NA

Underserved Beneficiary Types Points Earned: 0 of 0.00000

If your beneficiaries are underserved individuals, which of the following underserved populations do they belong to? If you serve organizations that serve the underserved, which of the following populations are your client's beneficiaries?

Select the option that most accurately reflects the majority of underserved beneficiaries. The answer to this question affects questions you'll encounter further on in your assessment.

- Low income, poor, or very poor
- Other populations underserved in your product/service category, which can include minorities, veterans, disabled individuals
- Individuals who are not underserved in your product/service category (do not continue)

Impact on Underserved Populations Description Points Earned: 0 of 0.00000

Which of the following best describes how your product/service benefits underserved populations previously described?

The answer to this question affects questions you'll encounter further on in your assessment.

- My product/service helps the financial viability of purpose-driven enterprises, which in turn allows them to continue to serve their underserved target population (ex. marketing or accounting services for a social service agency)
- My product/service directly helps purpose driven enterprises improve positive impact for their underserved beneficiaries, but is not designed specifically for that underserved population (e.g. teaching curriculum sold to low income schools)
- My product/service directly helps purpose driven enterprises improve positive impact for their underserved beneficiaries, and is specifically designed to benefit that underserved population (e.g. teacher training/curriculum specifically designed to address challenges of teaching low income students)
- My product/service is directly used by the previous underserved populations (e.g. products marketed to or designed for the underserved)
