Disclosure Report

Date Submitted: March 13th, 2024

Disclosure Materials

Certified B Corporations must complete a Disclosure Questionnaire to identify potentially sensitive issues related to the company (e.g. historical fines, sanctions, material litigation, or sensitive industry practices).

This component does not affect the company's score on the B Impact Assessment. If the company answers affirmatively to any items in the Disclosure Questionnaire that B Lab deems relevant for public stakeholders, then, as a condition of their certification, the company must:

- 1) Be transparent about details of the disclosure issues identified on the company's public B Impact Report
- 2) Describe how the company has addressed this issue
- 3) Demonstrate that management practices are in place to avoid similar issues from arising in the future, when necessary.

In all cases, the Standards Advisory council reserves the right to refuse certification if the company is ultimately deemed not to uphold the spirit and integrity of the community.

In addition to the voluntary indication of sensitive issues in the Disclosure Questionnaire, companies pursuing Certification also are subject to a background check by B Lab staff. Background checks include a review of public records, news sources, and search engines for company names, brands, executives/founders, and other relevant topics.

Sensitive issues identified through background checks may or may not be within the scope of questions in the Disclosure Questionnaire, but undergo the same review process and are subject to the same possible review by the Standards Advisory Council, including ineligibility for B Corp Certification, required remediation, or disclosure.

B Lab's Public Complaints Process

Any party may submit a complaint about a current B Corp through B Lab's Public Complaint Process. Grounds for complaint include:

- 1) Intentional misrepresentation of practices, policies, and/or claimed outcomes during the company's certification process
- 2) Breaches of the B Corp Community's core values as expressed in our Declaration of Interdependence

This document contains a copy of the company's completed Disclosure Questionnaire and related disclosure documentation provided by the company.

Disclosure Questionnaire Statement

Disclosure Questionnaire Category: Other - Clients in Controversial Industries

Topic	Company serves clients in Controversial Industries
Summary of Issue	Doe-Anderson, Inc. is an Advertising and Marketing Services company and works with clients in controversial industries such as Alcohol, For-profit higher education, Fossil Fuel (others excluded coal and oil sand) and Zoos, aquariums, and animal parks. Their products can also be sold to non-controversial industries.
Size/Scope of Issue (e.g. $ financial implication, # of individuals affected)	For the fiscal year 2022, the revenue generated from clients in controversial industries accounted for around 32% of the company's overall revenue: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Clients operating in the Alcohol industry represented approximately 25%.• Clients operating in the For-profit higher education industry represented approximately 0.5%.• Clients operating in the Fossil Fuel (others excluded coal and oil sand) industry represented approximately 6%.• Clients operating in the Zoos, aquariums, and animal parks industry represented approximately 0.5%.
Impact on Stakeholders	Companies that work with clients in controversial industries can indirectly increase the harmful impact to stakeholders by enabling business growth. Therefore, companies that work with clients in these industries should have practices in place to ensure that their impact is aimed at decreasing the negative impacts of the industry. B Lab has flagged the involvement of companies with clients in controversial industries as a material issue and new standards will be created to address possible risks related to this matter.
Management Practices	The company does not have a formal policy on working with clients in controversial industries. The company reviews each potential client on a case-by-case basis to analyze their reputation, category, and behavior that may influence the company's reputation. Based on this analysis, the company decides whether or not to work with the potential client. When working with the alcohol sector, the company makes sure to promote responsible consumption and comply with age restrictions.

Management Comments	As a business engaged in advertising services, we currently collaborate with Suntory Global Spirits to promote its Jim Beam and Maker's Mark bourbon brands in the United States. We adhere to Suntory Global Spirit's Marketing Code of Practice, as well as comply with industry standards set by the Distilled Spirits Council of the United States (DISCUS) and the regulations of the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau regarding advertising.
