

DISCLOSURE MATERIALS

Certified B Corporations must complete a Disclosure Questionnaire to identify potentially sensitive issues related to the company (e.g. historical fines, sanctions, material litigation, or sensitive industry practices).

This component does not affect the company's score on the B Impact Assessment. If the company answers affirmatively to any items in the Disclosure Questionnaire and B Lab deems them to be material, the company must:

- 1) Be transparent about the disclosure issues identified on the company's public B Impact Report
- 2) Describe how the company has addressed this issue.
- 3) Demonstrate that management systems are in place to avoid similar issues from arising in the future.

In all cases, the Standards Advisory council reserves the right to refuse certification if the company is ultimately deemed not to uphold the spirit of the community.

In addition to the voluntary indication of sensitive issues in the Disclosure Questionnaire, companies pursuing Certification also are subject to background checks by B Lab staff. Background checks include a review of public records, news sources, and search engines for company names, brands, executives/founders, and other relevant topics.

Sensitive issues identified through background checks may or may not be within the scope of questions in the Disclosure Questionnaire, but undergo the same review process and are subject to the same possible review by the Standards Advisory Council, including ineligibility for B Corp Certification, required remediation, or disclosure.

This document contains a copy of the company's completed Disclosure Questionnaire and related disclosure documentation provided by the company.

B Corp Certification - Disclosure Questionnaire Documentation
PROVIDED BY:	Jeffrey Smith
UPDATED AS OF:	November 1, 2018
DISCLOSURE QUESTIONNAIRE CATEGORY	Employs Individuals on Zero-Hour Contracts
ISSUE DATE	October, 2018
TOPIC	Disclosure Questionnaire
SUMMARY OF ISSUE	Zero-hour contracts are for reserve employees who can be invited to come work in exceptionally busy times or when short staffed. These contracts are voluntary, and employees are not forced to have them. Many reserve employees have other base occupation, such as studies for example.
SIZE/SCOPE OF ISSUE (e.g. $ financial implication, # of individuals affected)	56 out of current 220 employees (=25%) have zero-hour contract
IMPACT ON STAKEHOLDER(S)	The contract results in flexibility for our employees on zero-hour contracts. Employees are able to work under fair wage conditions, while being able to attend other activities, since they do not have to be available at given times. It is also a great way for employees to remain connected to LETZ SUSHI when starting new activities, where their free time is limited.
IMPLEMENTED MGT PRACTICES	"The conditions of employment for reserve employees are governed by the collective bargaining agreement. They have the same rights and receive the same supplementary benefits as all other employees. It states in the collective agreement that reserve employees only can be used for one-off and short-term assignments in extraordinary situations. They are paid hourly and for a minimum of 4 hours per shift, even if the shift is shorter, and they are paid 10 % on top of the base pay. Reserve employees cannot be planned in the regular roster. In addition, they cannot be compelled to work - the manager calls and asks if they are available to come to work, and if not, they call the next reserve. The contract is indefinite. The employee has between 2 weeks and 1 month's notice depending on how long they have been with the company, and LETZ SUSHI cannot terminate the employee without proper cause."
OTHER MANAGEMENT COMMENTS	The contracts are also beneficial to LETZ SUSHI. It gives the flexibility of having employees that are able to come at short notice, and although they cannot be compelled to work, the likelihood of someone being available is high, due to the number of individuals on Zero-Hour contracts. LETZ SUSHI is the first sushi restaurant/chain in Denmark to enter into a collective bargaining agreement with a union.
