Disclosure Report
Date Submitted: January 5th, 2026

Disclosure Materials

Certified B Corporations must complete a Disclosure Questionnaire to identify potentially sensitive issues related to the company (e.g. historical fines, sanctions, material litigation, or sensitive industry practices).

This component does not affect the company's score on the B Impact Assessment. If the company answers affirmatively to any items in the Disclosure Questionnaire that B Lab deems relevant for public stakeholders, then, as a condition of their certification, the company must:

- 1) Be transparent about details of the disclosure issues identified on the company's public B Impact Report
- 2) Describe how the company has addressed this issue
- 3) Demonstrate that management practices are in place to avoid similar issues from arising in the future, when necessary.

In all cases, the Standards Advisory council reserves the right to refuse certification if the company is ultimately deemed not to uphold the spirit and integrity of the community.

In addition to the voluntary indication of sensitive issues in the Disclosure Questionnaire, companies pursuing Certification also are subject to a background check by B Lab staff. Background checks include a review of public records, news sources, and search engines for company names, brands, executives/founders, and other relevant topics.

Sensitive issues identified through background checks may or may not be within the scope of questions in the Disclosure Questionnaire, but undergo the same review process and are subject to the same possible review by the Standards Advisory Council, including ineligibility for B Corp Certification, required remediation, or disclosure.

B Lab's Public Complaints Process

Any party may submit a complaint about a current B Corp through B Lab's Public Complaint Process. Grounds for complaint include:

- 1) Intentional misrepresentation of practices, policies, and/or claimed outcomes during the company's certification process
- 2) Breaches of the B Corp Community's core values as expressed in our Declaration of Interdependence

This document contains a copy of the company's completed Disclosure Questionnaire and related disclosure documentation provided by the company.

Disclosure Questionnaire Statement

Disclosure Questionnaire Category: Other - Disclosure Industries

| Topic | Volunteer Placement in Orphanages |
|---|--|
| Summary of Issue | Ways Out is a Hong Kong-based social venture that “turns trash into treasure” by creating jewellery from food waste, while simultaneously empowering underprivileged women (in particular, young single mothers). The company also engages with childcare organizations in its community workshop with volunteers. |
| Size/Scope of Issue (e.g. $ financial implication, # of individuals affected) | The minimum number of participating employees in these volunteer workshops is 15. |
| Impact on Stakeholders | Volunteer programs at childcare organizations, if not managed appropriately, could potentially pose risks to children, such as disruption of development due to short-term connections with caregivers, as well as risks to children's safety and well-being. For more information, please see B Lab's position statement on Orphanage-Based Volunteer Programs . |
| Implemented Management Practices | The company currently does not have a formalized selection policy or a policy on its position regarding its engagement with childcare facilities. The company also does not have a formal background check process for the childcare facilities that they work with. However, the company only chooses to work with childcare organizations that have written policies that promote child safety and set a code of conduct for interacting with children. The company signs the formal policy of the childcare facility, making themselves also responsible for the protection of the children that are involved with the voluntary workshops. The company ensures that the childcare organizations that they collaborate with follow the standards set by the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC). Staff members from the childcare organization are always present during workshops to supervise and assist with the needs of the children and to ensure a safe and supportive environment. Volunteers participating in the workshops are authorized official staff members from the corporate partner |
