Disclosure Report

Date Submitted: February 25th, 2024

Disclosure Materials

Certified B Corporations must complete a Disclosure Questionnaire to identify potentially sensitive issues related to the company (e.g. historical fines, sanctions, material litigation, or sensitive industry practices).

This component does not affect the company's score on the B Impact Assessment. If the company answers affirmatively to any items in the Disclosure Questionnaire that B Lab deems relevant for public stakeholders, then, as a condition of their certification, the company must:

- 1) Be transparent about details of the disclosure issues identified on the company's public B Impact Report
- 2) Describe how the company has addressed this issue
- 3) Demonstrate that management practices are in place to avoid similar issues from arising in the future, when necessary.

In all cases, the Standards Advisory council reserves the right to refuse certification if the company is ultimately deemed not to uphold the spirit and integrity of the community.

In addition to the voluntary indication of sensitive issues in the Disclosure Questionnaire, companies pursuing Certification also are subject to a background check by B Lab staff. Background checks include a review of public records, news sources, and search engines for company names, brands, executives/founders, and other relevant topics.

Sensitive issues identified through background checks may or may not be within the scope of questions in the Disclosure Questionnaire, but undergo the same review process and are subject to the same possible review by the Standards Advisory Council, including ineligibility for B Corp Certification, required remediation, or disclosure.

Disclosure Questionnaire Statement

Disclosure Questionnaire Category: Industries at Risk of Human Rights Violations

| | |
| Topic | Forced labor and human rights violations are recognized as material issues in the cocoa/chocolate industry. |
| Summary of Issue | The company sources raw, dry cocoa materials from the APROCA association . For each batch, the cocoa can be traced back to the producers since the association internally identifies the producers by marketed lot. This makes it possible to trace the cocoa producers back to their farms. The company is World Fair Trade Organization (WFTO) certified, which verifies that the enterprise adheres to Fair Trade practices. |
| Size/Scope of Issue (e.g. $ financial implication, # of individuals affected) | 100% of the dried cocoa obtained is in accordance with WFTO principles and can be traced back to the farmers. |
| Impact on Stakeholders | The global cocoa industry has a history of forced and child labor, which subjects workers to poor working conditions, low wages, and puts children at risk for human trafficking. |
| Implemented Management Practices | Paccari is WFTO Certified (World Fair Trade Organization) and is currently in the process of renewing their certification. This certification evaluates compliance with 10 principles of fair trade of Pacarri as well as the producers who are under the company's internal monitoring system. All of the company's dried cocoa purchases are obtained under their internal monitoring system of WFTO principles. To guarantee that the company's cocoa purchases are "conflict free" and that no forced labor and/or child labor is used at any point in their supply chain, the company includes the supplier association APROCA in their internal monitoring system of WFTO and the organization has signed a letter of commitment to fair trade practices. In addition, Aproca has been formally constituted as an association under the Super Intendency of Popular and Solidarity Economy of Ecuador and in their internal regulations they detail fair trade points, payment on time as well as respecting collective interests. Paccari's WFTO audit concluded that there was no child labor or forced labor on |
