Disclosure Report

Date Submitted: August 28th, 2024

Disclosure Materials

Certified B Corporations must complete a Disclosure Questionnaire to identify potentially sensitive issues related to the company (e.g. historical fines, sanctions, material litigation, or sensitive industry practices).

This component does not affect the company's score on the B Impact Assessment. If the company answers affirmatively to any items in the Disclosure Questionnaire that B Lab deems relevant for public stakeholders, then, as a condition of their certification, the company must:

- 1) Be transparent about details of the disclosure issues identified on the company's public B Impact Report
- 2) Describe how the company has addressed this issue
- 3) Demonstrate that management practices are in place to avoid similar issues from arising in the future, when necessary.

In all cases, the Standards Advisory council reserves the right to refuse certification if the company is ultimately deemed not to uphold the spirit and integrity of the community.

In addition to the voluntary indication of sensitive issues in the Disclosure Questionnaire, companies pursuing Certification also are subject to a background check by B Lab staff. Background checks include a review of public records, news sources, and search engines for company names, brands, executives/founders, and other relevant topics.

Sensitive issues identified through background checks may or may not be within the scope of questions in the Disclosure Questionnaire, but undergo the same review process and are subject to the same possible review by the Standards Advisory Council, including ineligibility for B Corp Certification, required remediation, or disclosure.

B Lab's Public Complaints Process

Any party may submit a complaint about a current B Corp through B Lab's Public Complaint Process. Grounds for complaint include:

- 1) Intentional misrepresentation of practices, policies, and/or claimed outcomes during the company's certification process
- 2) Breaches of the B Corp Community's core values as expressed in our Declaration of Interdependence

This document contains a copy of the company's completed Disclosure Questionnaire and related disclosure documentation provided by the company.

Disclosure Questionnaire Statement

Disclosure Questionnaire Category: Other - Disclosure Industries

Topic	The company serves clients in Controversial Industries
Summary of Issue	Armanino is a Certified Public Accountant firm that provides tax, audit, outsourced accounting, human resources consulting, and software sales services to clients in controversial industries such as alcohol, for-profit higher education, fossil fuels, tax advisory services, zoos, aquariums, and animal parks, as well as cannabis-related products for recreational and medical purposes. Their services can also be sold to non-controversial industries.
Size/Scope of Issue (e.g. $ financial implication, # of individuals affected)	For the fiscal year 2023, the revenue generated from clients in controversial industries accounted for approximately 46.5% of the company's overall revenue: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 0.0012% of the client revenue has been from clients in the alcohol industry.• 0.26% of the client revenue has been from clients in the for-profit higher education industry.• 0.96% of the client revenue has been from clients in the fossil fuels industry.• 43% of the client revenue has been from clients in the tax advisory services industry.• 0.55% of the client revenue has been from clients in the zoos, aquariums, and animal parks industry.• 0.12% of the client revenue has been from clients in the cannabis-related products (medical purposes only, excluding recreational marijuana) industry.• 1.7% of the client revenue has been from clients in the Recreational marijuana industry.
Impact on Stakeholders	Companies that work with clients in controversial industries can indirectly increase the harmful impact on stakeholders of those businesses by enabling their business growth. Therefore, companies that work with clients in these industries should have practices in place to ensure that their impact is aimed at decreasing the negative impacts of the industry. Currently, B Lab does not have specific requirements for companies with clients in these industries. However, Certified B

	Corps are required to make transparent their involvement with such clients. As B Lab continues to evolve its standards and due diligence approach for companies with Clients in Controversial Industries, the updated criteria will be shared with the company once they are finalized. B Lab recognizes that the company began its verification process prior to B Lab developing standards for Clients in Controversial Industries, and, therefore, the company will be required to meet the new standards by their next recertification. Additionally, as of the date of this disclosure, the company has committed to not working with any new companies or projects involved in the controversial industries in question.
Implemented Management Practices	For clients in the cannabis-related products industry, Armanino consulted with an ethicist before working with this sector to ensure legitimacy. Armanino has client acceptance standards, including background checks on executives, and conducts annual reviews to ensure compliance with state laws. The AICPA recognizes the legitimacy of the cannabis industry and provides guidance to Certified Public Accountant firms like Armanino for working in the industry. For companies in the fossil fuels industry, Armanino has special onboarding procedures for publicly traded companies. For all clients, the company has a tax disclosure on the right. Additionally, the company provides a Tax Disclosure for all clients.
