FUTURA 2000 has partnered with BMW's legendary M division to express his unique artistic vision via the BMW M2, hand-painting three special examples at BMW world headquarters in Munich. Futura, born Leonard Hilton McGurr, established himself as a pioneer when graffiti met the formal gallery ecosystem in the 1980s. He quickly became known for his radical approach on the street, introducing abstraction to an entirely letter-based discipline, and became part of a wider art movement that included the likes of Jean-Michel Basquiat, Keith Haring, and Dondi White. The BMW M2 by FUTURA 2000 will make its world premiere at Frieze Los Angeles on Thursday, February 13 at 2:30 PM at Paramount Pictures Studios' Backlot, and inspire a special edition production version to go on sale later this year.

Art Talk – “Sights and Sounds”

BMW i and Soho House will continue their partnership and present an inspiring Art Talk titled “Sights and Sounds” on Wednesday, February 12 at Soho Warehouse in downtown Los Angeles. Grammy-award winning recording artist Lupe Fiasco joins FUTURA 2000 to explore the intersection of art and mobility.

About BMW Group Cultural Engagement

For almost 50 years now, the BMW Group has initiated and engaged in over 100 cultural cooperations worldwide. The company places the main focus of its long-term commitment on contemporary and modern art, classical music and jazz as well as architecture and design. In 1972, three large-scale paintings were created by the artist Gerhard Richter specifically for the foyer of the BMW Group's Munich headquarters. Since then, artists such as Andy Warhol, Jeff Koons, Daniel Barenboim, Jonas Kaufmann and architect Zaha Hadid have co-operated with BMW in a number of ways, including the legendary Art Car series, gallery partnerships, musical events and more. BMW Group affords partnering artists absolute creative freedom in all its cultural activities.
