Blind Applying 2016/2017 Sign up for a unique career adventure!

Hi,

The fourth round of Blind Applying has started! Initiated by Deutsche Telekom and powered by Entrypark, it is an exciting and unique way of applying for an international internship with top employers.

How does it work?

Apply for multiple internships with only one CV! You do not know for which position and international company you are applying. Even the location of the internship is secret. Internships are paid. Travel and housing costs will be covered depending on the location.

Key Facts about Blind Applying

- Application period starts on November 1, 2016 until December 11, 2016
- All you need is your CV/resume. Let your achievements shine!
- All subject fields are welcome, discover new possibilities!
- Applicants who are not selected may receive other fitting offers from the partaking companies

You can sign up on www.blindapplying.com. Jump into a career adventure you will never forget!
