Disclosure Report

Date Submitted: March 18th, 2025

Disclosure Materials

Certified B Corporations must complete a Disclosure Questionnaire to identify potentially sensitive issues related to the company (e.g. historical fines, sanctions, material litigation, or sensitive industry practices).

This component does not affect the company's score on the B Impact Assessment. If the company answers affirmatively to any items in the Disclosure Questionnaire that B Lab deems relevant for public stakeholders, then, as a condition of their certification, the company must:

- 1) Be transparent about details of the disclosure issues identified on the company's public B Impact Report
- 2) Describe how the company has addressed this issue
- 3) Demonstrate that management practices are in place to avoid similar issues from arising in the future, when necessary.

In all cases, the Standards Advisory council reserves the right to refuse certification if the company is ultimately deemed not to uphold the spirit and integrity of the community.

In addition to the voluntary indication of sensitive issues in the Disclosure Questionnaire, companies pursuing Certification also are subject to a background check by B Lab staff. Background checks include a review of public records, news sources, and search engines for company names, brands, executives/founders, and other relevant topics.

Sensitive issues identified through background checks may or may not be within the scope of questions in the Disclosure Questionnaire, but undergo the same review process and are subject to the same possible review by the Standards Advisory Council, including ineligibility for B Corp Certification, required remediation, or disclosure.

B Lab's Public Complaints Process

Any party may submit a complaint about a current B Corp through B Lab's Public Complaint Process. Grounds for complaint include:

- 1) Intentional misrepresentation of practices, policies, and/or claimed outcomes during the company's certification process
- 2) Breaches of the B Corp Community's core values as expressed in our Declaration of Interdependence

This document contains a copy of the company's completed Disclosure Questionnaire and related disclosure documentation provided by the company.

Issue Date	December 28, 2023
Topic	Litigation related to wage and hour violations
Summary of Issue	The case was initiated on December 28, 2023, in the Superior Court of California, County of Orange. The plaintiffs filed a class action alleging wage and hour violations, including failure to pay overtime, provide meal and rest periods, and timely pay wages upon termination. Additionally, a PAGA claim was added to seek civil penalties on behalf of aggrieved employees.
Size/Scope of Issue (e.g. $ financial implication, # of individuals affected)	The parties reached a settlement following a mediation on June 21, 2024, agreeing to a gross settlement amount of $135,000. This amount includes payments to class members, PAGA penalties, attorney's fees, and administrative costs.
Impact on Stakeholders	Employees may have their financial, physical and mental well-being impacted.
Resolution	Settled with agreement
Management Practices	Beauty Barrage is currently implementing new policies/practices such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none">A. Tightening up the language in the Employee Handbook, which employees sign during onboarding, stating that each employee is wholly responsible to manage themselves in-store and is responsible for managing their meal and rest breaks individually. Employees will also be instructed and required to escalate to HR, any situation that happens in the store, to the contrary. This is to be finalized within February/March 2025.B. Beauty Barrage is adding an attestation page to its mobile app, which employees will be required to attest to, at the end of each shift in the store, that they took their mandatory meal and rest breaks and did not work overtime. If an employee answers 'no' to this attestation, then it will be immediately escalated to HR, to rectify the situation. This involves development work on the company's APP and will be finalized within the next May/June 2025.

Related Incidents (Yes/No)	No
