversity of ingredients in our recipes: According to the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organisation, twothirds of what our food contains comes from only 9 plant species grown around the world (wheat, rice, corn, soy, palm oil, potato, cane sugar, beet sugar and cassava), contributing to the depletion of our food and our environment. We have set up an internal methodology to measure, track and improve the diversity in our ingredients. Agri-chains fostering biodiversity: We defend an agricultural production model that contributes to the variety of landscapes, the conservation of regions, biodiversity preservation and ecosystems restoration. This approach based on the diversity of cultivated species, the integration of natural (not cultivated) elements on the farms, crop rotation, organic and regenerative agriculture, has multiple benefits: more habitat for wild species, resilience and valuation of ecological services, etc. How do we qualify an agrichain fostering biodiversity? We defined criteria per commodity type at farm level and determined a farm level qualification process using either strict external certification matching our requirements or our own internal field assessment tool. Both - criteria and gualification process - have been reviewed and challenged by expert third parties such as Solagro and ISARA. The assessment and gualification of agrichains has started with proof of concept. Measurement as KPI and reporting is in progress. To participate in the sector evolution, we are involved in external working groups (FNAB, Synabio). Innovative Toxin Reduction / Remediation

Is there something different or innovative about the company's basic product or service that has changed the industry? Is this something that is replicable, unique at the time that it was created, and that has been emulated by other organizations?

Our mission is based on three pillars: protect, grow and cherish biodiversity. In order to PROTECT BIODIVERSITY 80% of our products are organic, all products are GMO free and we are promoting meat and dairy alternatives to avoid deforestation (96% of our products are vegetarian, CDP Score B for soy & palm oil, RSPO). In partnership with an NGO we have created an indicator "Index of pesticides avoided", which is a study per raw material on chemical pollution / treatment used vs. organic treatment used for our 15 strategic raw materials, which will be communicated and help to change the industry. Also we are engaged in setting the sector standard on the topic Environmental labelling with the Planet score mentioning the pesticides. Our Italian Business, Abafoods, has as of 2012 been producing dried pallet for animal feed earned from the solid part of the extraction. When our German business, Allos Hof-Manufaktur, introduced the Allos Hofgemüse and Allos Frucht Pur to the market, they were the first company that produced and sold products made of more than 60% vegetables (Hofgemüse) respectively 75% fruits (Frucht Pur). Because of the high percentages of natural organic ingredients less industrially processed ingredients are used. Since last year vegetarian meat alternatives in jars are available. Also, our brand Little lunch is working on revolutionising lunch breaks by offering high-quality organic soups and meals in jars. Our Spanish business, Biogran, was the first company in Madrid to obtain organic certification for food supplements. Our French brand Bjorg, was the first organic brand sold in hyper and supermarkets in France 40 years ago. Our factory Danival is located in a Natura 2000 area, which means to adhere to a strict and detailed charter of requirements for environmental protection. Our Benelux business uses water based inks for our Zonnatura mueslis, Clipper tea envelopes are being produced without plastic and in 2020 we introduced bio-based packaging for mueslis and dairy alternatives; in 2021 DeRit packaging was changed from black tray to transparent tray. Our UK business with its brand Clipper was the first Fairtrade tea sold in the UK. Whole Earth produced the first organic corn flakes in the UK.

The loss of biodiversity that we see in the world is largely caused by the current industrial agricultural and food systems. As all Ecotone companies are producing or trading food/drinks, we are very aware of the potential biodiversity impact of the industry we are operating in. This is why Biodiversity is in the heart of our Mission "Food for Biodiversity": we are here to challenge the conventions and change the food industry from the inside to protect, grow and cherish Biodiversity. We ticked Yes" for "Industries of Human Rights Violation" as our Alter Eco brand is selling organic and fair trade cholocate bars and coffee. Our suppliers are signing our code of conduct, on-site-audits are conducted and SEDEX membership is required
