Disclosure Report

Date Submitted: October 13th, 2023

Disclosure Materials

Certified B Corporations must complete a Disclosure Questionnaire to identify potentially sensitive issues related to the company (e.g. historical fines, sanctions, material litigation, or sensitive industry practices).

This component does not affect the company's score on the B Impact Assessment. If the company answers affirmatively to any items in the Disclosure Questionnaire that B Lab deems relevant for public stakeholders, then, as a condition of their certification, the company must:

- 1) Be transparent about details of the disclosure issues identified on the company's public B Impact Report
- 2) Describe how the company has addressed this issue
- 3) Demonstrate that management practices are in place to avoid similar issues from arising in the future, when necessary.

In all cases, the Standards Advisory council reserves the right to refuse certification if the company is ultimately deemed not to uphold the spirit and integrity of the community.

In addition to the voluntary indication of sensitive issues in the Disclosure Questionnaire, companies pursuing Certification also are subject to a background check by B Lab staff. Background checks include a review of public records, news sources, and search engines for company names, brands, executives/founders, and other relevant topics.

Sensitive issues identified through background checks may or may not be within the scope of questions in the Disclosure Questionnaire, but undergo the same review process and are subject to the same possible review by the Standards Advisory Council, including ineligibility for B Corp Certification, required remediation, or disclosure.

Disclosure Questionnaire Statement

Disclosure Questionnaire Category: Others - Clients in Controversial Industries

Topic	Clients in Controversial Industries
Summary of Issue	Rise Beyond is a management consultancy promoting collaboration and conversation; offering services in co-designing, facilitation support, training and support to enable connections within the organization as well as collaborative culture mapping. The company has had a one-off engagement with a client operating in the gambling industry over the last 5 years. Rise Beyond's service involved leadership development training to the client's CEO; with the aim of preparing them to think critically with regards to the ethical dilemmas of their business and the industry. The services offered by Rise Beyond adapt to their client's needs and can be offered to both controversial as well as non-controversial industries.
Size/Scope of Issue (e.g. $ financial implication, # of individuals affected)	Revenue from the client operating in the Gambling industry represented 3% of the company's FY2022 revenue. Rise Beyond no longer works with clients in this industry.
Impact on Stakeholders	Companies that work with clients in controversial industries can indirectly increase the harmful impact to stakeholders by enabling business growth. Therefore, companies that work with clients in these industries should have practices in place to ensure that their impact is aimed at decreasing the negative impacts of the industry. B Lab has flagged the involvement of companies with clients in controversial industries as a material issue and new standards will be created to address possible risks related to this matter.
Implemented Management Practices	Rise Beyond is committed to stop working with clients operating in the gambling industry as well as avoid work with companies that are deemed to cause social or environmental harm. The company has put in place new client contracting processes to help identify clients that fit outside their framework of "good business". Potential clients are asked to fill out a new client contracting form, requesting information on their mission and questions that help identify whether they operate in a sector deemed harmful. Rise Beyond then evaluates if they wish to continue with the work and indicate that when there is no alignment on values or they work in a controversial industry, work is almost always declined. The managing director (board role), Head of Operations (internal role) and the Primary Circle (advisory role) will collectively assess and agree on any new client work. Any potential clients operating in a controversial industry will now be avoided as part of RISE's commitment to decreasing any involvement with industries that negatively impact our people and planet.

Report	Internal review process where the company assess whether clients are "right for RISE" based on their impact on people and the planet: https://xusf1ileldn.typeform.com/new-client
